Army's Football Team Didn't Win, But After All . . .

Even if Army's high-powered football team was held to a tie by Navy, last Saturday, West Pointers had no cause to gloom. They had loads of fun in Philadelphia after the game. There it was homecoming for Cadet Norman G. Brown (right), who is shown in his home at 1919 Pemberton St. after the game, with (left to right): Cadet Roscoe Robinson of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Consuello Bigosa, 2508 N. 19th St.; Mrs. Anna Brown, mother of Cadet Brown; and Miss Albertha Benton, 2234 N. Lambert St. The two cadets are third-year men at West Point.
