"Man from Texas" at New Albert

Eagle Lion's epic tale of the El Paso Kid in the early days of the Lone Star State's brawling history, "The Man From Texas," is currently playing the New Albert Theatre. Starring in the top roles are James Craig, Lynn Bari and Johnnie Johnston.

The supporting cast in the action-crammed film is headed by Una Merkel, Wally Ford, Harry Davenport and Sara Allgood.

The second feature, "Too Many Winners," is packed with suspense, mystery and Michael Shayne's special brand of humorous sleuthing. The story depicts Hugh Beaumont as Shayne busily engaged in tracking down a gang of race track ticket counterfeiters with the well-intentioned assistance of his secretary, Phyllis, portrayed by Trudy Marshall. Phyllis is unusually successful in getting Mike in trouble.

Losing Heritage as Music Makers Says W. C. Handy

MEMPHIS (ANP)—"We are in danger of losing our birthright as makers of true folk music," said W. C. Handy, "daddy of the blues," here last week. Handy had just arrived from New York to be guest of honor at the 10th annual Blues Bowl football game.

"I think we are paying too much attention to European music, even in schools," the veteran composer asserted. "Many of our artists believe it gives them culture to use European themes instead of their own native music."

He pointed out that white artists "are taking the blues and spirituals away from us, changing them up some." He said that jazz bands and blues singers are using them and declared recently on his noc

Arts Theatre in the Making Here

Plans are being discussed here on the possibilities of the inaugural production of an Arts Theatre for the purpose of presenting top grade pictures drawn from classical works.

Among the literary masterpieces to be shown in film form are "King Henry VI," "Hamlet," "Queen Lilly," "Shoe Shine Boy" and others.

While the proposal is still in its embryonic stage, efforts will be made around the first of the year to present a workable plan to acquaint the public with all details and to get the theatre going.

The project, which will not be encroaching on existing theatres, is designed to bring before the public a higher type of entertainment.

Stars of Suspenseful Drama at Regent

Starring cast in "The Velvet Touch," currently playing the Regent Theatre. Left to right: Leo Genn, Rosalind Russell, Sydney Greenstreet and Claire Trevor. It's a colorful drama of stage life.

Gateway to Gayway

By GEORGE D. TYLER

Wendell Jackson's trio continues at the CLUB 13, where the accent is on Monday celeb's matinee . . . King Draper and his combo continue to spill time between BERRYS on Wednesday, and BERTIE'S, which returns this week, remodeled.

The sepia "song bird of ye South," Marie Sayles, is adding new frans and laurels to her book as her return to GAMBY'S. As they say at PHIL'S: "Don't be late. Gate. Divin the sedate sophisticate for that next date at a truly secluded rendezvous off the noisy Stroll.

At the VILMA you are assured a grand time early or late. On Tuesday, Wendell and Abner were on hand to say "howdy dody" to ex-dancers John Sydnor, Uncle Billy and Mrs. D. Brooks who were among those present . . . The way "Pop" gives out with "hello friend" at EDS. puts a feller at ease from the time he enters until he leaves.

Waiting for Ella

While the ASTORIA awaits the arrival of Ella Fitzgerald (due Christmas Eve), the Syncoettes are more than likely firmly rooted here until she arrives . . . The 4 Links hit an single last week and threaded their East Side value as they left the SAVOY to return again tonight (Friday). During the week you may enjoy television or participate in one of the special promotion nites sponsored by anyone of the distillery representatives . . . Kinney, the roly poly dispenser for yo HIDE AWAY, is on the ball . . . Courtesos service can be had at the OLDE MILL, under the watchful eyes of Carroll or Bobbie.

Hometown Sweetiepie

The East Siders who frequent the ORLEANS and the uptown gang all know, adore and enjoy the singing of Bettye Logan. Bea Hooze, who left town with Hamp, recorded some of her own originals and later joined Hop' Armstrong and Jimmie Greene, comic emcee and the son of an ex-Stroll saloon raant owner (Ambrose), who gagged, emceed and fiddled at the Old Plantation down Greenwillow St. way before going into Philly where he was a riot at the 2-Bit Club.

The Stroll jumps with nitely entertainment on tap at the picturesque COMEDY musical bar where a new type of patron has found the way . . . The charming Mrs. Gilmore, formerly of nite life, visiting here with her son, who recently reached 21. Also Harrison Owens, the guy all Baltimore admits was the fashion plate emcee.

Rain on the roof but the crowd at the KNOTTY PINE romped and stomped until curfew, as Bill Swingdell and his combo took off . . . Vince Delaney, pianist, does a fine job on "Rhapsody In Blue."

Feuding and Fussing

Dear Gateway:

Since we are a feudin' and a fussin', why not tell of your versatilities which I doubt seriously are very few. I know that you are a dilapidated M.C. a talent scout of no mean ability, a fairly good columnist.

Also an excellent employee of the Recorder of Deeds (D.C.) You can't sing and are just a fair talker. In other words you are no darn good.—Doc Woingust.

P.S.—You are my guest emcee on Dec. 15 and 16 for our Old Timers Nites at the SPHINX and this time you had better show up.

The usual good times keep rolling at the ZANZIBAR with music (week ends only) by Ra Dara. Thurlow Jackson's staff, plus the social group, the ZANZIES, are working on a Christmas party for the unfortunate that promises to be a lulu.

The latest attraction to debut at JONES'S, the famous off Stroll cocktail lounge, is the Tea Room

Monumental Band in Concert Tonite

Initial Appearance at Bethel Church

A varied program of classical and popular tunes and songs have been arranged for the concert to be given, tonight (Friday), at Bethel AME Church, Druid Hill Ave. and Lanvale St., Edward A. Prettyman, band director, has revealed.

The concert will be the initial public offering of the 40-piece Monumental Elks band featuring Sarah Prettyman, soprano, as guest soloist, and Morris Davis, band vocalist.

Miss Prettyman is well known in local music circles, having appeared in numerous recitals, including a massed band concert held by the combined Park Band No. 2 and the City Band No. 2. She's a graduate of Douglas High School and Morgan College, and is at present studying at New York University.

(one flight up), where a lovely lassie serves delicious food and drinks. Every week there are two bands here, the Mellow-Men nitely and Bill Swindell's combo Thursdays only. "Good Cake" Gamby is emceeing along with Cecelia Cox, plus Kitty Warren's singing, Wednesday and Thursday.

Re-Bop's jive and jam set off the SPOT on week ends . . . East and his Sophisticates of Swing, singers Bertha Jones Lyles and "Pretty Willie," emcee, continue at the UBANGI . . . Zerita Stegleau, a nitely feature at the OASIS.
