Eastside Children to Get Yule Party

The Eastside Community Committee will hold its fourth annual Christmas party for underprivileged children at 7 p.m. on Dec. 28 at Waters AME Church, Alsquith St. near Orleans.

"The New Christmas," a play, will be presented by pupils of Banneker School No. 138 under the direction of Mrs. Sadie L. Maddox, chairman of the ECC Dramatic Committee.

Some 500 stockings filled with candy, fruits and nuts will be distributed, and refreshments will be served to all.

Free Movies

Through the ECC, 100 children will be guests of the American Veterans Committee at a movie party to be held at 10:30 a.m. on Christmas Eve.

The agency also will distribute 75 tickets to the annual children's movie party sponsored by the Walter Green Post of the American Legion, at 9 a.m. on Dec. 27.

Some 75 children will receive tickets for the same party through the Northwest Community Committee.

Santa Claus Visits Birthday Party for Patricia Greene

The 40 little guests of Patricia Greene, who celebrated her fourth birthday on Saturday, were entertained by films of nursery rhymes and fairy tales before the cake was cut.

BROOKLYN, N.Y. (NNPA) — Miss Frances M. Douglass, only colored member of the faculty of St. Joseph College for Women and a recent appointee to the New York Board of Higher Education, was guest of honor at a reception held at the college here last Sunday.

Among the speakers praising Miss Douglass for her achievements, were Msgr. Raymond J. Campion, pastor of St. Peter Claver Church; the Rev. William T. Dillon, president of St. Joseph's College, and Archibald Glover, former vice-president of the Brooklyn Catholic Interracial Council.

Willing Works Club Plans Tour of Catholic Home

The Willing Works Club of Bennett Pl. held its regular meeting on Sunday, with Mrs. Gertrude Robinson as hostess.

Plans were completed for a tour of the Catholic Home on Sunday, Dec. 26. Miss Mary M. Clayton is president.

Carollers to Tell Yule Story in Song

Christmas carols will be sung in the old-time style on the city streets, according to a plan sponsored by the Baltimore Youth Fellowship for its fourth annual carol singing program.

Singers from colored and white churches and other interested organizations will gather at the Fellowship House, 21 W. Preston St., at 6:30 p.m., on Saturday to be assigned to groups to go out to various neighborhoods of the city. The public is invited to take part.

Refreshments will be served at the Fellowship House following the carol singing.

Madison Avenue Church Scene of Fashion Exhibition, Bazaar

Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church ended a week's bazaar with a fashion show, directed by Mrs. Anita Hawkins, and at which Miss Jean Parrott served as master of ceremonies, Friday.

The bazaar included a number of booths, including those dispensing recordings. Mrs. Marjorie Butler in charge; gifts, presided over by Mesdames Columbia Jenkins, Nellie Wallis and Annie Thomas; soft drinks, Mesdames Bernice Chatman and Marguerite Shelfer; a pantry shelf, Mesdames Florence Strothers, and Beatrice Daniels; candy, Misses Priscilla Waters and Frances Murphy and Mesdames Elsie Waters and Annie Moseley; and suppers for three nights, with Mesdames Marguerite Daniels, Serita Thomas, Lillian Knox, Nan Perdue and Bennie Fatio in charge.

Fashions Shown

The setting for the fashion show was a Christmas featuring Mrs. Ann Wallace, Miss Elaine Manns, a Santa Clause and Roy and Furman Templeton, making a family grouping about a tree.

Mrs. Wallace wore a black quilted velvet robe from the Charm Center collection and Miss Manns a black satin jacket and gold jacket and black satin trousers from the same store.

Men Score

Fashion shown by men was added in recognition of the local social fashion showing motifs. Thomas Hawkins, wearing ensembles from his own wardrobe, showed a wool gabardine sport shirt, designed by his wife, and brown gabarbine slacks topped by a brown wool blazer. Another of the sport ensembles worn by Mr. Hawkins was a green wool jacket, gray and yellow shirt and duhonnet corduroy sport coat.

The Rev. Reginald Daniels modeled a bathrobe tailored by his mother, brown tweed madigan jacket suit, designed by his grandmother.

Butter Hat Seen

With a black crepe embroidered in red and gold beads, Mrs. Anne Wallace wore a striking hat designed by Jon K. Butler of Washington. She also showed a black taffeta frock with blue trim. Both frocks were from the Charm Center.

A gray crepe frock, with matching grey felt hat trimmed with a pink feather, was modeled by Miss Virginia Jones, showing clothes from Carvers. Other models from these stores included Mrs. Idah Wilgins and Miss Audrey Stubbs.

Participants who modeled their own ensembles included:

Mrs. Cyrus W. Marshall, Miss Gail Swann, Miss Audrey Stubbs, Mrs. Mollie Tallifero, Mrs. Rosetti Uncles, Miss Louise Smith, Mrs. Idah Wiggins, Mrs. Gladys Shepard, Mrs. Elaine Swan.

Children models were Roy and Furman Templeton, who modeled reversible snow suits, bathrobes, and Ardlen Higgins, who showed a green and red frock.

Jimmy Gilliam showed brown tweed madigan jacket suit, designed by his grandmother.

Miss Irene Mitchell sang the Lord's Prayer and Miss Doris Cole was accompanist for the musical selections sung by the group.

The Y-Teen clubs of the Madison Ave. YWCA held their annual Christmas party on Thursday at the YWCA. The feature of the program was a film, "Beyond Tomorrow," which was shown by Nelson White.

Mrs. Mary K. Pool, adviser of the Y-Teen Club of School No. 126, worked with the staff members in planning the program.

Miss Nellie P. Brown, is the director of the Teen-Age Department; Miss Eugenia Boney and Miss S. Linese Miller, program assistants.

Fellowship Program

The Les Amies of Dunbar Senior High School sponsored a World Fellowship program in the school assembly period, presenting Mrs. Emily Simon, executive director of Baltimore Peace Center, as speaker.

Mrs. Simon has had a broad experience in seven European countries. She worked with a child feeding mission in Spain during the Spanish Civil War (1936-1939) and was one of ten women delegates to Women's International League for Peace and Freedom with the International Congress in Luxemburg two summers ago.

Teen Whirl Gives Dance

On Dec. 3 Teen Whirl (the Junior High School Canteen Council) had its second monthly dance, "Christmas Pre-view."

The stage was decorated with a fireplace surrounded by beautifully wrapped gifts set off by blinking Christmas lights. A snowman was placed just outside the curtain to add a touch of winter.

Miss Shirley Mason and Emmett Evans were awarded a candy cane for having the cutest and most original frocks.

The hosts and hostesses were: Mrs. Aurelia Bush, Mrs. Gwendolyn Lassiter, Miss Bernice Thompson and Marvin Davis.

William Cross from School No. 137 is president of the Teen Whirl Council.

Bobby Socks Ball

On Dec. 4, the Les Amies (a Y-Teen Club from Dunbar High School) sponsored a Bobby Socks' ball. The youths were all dressed in sport clothes. Nancy Daniels is president of the club. The hosts and hostesses were:

Mrs. Wilhemina Hines, Mrs. Agnes Patterson, Mrs. M. Wyatt, Mrs. E. Payne, Watson Hines, Messrs. Banks and Curtis.

The "Les Amies" were awarded the third prize on Dunbar Night, when they presented a skit depicting a teen-age girl's confidence in her grandmother who had some modern ideas.

Clergy Wives Session Guests

RICHMOND

Mrs. W. A. Evans was hostess to the Baptist Ministers Wives' on Tuesday, at her home, 211 S. Randolph Street.

The Christmas spirit was evidenced by the presenting of gifts to the president, Mrs. S. M. Thompson, Mrs. C. C. Darden, the secretary; and Mrs. K. D. Turner, in recognition of making the calendar rally a success.

The guest speaker was the Rev. C. C. Evans, executive secretary of the Baptist General Association, whose subject was "The Value of Christ's Coming."

Parent-Child Problems Aired at P-TA Session

"Parent-Child Problems" were discussed, Thursday at the monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of Henry Highland Garnet School No. 103.

Following the discussion, there was a card singing. Mrs. Vernice Wynn is president and C. J. Robinson, principal.

Frontiers Club Hears Mrs. Alice Arrington

"Women want to help bring peace and goodwill to the world," Mrs. Alice R. Arrington said on Tuesday at the Frontiers Club weekly meeting at the YWCA.

Executive director of the Madison Ave. YWCA, Mrs. Arrington reviewed the work of the International Study Conference on World Reconstruction which she attended this summer as one of the 10 United States representatives.

The conference, held in New York City, was attended by women from 20 countries who were called together by the YWCA.

Mrs. Arrington said that in some of the European and Eastern countries whole generations of male leadership had been wiped out by the war, and that women were wholly prepared for leadership.

KEENE—Mrs. Millicent Keene of Philadelphia and Miss Leona Keene of New York left New York on a three-month trip to the Island of St. Vincent in the British West Indies to visit relatives.

Following the daughter and granddaughter's visit, A. Taylor of 330 Elizabeth Ave., Patapsco Park, Md., they will also visit the Port of Spain in Trinidad.
