TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

The Answer of Effie Smith Grossnickle, surviving Executrix of the last Will and Testament of George W. Garber, respectfully represents unto your Honorable Court:

FIRST: That she admits the matters and things stated in the first and second paragraphs of said Bill of Complaint.

SECOND: Answering the third paragraph of said Bill of Complaint your respondent admits that the said Rachel J. Grossnickle Garber left no children or descendants of any child or children, and left two brothers and one sister, but avers that in addition to nephews and nieces and their descendants, the said Rachel J. Grossnickle Garber left your respondent's testator as an heir.

THIRD: Answering the fourth paragraph your respondent admits the matters and things therein contained.

FOURTH: Answering the fifth and sixth paragraphs your respondent admits the matters and things therein contained.

Your respondent, further answering said Bill of Complaint, says that she is entitled, under the laws of the State of Maryland, as Executrix of George W. Garber, to the one-half interest in said real estate, after the costs and expenses are taken out.
