YWCA Notes

The World Fellowship Committee of the Madison Ave. YWCA will hold a World Fellowship Hour on Sunday at 4 p.m., when Miss Dorie Shamiefter will tell of the people she met last summer in Europe.

Mrs. Alice B. Arrington will tell of the representatives from 26 countries who attended the YWCA Study Conference at Columbia University last summer. Mrs. C. Baker Pearle is chairman of the World Fellowship committee.

On Sunday, at 3:30 p.m., at Central YWCA, a citywide Y-Teen Recognition service will be held. Y-Teen Club groups throughout the city will be officially recognized.

The three committees for teenage programs will act as hostesses for the social hour to follow the ceremonial.

The Blue Triangle Industrial Club gave a tea Sunday in the Lecture Room of the YWCA.

Yuletide decorations were used.

Miss Juanita Hall played piano music during the tea. Noah Hill rendered a baritone solo; Miss Yvette Thomas gave a piano selection, while a trumpet trio selection was given by Messrs. Byrd Dyson and Summerville, and Mrs. Helen Carter Brown rendered a vocal number accompanied by her daughter, Miss Delois Brown.

Miss Jean Thornton was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Thelma Stanmore served as chairman. Mrs. Lena Johnson is club president, and Miss Alice L. Parks, staff advisor.

Inter-Club Council

The Inter-Club Council of the Young Adult Department has completed its organization. Made up of the presidents and vice-presidents of all of the club groups and acts as a clearing house for all general club problems.

Miss Mary Taylor of the B. and P. Club was elected as the first chairman of this new council; Miss Bernice Gray of the YAGs, vice chairman; and Miss Peggy Johnson of the Y-Debs, secretary.

Clubs represented on the council are the Business Girls Luncheon Club, the Business and Professional Girls Club, the Blue Triangle Industrial Club, Club Malekola, the YAGs and the Y-Debs. Mrs. Elmyria S. Hull, program director of the Young Adult Department, supervises the council.

Carnival Held

The YAGs of the Madison Ave. YWCA, sponsored a colorful carnival last Friday night, with Miss Anna Brown as chairman. The auditorium resembled a real fairgrounds with its many and attractive booths, and

Over 140 young adults participating in bingo, bulls eye, grab bag, weight guessing, darts, spin your luck, fortune telling, peep show, toothpick scramble, ring toss, pitching, and guessing, plus a wishing well.

The highlight of the activities was the main show which had most of the qualities of a true Broadway production. Misses Anne Christopher and Peggy Campbell, as mistresses of ceremonies, were attired in full dress suits and supplied jokes throughout the acts.

The gala show consisted of the Rocketes—Misses Audrey Quarles, Norma Timsley, Lois Quarles; Josephine Harris, Gloria Roberts; Miss Ella Jones who imitated to perfection Nellie Lutcher; the Melodeers, Messrs. Warren Shefley, James Campbor Jr., and William Jessups.

A clever monologue given by Miss Velva Isabelle; three Jazz piano selections by James Johnson. Charles Woodson served as the carnival auctioneer and managed to get everyone to bid. Dancing followed.

Miss Bernice Gray is president of the YAGs; Mrs. Mary L. Burke is club-advisor; Mrs. Elmyria S. Hull, staff advisor.
