Mt. Olivet Christian Church Members to Worship in Unit of New Building

A dream of nearly three score years will be partially realized on Sunday when the congregation of the Mt. Olivet Christian Church

Early Morning Service

The day's worship will begin at 6 a.m. with a sunrise service.

holds services three weeks ahead of schedule, in the first unit of its new building in the 1700 block of Division St.

Communion service will be held at both the morning and evening services, to be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. C. L. Whitfield.

Preceding the Fellowship Service, at 3:30 p.m., there will be a parade, with music by the musical aggregations of the Knights of Pythias and other groups.

Parade Route Noted

Forming at the church the participants will move north to Robert St., west to Druid Hill Ave., south to Mosher St., east to Division St. and return to church, where Nelson Fortune, AFRO advertising manager, will make the remarks. There will also be remarks by Edgar Douglass, president of the West Baltimore Citizens League, W. E. Bowman and Ernest Keeve co-chairmen of this program.

The original building was demolished last August and the new structure begun on the same site. The congregation plans to build the second story within two years.

Church 59 Years Old

During its 59 years existence this church has worshipped in at least 10 different places including a building of their own on the spot occupied by Sharp St. Methodist Church, in East Baltimore and West Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary Curtis, the oldest member, who was baptized in the Caribbean Sea at the age of 10 years, is one of the three members of the congregation born outside the United States. There are also members from 13 States outside the State of Maryland.

The growth of loyalty has kept pace with that of the congregation. The budget was $2,000 in 1934, and there was a mortgage debt of $4,000, which was soon liquidated and some $17,000 raised for the building fund.

Then the budget was raised to more than $5,000 a year in 1946. During this same period the membership had increased more than 225 persons, including representatives of four races.

The present enrollment includes some 400 persons, some non-resident members who make regular contributions to the church.

As the result of the spirit of co-operation during each of the 14 years the present pastor, the Rev. C. L. Whitfield, has headed Mt. Olivet, there has been a surplus in the treasury after all bills were paid.

A "live" Bible School and a Woman's Missionary Society are among the 14 church groups.

Large Official Body

Officers of the church include: Trustees—Walter Dixon, Nash Moore, H. M. Evans, Robert Wilgoson, Herbert Jones, William Tilghman; Deacon—Matthew Carter, John Holliday, Samuel Gaither, Ernest Keeve, Marshall Harvey, S. G. Matthews, W. A. Richardson, Truesell Allen, Lucas Matthews, Carter Evans, Sylvester Holliday, John Holliday, Jr.; Deaconesses—Samuel Matthews and Mrs. Carrie Carter.

Another leaders include: Mrs. Eva Smith is president of the Ladies' Aid Society; Mrs. Susanna Stokett, Woman's Progressive Club; Mrs. Esther Scott, Woman's Missionary Society; Mrs. Alice Grady, Junior Union president; Mrs. Ruth Junior president; Bible school, Mrs. Edith Friend, Christian Youth Fellowship; Noah Murdock, director of music and the Senior Choir; Mrs. Delia Mercer, Madge Chair, and Mrs. M Hall, Junior Choir;

Mrs. Ethel E. Bowman, director of publicity and chairman of the publicity committee; William Tilghman, H. M. Evans and Mrs. Harold Brown had as guests Mrs. Edith Miller of Brooklyn, N.Y. The three were Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mrs. Josephine Simpson of 206 Winters Ave.

Personal Notes

Mrs. Amanda Williams, wife of the Rev. Harold Williams, is convalescing from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Foreman were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Smith of 54 Winters Ave.

The Wade Smiths also had as recent guests Mr. and Mrs. Arnofield Gaskill of Johnsville, Md., and son, Roger, of Reisterstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hardy and family visited Mrs. Edna Washington, a patient at Crownsville Hospital recently. Mrs. Washington is greatly improved and expected home soon.

Mrs. Helen Cannady of Germantown, Pa., was a recent guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Smith.

REV. C. L. WHITFIELD

Evans and E. Lyle, lay preachers; Mrs. Martha Wilmore, sick committee; Mrs. Deborah Tisdale, Mrs. Keeve and Mrs. Pearl G. Clarke.

Mrs. Della Macey, Mrs. Clarice Tilghman, Mrs. Sadie Keeve, Mr. Dillon and Miss Edith Friend, committee on religious education; Percy Smith, W. A. Richardson, Mrs. Mildred Macey and Mr. Marshall Harvey, ushers; Mrs. Carrie Carter, chairman of committee on visited on home and family life; Walter Dixon, Mrs. C. L. Whitfield, Percy Smith and Mrs. M. Aldib, pianists.

Pastor Civic Minded

The Rev. C. L. Whitfield has served 14½ years, or, roughly, one fourth of the history of the congregation. Though trained for the ministry, he has to think of himself as a business and perfers the title "brother" to "reverend" or "elder."

He believes the Christian should be spiritually, socially and politically minded; that a man who will not use his vote to keep incompetent men out of office is not a good Christian.

Dr. Thomas Pullen Morgan Speaker

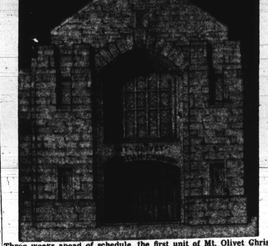
Dr. Thomas G. Pullen, State supt intendent of Education, and Dr. William Lemmel, Baltimore City superintendent of Education, will be among the speakers at a luncheon for official delegates to the inauguration of Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, as the seventh president of Morgan State College.

The luncheon will be held at Morgan Christian Center, 3 p.m., Dec. 17 with Dr. Carl J. Murphy, a member of the college board of trustees, presiding.

Other speakers will be Bishop Alexander P. Shaw, George C. Grant, dean of Morgan College; Dr. Miles W. Connor, president of Coppin Teachers College; Dr. Elizabeth Morrissey, of the College of Notre Dame of Maryland, Dr. Robert P. Daniel, president of Shaw University;

Melvin H. Cade, president of the Morgan student council; William V. Lockwood, president of the Morgan Alumni Association; Dr. David H. Hargis, trustee of the Morgan College Corp., and Mrs. Lillian Lattier, representing citizens of the State.

First Unit of Mt. Olivet Complete



Three weeks ahead of schedule, the first unit of Mt. Olivet Christian Church was completed, and the congregation will hold services in the structure in the 1700 block of Division St. on Sunday. It was built at a cost of $23,000. The congregation, of which the Rev. C. L. Whitfield is pastor, plans to complete the second floor of the church within two years.

Gets Final Rites

Mrs. Sarah J. Chew Milton, former Baltimorean, died on Dec. 4, in Pittsburgh where she had been a member of Warren Methodist Church for over 40 years.

Born and reared in Baltimore, she was at one time a member of and pianist for Sharp St. Methodist Church here.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Helen C. Dennis of Baltimore; a son, Robert Milton; daughter, Mrs. Carrie Carter, two grandchildren

Church of God in Christ Session Rocked by Suit

2 Bishops, 5 Officers Enjoined by Court; 6 Pastors, 2 Laymen Ask for Receivership

MEMPHIS (ANP) — A temporary injunction, requested last week by six pastors and two laymen, was granted Monday in Chancery Court restraining Bishop C. H. Mason, senior prelate; Bishop A. B. McEwen, his associate; and five general officers from collecting or disposing of funds of the Church of God in Christ.

The complainants petitioned the court to attach the funds of the church, appoint a receiver, and restrain the officials from receiving funds.

Chancellor Lee Scheduled a hearing of the charges for Dec. 13 before Chancellor Larry Creason.

Convention in Uproar

Pandemonium reigned among some 1400 delegates, members and visitors attending the 41st annual national convocation in the Masonic Temple, built by the 82-year-old senior bishop when the bill of injunction was served upon him.

Others named in the action are: U. E. Miller, general board secretary, Ohio; A. M. Cohen, board treasurer, Florida; J. H. Bryant, national convocation treasurer; C. G. Brown, secretary-treasurer, Home and Foreign Missions, Missouri; and C. E. Bennett, church secretary, Indiana.

Bishop Mason is president of the board of trustees, and Bishop McEwen is senior bishop in Tennessee and president, board of trustees of the council of elders.

The plaintiffs are: Elder T. L. Bright, and the Rev. R. E. Wright, Kansas; Joseph Williams, Michigan; N. Griddine, Missouri; and the Revs. Audley King and C. C. Bright, Tennessee.

The complainant charger that during the past six years, the trustees have refused to make annual reports showing receipts and disbursements and that Bishop Mason condoned this practice.

The seven officials were charged with, "exerting too much dictatorial power, misappropriation of funds, and demanding $30,000 in salaries which are not owed to them."

Accused Deny Charges

The accused, through the Rev. L. H. Ford, national public relations director and pastor of St. Paul Church of God in Christ, Chicago, denied the charges, saying that Bishop Mason, "exerted only the authority vested in him by the general church."

The minister said the trouble began when the accusers took exception to the bishop's removal from office of people whom he considered insubordinate.

Boys Choir to Sing at Sollers School

After touring the seaboard for six years, the Baltimore Boys Choir, directed by W. Meredith H. Birche Jr., will invade Baltimore County, Sunday, at 3 p.m., in a concert at Sollers Point High School.

A capacity crowd is expected to attend the recital sponsored by the Turner Station Progressive Association. Proceeds are to go to the Turner Station Community Center Building.

Miss Anita E. Edwards, soprano, will be the guest soloist.

Mr. Birche, conductor-pianist, will present works of Bach, Beethoven, Brahms, Wagner, Schubert and Handel.

Miss Edwards has selected Hall Johnson's "City Called Heaven," and "Goodby to Summer" by Tostic.

CHARLES F. MORRIS

CAMDEN—Final rites for Charles F. Morris of 812 Mount Vernon St. were held on Thursday at Union AME Church.

Mr. Morris, who was 55, was an engineer for Campbell Soup Company for 24 years. A resident here 30 years, he was a native of Swedesboro.

His widow, Mrs. Grace Morris; a daughter, Miss Grace Jones; a brother, Walter Morris, and two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Carter and Mrs. Ida Payne, survive him.

New Cherry Hill Rezoning Bill Hit

Cherry Hill residents will appear before the City Council on Monday to fight passage of an ordinance designed to commercialize a section of that area.

The Commission on City Plan and Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals already disapproved the bill in keeping with their announced intention of protecting the residential nature of Cherry Hill.

Previous Moves Defeated

Organized into a co-ordination council, some 14 neighborhood groups at Cherry Hill have defeated former attempts to re-zone residential property, including one ordinance which would have established a commercial amusement park.

The new ordinance to be discussed at an open hearing at 3 p.m. Monday, would make first commercial zoning of property on the south side of Cherry Hill Rd. between Seamon Ave. and Hanover St.

IN OUR CHURCHES

By LOUISE E. HINES

The Rev. S. L. Drummond, for 11 years presiding elder of the Virginia Annual Conference, was appointed to the Baltimore district on Nov. 26 by AME Bishop Lawrence H. Hemmingway, according to Payne AME Church "Broadcaster."

Payne Church will follow its usual custom of giving Christmas baskets to needy members and friends of the community.

The Rev. Cyrus W. H. Briddell preached his "Rainbow Sermon" on Sunday evening at the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church. The Reubenson Choir sang. The Rev W. Lyndsai Pitts is minister.

Vernon Thornton is director of the Men's Chorus of Emmanuel CC Church.

Baby Contest

The Young Adult Group of Sharp St. Methodist Church will present a baby contest at 9 p.m. Friday, with special music by the Mt. Vernon Methodist Church Choir of Washington.

Plans are also being completed for the annual Christmas party to be held on Dec. 17 at 4 p.m. for children; and at 7:30 p.m. for young people and adults.

The annual Usher's Board Day will be observed on Sunday at Sharp St. Methodist Church. The Rev. Joshua O. Williams is pastor.

Speaker last Sunday at the New Shiloh Baptist Church was the Rev. T. H. Washington of the Sharon Baptist Church of New York City.

Shiloh's Senior Choir No. 1 gave its final musical program of the year last Sunday evening.

Confirmation Class

Confirmation class for adults proposing to join St. James PE Church are held at 6 p.m. each Sunday under the instruction of the rector, the Rev. Cedric E. Mills.

Memorial Baptist Church will mark Sunday, as "Rally Day." At 3:30 p.m., the annual mass meeting of the Coleman Association for the Handicapped will be held with Milton A. Dugger, vice principal of School No. 158, speaker.

Va. Union Prexy Speaks

Dr. J. M. Ellison, president of Virginia Union University, spoke on "Education and Religion," here Monday before the Baptist Ministers Conference at Texas Baptist Church.

"To live a well rounded life, religion and education must receive equal emphasis," he said.

Conducting the Sunday School lesson, the Rev. I. C. Reddie's subject was "Letters in the Bible." The news review was presented by the Rev. E. W. White, while the Revs. R. C. Williams and Benjamin Thompson led the devotionals.

Protective Association to Hear Rev. C. E. Mills

The Rev. Cedric E. Mills, pastor of St. James PE Church, will speak Sunday evening, at Shiloh Baptist Church on a program sponsored by the Northwestern United Protective Association.

The program, at 8:30, will include music by the St. James Choir, Shiloh Baptist Boys Choir and John Thomas choirmaster.

The association will present a check to Provident Hospital. Mrs. Mabel Credit is president of the organization.

T. Wallis Lansey Dies Suddenly

1911. Following graduation, he was employed as bookkeeper for several catering firms.

Joins AFRO Honor Roll

In 1913 he began as manager and partner of the Druid Laundry which was begun by the late Harry T. Pratt, principal of Douglass High School. Under his administration, the business was greatly expanded.

Mr. Lansey was nominated in 1941 to the AFRO Honor Roll because of his part in the development of the business.

He was particular interested in Provident Hospital and served as a member of its board since 1920, and was at one time secretary.

On January 20, 1942, he was elected president of the board, a position he held until the time of his death.

Last Friday night he participated in the mass meeting of Union Baptist Church at which Provident Hospital marked its 20th year of operation at its Division St. location.

Appointed by Mayor

In 1928, Mayor Broening appointed him to the board of Supervisors of City Charities. Two years ago he became a member of the Advisory Council to the Unemployment Compensation Board.

He served several terms on both the Federal and Criminal Court grand juries. He was president of the Ideal Building and Loan Association; treasurer of the Maryland Association for the Promotion of Business, and a member of the Frontiers Club.

An ardent churchman, Mr. Lansey was also a member of the St. Peter Claver's Catholic Church, the board of Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart, and an affiliate of the Archbishop's Confraternity of the Laity.

Father of Eight

Thirty-one years ago he was married to the former Miss Josephine Gaines, daughter of the late AME Bishop A. L. Gaines. They have been the parents of Eight children, all of whom survive.

The children are Teakie W. Jr., Gaines, Austin, Austin, Edward, Lincoln and Alfred, and Miss Josephine Lansey.

There are also two sisters, Mrs. Florence L. Williams and Miss I. Agnes Lansey; and 13 grandchildren, one of whom was born on Thursday morning.

Priest in Louisiana

Father Francis G. Wade, SVD, one of the seven Priests of the Divine Word Order of Alexandria, Louisiana, is now pastor of St. Benedict the Moor Church in Dulac, La. One of the 14 children of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin J. Wade, he was ordained in 1934. His brother, Paul A. Wade, lives in Washington.

Poetry Contest Will End Jan. 24

The second annual Poetry Writing Contest for colored students of Maryland's high schools and colleges will close Jan. 24, Dr. Nick Aaron Ford, chairman of the sponsoring committee announced this week.

The contest is to encourage the development of talent among the students and to create better interracial understanding by fostering the study of worthy contributions to democratic living made by minority groups.

Prizes totaling $50 in cash have been donated by the Book-A-Month Club of Baltimore and the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers.

Qualifications

All junior and senior high school pupils of the State are eligible to enter one poem in the high school competition. Colored college students who are Maryland residents may submit one entry to the college division.

A $25 cash prize will be given for the winning poem in each division. All manuscripts must reach Dr. Ford at Morgan College before midnight, Jan. 24, 1948.

Bill to Naturalize All Aliens Coming Up

WASHINGTON (ANP)— The 81st Congress will consider one of the least publicized issues in President Truman's civil rights session: a proposal to be presented by Rep. Walter H. Judd (Rep., Minn.), calling for the naturalization of all alien persons in the United States regardless of race.

Passage of the bill would erase the last barriers of the Orients' exclusion Acts which keep most Asiatics out of the United States. The Chinese exclusion Act was repealed in 1943 and that affecting Filipinos in 1946.

Winners will be announced during Negro History Week, Feb. 6 through 13.

The contestants must be on the subject of an outstanding colored woman of George Washington Carver's scientific achievements. Specially prepared information on these subjects may be obtained at the literature department of Enoch Pratt Library.

TB Christmas Seal Sale Nets $20,000

Returns for the first week of the 1948 Christmas Seal sale of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association, brought a total of approximately $20,000 throughout the State, according to a report issued by William B. Matthews Jr., seal sale director.

"This early response indicates that this year's sale is off to a good start, although the goal of $300,000 is far 'distant,' Mr. Matthews stated.

At the same time he urged support of the association, which is making every effort to co-operate with and assist official health agencies in their tuberculosis control program.
