Charge Veterans Drew Illegal Jobless Compensation

12 in 1st Batch of Cases Filed in Federal Court

Hit '52-20' Gravy Train for $2,600 Not Due Them, Prosecutor Says; Others to Be Indicted

PHILADELPHIA — Criminal information against 12 men charged with illegally obtaining a total of $2,600 in veterans' unemployment compensation checks from the Government were filed last week in Federal Court by Walter A. Gay Jr., assistant U.S. attorney.

These 12, Gay said, are only the first of a number of such cases soon to follow in the re-opening of a drive to round up persons who have defrauded the Government by filing illegal claims for Federal funds.

In most instances, he said, the accused persons are veterans, but violations have also been committed by civilians using the names of veterans without their knowledge, or persons instructed to collect the checks while the veterans were employed elsewhere.

Arraignments for the alleged violators will be held late this month or early in January. The claims are commonly known as "52-20" checks, because they are issued to unemployed veterans for 52 weeks at the rate of $20 per week.

Names of Suspects Listed

Those charged last week as violators and the amounts they are accused of obtaining fraudulently are:

Charles A. Klaus, 2833 N. Warnock St., $400; Harry E. Alston, 5538 Girard Ave., $320; Charles Rawley, Norristown, Pa., $760; Robert E. Lewis, 2646 Kater St., $220; John J. Johnson Sr., 627 S. 10th St., $100; William Hammond Jr., 1514 S. Norwood St., $160.

Charles R. Cribb Jr., 2838 N. Sydenham St., $80; James F. Cison 2520 N. Turner St., $100; John Sampson, 1421 S. 23rd St., $80; Charles D. Davis, 632 Emily St., $160; Charles Gorman, 614 S. 10th St., $80; and Arnold Marshall, 1430 Columbia Ave., $80.

High Court Asked to Rule on Candidate's Racial Tag

District Tribunal Says Okla. Law Does Not Violate U.S. Constitution; 2 Aspirants File

WASHINGTON (NNAP) — An appeal involving the constitutionality of an Oklahoma statute requiring the word "Negro" to be placed on ballots opposite the names of colored candidates for public office was filed in the U.S. Supreme Court last Wednesday.

The appeal is from a decision of a three-judge Federal court holding that compliance with the statute does not impose a burden upon colored candidates which deprives them of the equal protection of law guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment.

The high tribunal was asked to review the decision by David Hedge, Republican, and Wilbur G. Moffitte, Democrat, who ran on their respective party tickets for justice of the pace in Division 5, District 4, Tulsa County.

Refused to Delete Race

They contend that the Tulsa County Election Board, pursuant to Oklahoma law, refused to list their names on the ballots without reference to race.

They also contend that the court, which heard their suit, erred in holding that the evidence, they offered, was sufficient to show that they were unduly burdened by the use of the word "Negro" opposite their names on the ballots.

The Oklahoma statute, the validity of which is challenged, requires every candidate to state his race in his notification and declaration. It provides that "Any candidate who is other than white, shall have his race designated."

Petitioned County Board

Mr. Hodge and Mr. Moffitte on Sept. 23 petitioned the county election board to strike the word "Negro" from the ballots which were to be used in the Nov. 2 election.

After their request was refused, they filed suit Sept. 28 in the United States District Court at Tulsa, seeking a preliminary injunction restraining the county election board from placing the word "Negro" opposite their names.

The three-judge court they had requested, denied the temporary injunction, holding that the right to become a candidate for and to hold State office is a State, not a Federal right protected by the Constitution.

Both Colored

Since both Mr. Hodge and Mr. Moffitte are colored and were candidates for the same office, the court said, no discrimination against color or race can be shown.

"There can, therefore, be no unconstitutional discrimination within the meaning of the equal protection clause of the Constitution of the United States," the court ruled.

Members of the court were U.S. Circuit Judge Alfred P. Murrah and Federal District Judges Edgar S. Waugh and Royce H. Savage. Amos T. Hall and Primus G. Wade, Tulsa attorneys, are representing Mr. Hodge and Mr. Moffitte.

Seven Burglaries Charged to Minors

Four teen-age youngsters were placed under $14,000 aggregate bail Tuesday, to face grand jury action in connection with seven burglaries. Two juveniles, arrested with them, were sent to the Juvenile Court for trial.

The group is charged with taking goods valued at $1.50. They were arraigned in Northwest police court as:

Eugene Evans, 17, 2500 Rayner Ave; Elmer Herbert, 17, 508 Payson St; Edward Campbell, 16 1710 Harlem Ave., and Bernard Webster, 17, 508 N. Payson St.

According to Sgt. John Nolan who investigated the cases, the burglaries dated back to early Jan.
