You Can Sing at Exclusive Girard College, but You Can't Attend

Above are some of the Kershaw Royal Singers of Camden, N.J., widely-known choral group, who gave a concert, Friday, at Girard College, rich Philadelphia school for young male orphans, founded by Stephen Girard. His will bars colored pupils, but apparently made no restriction against colored artists. This quartet, composed of members of the Jackson family, includes Julius, James, Paul and Vera Jackson. There are six other singers in the group. In the top photo at right, Charles V. Kershaw (left), founder and director of the Kershaw Singers, and Mrs. Fannie G. Newton, soloist, of Baltimore, are congratulated by William C. Sparks, superintendent of recreation at the school. In the bottom photo at right, enthusiastic applause is registered by Girard College students who don't seem to be any different than any other boys and young men. The Kershaw Singers were invited after an alumnus heard them and recommended them to school officials.

Sex Laws Broken by 90% of Men in United States

Dr. Kinsey Tells Student Nurses One-Third Are Homosexuals; Asks for Case Histories

WASHINGTON

Dr. Alfred C. Kinsey in an address to student nurses at Freedmen's Hospital this week, said that 95% of the men in the United States could be arrested if apprehended for sex laws that are broken.

The author of the best-seller, "Sex Behavior in the Male Animal", is spending a month in Washington lecturing and seeking interviews for his study.

He pointed out that in New York alone—there are 20,000 arrests made annually of male perverts and that his reports show that one-third of the males have had homosexual contact.

Dr. Kinsey called sex one of the primary factors in the nation's high divorce rate, emphasizing the fact that 60% of broken marriages are due to lack of sex knowledge or sex satisfaction.

He maintained that while sex is more discussed than any other subject people know less about it than any other subject.

His findings have revealed, he said, that no male is capable of more than four or five orgasms a day, and that while females develop physically earlier, males have sex contact earlier.

Tells Sexual Indulgence

Dr. Kinsey opined that two weeks is the longest period most males abstain from sexual relationships. The average male usually has relations every other day.

The famous Kinsey report is a result of almost 30 years of work and research made in the face of terrific opposition.

Dr. Kinsey became interested in the subject of sex 37 years ago and continued his research at the University of Indiana where he has been a faculty member for 29 years.

More Data Sought

His initial report was based on 14,000 case interviews. To further substantiate his findings, Dr. Kinsey is collecting additional data through more case histories.

He made an appeal to the nurses to submit their case histories to him. Persons interested in contacting Dr. Kinsey for an interview to give such histories may reach him at the Statler Hotel or Carver Hall.

500,000 More Members Goal of Women's Council

February to Be Designated as NCNW Month, Plan to Strengthen Program Studied

WASHINGTON

A nation-wide enlistment of women beginning Feb. 2, 1949, aimed to enroll in the National Council of Negro Women, 500,000 new members of all races, colors and creeds willing to unite for human and civil rights has been announced by Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune.

"Through women the machinery of democracy will be turned," Mrs. Bethune declared in making public details of the project. "We must unite women of all races and creeds into one moral force in the fight for human and civil rights."

Membership enlistment will be launched with a luncheon in New York City. Plans for the project were approved by representatives of 13 of the 23 national organizations affiliated with the council during a two-day conference at headquarters here.

Strengthen Program

Representatives of these organizations also studied the structure and program of the council with the view of strengthening its operations.

"February will be observed throughout the country as National council of Negro Women's month," Mrs. Bethune said.

The National Council was founded Dec. 5, 1935. It is a bi-partisan organization comprised of 23 national women's organizations with a combined membership of 850,000. The council's program is national, international and interracial in scope. It is carried on through 83 metropolitan councils in principle cities.

Membership Requirements

Membership is available to any woman who believes in and supports the purpose of the organization.

National affiliates of the council and their representatives present at the two-day conference were:

Marion B. Seymour, National Association of Colored Graduate Nurses; Eunice M. Matthews, Women's Auxiliary to the National Medical Association; Edna Forest Browne, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority; Edna Over Gray, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority; Vivian Alleyne, National Dental Auxiliary; Dorothy Height, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority; Marion Elliott, Iota Phi Lambda Sorority;

AME Church Plans to Buy Wilberforce From State

Possible Purchase Discussed at Board Executive Meeting; $30,000 Mortgage Burned

NEW YORK — (ANP) — The AME Church is planning to buy Wilberforce University from the State of Ohio, it was learned here this week.

Although Bishop D. Ward Nichols of the First Episcopal District was known to have left the city Monday to attend an executive conference of the school board in Xenia and has since returned, he could not be reached for a statement.

On Tuesday, the school burned a mortgage for $30,000, which was held by the First National Bank of Xenia, the school's last outstanding debt, $20,000 being left by Dr. Charles Wesley, president now of the state-controlled school, and $10,000 incurred since Dr. Charles L. Hill took over as the new president.

To date the amounts received by the school from the various episcopal districts are first $30,000; third $10,000; fourth $14,000; fifth $17,000; 13th $5,000; fees, $31,000 and other sources, $5,000.

Among the bishops attending the mortgage burning on Tuesday night were D. Ward Nichols, A. J. Allen, George W. Baber, D. O. Walker, and J. H. Clayborne.

A conference will soon be held by the executive board of the school and the governor-elect of Ohio, as well as with other state and city officials.

Spottsylvania Group Puts Self 'on Spot' Over Schools

County Sunday School Union Criticized for Backing Present Education Officials

FREDERICKSBURG, Va. — The Spotsylvania County Baptist Sunday School Union put itself "on the spot" on Sunday, Nov. 14, when it passed a resolution affirming colored citizens' confidence in the present county school officials.

Though the resolution passed in the Sunday school's union assembly session, it was learned later in the week that many of the delegates and visitors at the organization's convention were strongly opposed to it.

The resolution, addressed to Superintendent of Schools C. Melvin Snow and his board members, gave the officials assurance that colored citizens had faith in them and felt that the future development of colored schools in the county could be intrusted to them.

Not Attitude of All

The statement said the church group's education committee had made a study of the county's school system and had found "definite progress made in the school program during the past three years."

Opponents of the resolution adopted by the body disagreed with the committee's findings attributing "definite progress" in the development of the county schools program, pointing out that such "progress" as has been made is not satisfactory to most of the citizens of the county.

The resolution added that the statement was adopted by the union to give "the necessary assurance to our superintendent and school officials of our faith in them for the future development of our schools."

Good Will Gesture

Concluding, the statement said: "It is our belief and contention that through this period of waiting and anxiety we shall maintain our human relationships and preserve good will and understanding which have characterized our school program in recent years."

It was not immediately ascertainable to what extent local colored preachers influenced the passage of the resolution.

Ga. Mob Lynches Auto Salesman

ent version of the lynching. He said that "two or three cars stopped Mallard and four men were hidden behind bushes. One shot was fired through the windshield, striking Mallard in the chest, according to the sheriff.

While no motive for the lynching was given, NAACP reports on the killing said that Mallard had been warned not to vote in the democratic primary election. He was cautioned that his "life wouldn't be worth 50 cents if he voted," the NAACP said.

A. T. Walden, NAACP attorney of Atlanta, requested the Georgia FBI to investigate the lynching and in New York City, Walter H. White, NAACP national secretary, denounced the crime as "a dastardly deed and a celebrated murder . . . and further evidence of the continuing need for a Federal antilynching law."

Offer $500 Reward

Meanwhile, an unidentified "Georgia wool hat man" has posted $500 with the Atlanta Constitution, a daily newspaper, as a reward for the arrest of the guilty parties.

The man, who described himself as a supporter of white supremacy, asked that his name be withheld "for the time being" and was quoted as saying: "This is a white man's country, and therefore the law is the white man's law. He wrote it. It is idiotic that he live by it . . . No decent white man, no real wool hat Georgian will support murder and lynch violence."

INVITOR'S NOTE—Wool hat man: Invitor reserves right to refer to rustic Georgia countrymen. It harks back to the rough, home-made hats worn in frontier days.)
