South Baltimore Notes

Modernettes Social Club observed another anniversary, Sunday, with a special program at Mount Winans Methodist Church.

The Rev. C. G. Coleman advised the group to bend its efforts toward some worthy community cause rather than simply for social pleasures.

Friendship Saving Club will pass out Christmas saving checks at a meeting to be held soon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Chinn, 2808 Pierpont St.

Check Recipients

Members to receive checks are: Mr. and Mrs. William Polk, Miss Helen Travers, Mrs. Trilby Wicks, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Chinn, Miss Mamie Tyler, Mrs. Grace Hines, Roland Christian, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hill, Albert Townes, Mrs. Charlotte Hill and G. W. Hill.

William Polk is president of the club and Mrs. Mamie Hill, secretary.

Miss Myrna Scott of 2611 Pierpont St., was struck and slightly injured by an automobile while on her way to school this week. She was released after treatment at University Hospital.

Mrs. Elmer Wise rendered first aid to the victim at the scene. Myrna is the daughter of Mrs. Edna Scott.

South Baltimore clubs may have their activities published in this column by sending reports of them to the AFRO substation, 703 S. Fremont Ave., care of George W. Hill.

Yule Music Topic for YMCA Program

"The Significance of Christmas Music," will be the topic discussed by Mrs. Veola G. Coleman on Dec. 8, during the Druid Hill YMCA weekly religious program.

The programs are sponsored by the Y men's division under Lester M. Suitt. At the lecture, last Wednesday, Dr. Kelly L. Jackson talked on "What it means to be a Christian."

Baltimoreans to Attend National YWCA Meeting

The National Board of the YWCA is calling a meeting of representatives from Big City associations on Dec. 4,5,6 at the National Headquarters in New York.

Among those in attendance from the Baltimore Association will be Mrs. George V. Lottier, chairman of the committee of management; Mrs. Bruce Alleyne, member of the board of directors, and Mrs. Alice S. Arrington, executive director of the Madison Avenue Branch.
