Last Rites for Mrs. Henry Held in Cambridge Church

Mother of Attorney, Two Morticians, Was, Herself, Prominent in Church, Lodge Affairs

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary J. Henry, mother of Josiah F. Henry Jr., attorney, were held Tuesday in Cambridge, Md., at Bethel AME Church, where for 50 years she was its leading lay member.

Mrs. Henry, first county member of the Order of Eastern Star to be elected grand worthy matron, died Friday at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

With Dr. Willard W. Allen, grand master of Masons, presiding, the funeral service included the eulogy by the Rev. Harrison J. Bryant of Baltimore and obituary by the Rev. L. S. Penn of Easton, Maryland.

Mayor Attends Funeral

The Mayor of Cambridge and the recorder of deeds attended the services.

Remarks in tribute to Mrs. Henry were made by:

Charles E. Cornish, City Council man of Cambridge; Mrs. Mabel Augustus of the American Legion Auxiliary, Charles Cooper of the Arch Social Society, Baltimore; the Rev. Ralph Thompson, district superintendent, of Salisbury.

The Rev. J. F. Walker of Frederalsburg, Md.; Mrs. Emma H. Stepney of Mys Chapter, OES; Roy S. Bond of the Monumental Bar Association, William Powell of the National Bar Association, the Rev. Lewis H. Bayneum of Zion Baptist Church and the Rev. C. L. Trader of Waugh Methodist Church.

Others Participate

Others who participated in the services were Mrs. Beatrice Henry, the Rev. Ernest Light, J. Penning-ton Mason, the Rev. R. L. Tillery, Mrs. Lillian Henson, Mrs. Viola J. Comegys, Mrs. William D. Earl and the Rev. Frank Farer.

Mrs. Henry, daughter of the late Lloyd and Mrs. Rebecca Wheatley, was born in Madison, Dorchester County, Md. Early in life she married Joseph F. Henry Sr., who for more than 65 years has been active in the business, political and civic life of Dorchester County.

She was the first woman member of the Bethel Church trustee board, superintendent of the Sunday school for 15 years and president of the choir for more than 30 years. Frequently, in the absence of the regular church organist, she served in this capacity.

Active in Mission Work

She was also vice president at large of the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of Maryland; secretary for 24 years of the Women's Missionary Society of the Baltimore Conference Branch; a member of the Eastern Shore Beauticians' Association and a life member of the Missionary Society of the AME Church.

She was the mother of three sons, Josiah, Baltimore attorney; Lewis, Centreville, Md., mortician, and Leon, Easton, Md., mortician. Other survivors include a brother, John Wheatley; two half-brothers, Garfield and Malachi Wheatley, and a half-sister, Mrs. Ella White.

Last rites were accorded by the Myrs Grand Chapter, OES, and interment was in Bethel Memorial Park.

Mate Jailed as Wife Wins Probation

While a wife was being placed on probation in one section of the courthouse, on Monday, her husband was unsuccessfully pleading in another section for release from a three-year sentence he received for assaulting her.

Judge Herman Moser suspended a six-month sentence Friday for Mrs. Mamie Benjamin, 35, who had received the prison term earlier that week when convicted of operating and after-hour bar at her home, 1527 N. Monroe St.

When Mrs. Benjamin came to court Monday, with her attorney E. Everett Lane to arrange the terms of her probation, her husband, James was in City Court pleading for his release through a writ of habeas corpus.

Forgot Confession

Benjamin was sentenced on Sept. 15 when he pleaded guilty to assaulting his wife. Reminded Monday by Judge Michael Manley that he had pleaded guilty, Benjamin said, "I don't remember it."

Before his petition for the writ was denied, Benjamin repeatedly declared, "I didn't assault nobody."

Judge Manley revealed that the prisoner has swamped him with letters asking that his case be given a hearing on writ proceedings.

Judge Frees Frenzied 'Frankie'

Terming her case "one of Frankie and Johnny all over again," Judge Herman Moser, Monday, suspended sentence for Miss Nanny Greer, 26, who slashed Mr. Lloyd Johnson's hand in her frenzy over seeing her fiance with another woman.

Judge Moser said he did not think the cutting of the officer was intentional. He pointed out that the woman's "better nature" prevented her from harming the fiance and that her prior good record helped persuade him to give her another chance. She was placed on probation for two years.

Detective "In the Middle"

Detective Johnson testified that he was trying to disarm the woman at Pennsylvania Ave. and Mosher St., last Oct. 23, when she cut his hand. She said that she lost her temper when she saw her boy-friend with the other woman.

Judge Moser remarked that the only difference between Miss Greer and the Frankie of "Frankie and Johnny" was that the female subject of that famous song used a gun instead of a knife.

Music Pupils Give Program for Parents

The music pupils of Mrs. Sule O. Dickerson entertained their parents and interested friends with a program Sunday at Ames Methodist Church.

Participants were: Philemon Carter, Henry Watkins Jr.; Misses Brenda Grimes, Katherine Booker, Joan Carr, Shirley Brodie, Bettie Ross, Shirley Williams, Carolyn Thomas, Charlotte Penny, Emily Johnson, Ellen Ford, Nancy Holmes and Joan Amos.

Miss Doris Freeland, former pupil of Mrs. Dickerson, presented certificates to Ernest and Miss Felicia Thornton, Shirley Porter, Lauretta Grasper, Marie Mason and Janie Baltzegar, all advance pupils.
