Gadabouting in Baltimore

Baltimoreans Set Plans for Christmas Socialities

with Lula Jones Garrett

Alright now! Let's jingle a few bells and talk about what's coming up for Christmas.

DELTA SIGMA THETA sorors had their Christmas party, Tuesday past, at the Madison Ave. YWCA.

Christmas card scenery projected upon the wall of the darkened meeting room furnished the holiday background, for a program of songs rendered by the Delta Octette for members of Epsilon Sigma Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

As the scenes flashed by, the group sang "Ave Maria," "Go Tell it on the Mountain" and Gloria Stugis's arrangement of "White Christmas" which rivaled the same arrangement by Fred Waring.

Hostesses for the evening prepared ice cream pie, punch, iced cookies, nuts and mints. Some 50 members were present.

The business meeting included a presentation of plans for the Eastern Regional Conference to be held in Buffalo, April 29-May 1. Muriel Johnson, regional director, revealed that the conference will be highlighted by a tour into Canada, and that the annual formal will be a joint affair with Kappa men who will be meeting in Buffalo at the same time.

On the Monday before Christmas, the sorority will carry carload of members down to the Glen Burnie School for Girls to the joy of students there with a Christmas party. The annual Founders' Day banquet has been set for January 29.

The affair will be at the home of the F. D. G. Penningtons.

At the same session the club set up their program for the coming year, sent a liberal contribution to the St. Mary Day Nursery and planned for a milk and juice shower for the nursery.

Their major project will be to aid the North Baltimore Civic and Home Improvement Association to establish a recreation center in that area. Mrs. Naomi Davis heads the association, and Catherine Adams, Link member, is chairman of the project. Down in the summer, club members will visit United Nations.

LAMBDA KAPPA MU Sorority entertained at a party given by the Acorns, the pledge club of the sorority, on Thursday evening.

ALPHA DELTA and Epsilon Omega of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority announced that from donations, sale of jewelry and proceeds from the charity bazaar held October 22, the sum so far raised is $1,358.63.

This amount will be turned over to the South Baltimore Playground Committee to be added to their playground fund.

Even the entertainment from the Astoria, Club Orleans and Jones' Cocktail Lounge was donated. Charles Richardson, who acted as master of ceremonies arranged for the entertainment. There was some conflict around the entertainment for the Bazaar as the Runyon Cancer Drive (both given on the same Jean McKee, Corrine Procope, night) had been promised entertainer from the same places. Some of the entertainers the Sorority had expected did disappoint them, in spite of this their efforts, with the gifts from far and near, plus the support of the public, made a success of the venture. At the same time Glen Burnie Training School as well as the Women's Prison had another opportunity to get their wares before the public.

The Civic Contact Committee of Epsilon Omega and some Alpha Delta members who laid the ground work for the bazaar included:
