Bolton Urged to Vote to End Mundt Group

The Progressive Party of Maryland called upon Rep. William Bolton of Baltimore County, this week, to oppose the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The request was made in a letter signed by James S. Martin and Dr. J. E. T. Camper, co-chairmen of the group. The letter said in part:

"Whether headed by a Dies, a Rankin, a Thomas or steered by a Mundt, the Un-American Committee has left in its wake a trail of persecutions, character assassination, terror, imprisonment and death."

It contended that existing laws "are sufficient to protect the nation's security.

Fugitive From Prison Captured

Leaps Through Window, but Officers Nab Him

PHILADELPHIA

A fugitive from county prison made a futile effort to escape policemen who surprised him at his home last Wednesday night.

Police said Leon Bland, 22, of 1005 Odgen Pl., jumped through a closed window in the effort, but was caught by the officers, one of whom, Charles Micheals, of the 10th and Buttonwood Sts. station, was cut on the hand by the flying glass.

Home Surrounded

Police said an anonymous tipoff had led to the surrounding of Bland's home. The prisoner, who was serving a one-year term for assault and battery, escaped while with a work crew at the Torresdale filter station last Aug. 18.

After being held in $2,500 bail on the escape count, Bland was turned over to prison authorities.

Masonic Lodge Elects Hawkins

Jonathan Davis Consistory No. 1, of Masons of Washington, in its session Monday at Scottish Rite Cathedral, unanimously elected Lawrence E. Hawkins, 1011 Irving St. N.W., illustrious commander-in-chief, for 1949, succeeding Norris A. G. Scott, 2513 Elvans Rd., S.E.

Active in Masonic circles, Mr. Hawkins was also recently elected deputy grand master of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Masons for the District. He is a past master of Social Lodge No. 1, a Royal Arch Mason, a Knight Templar, and a Shriner; an active churchman, and a long-time aide in the U.S. Government.

Others elected in Jonathan Davis Consistory for 1949 were: Rudolph A. Stewart, first lieutenant commander-in-chief; David P. Highley, second lieutenant; Jacob A. Handy, grand minister of State; Robert W. Campbell, grand chancellor; Harry B. Hampton, grand hospitaller; the Rev. Melvin J. Key, grand keeper of seals and archives;

Clide C. Oliver, assistant keeper of seals; Henry A. Cook, grand treasurer; James A. Minor, grand prior; Arthur E. Brooks, grand master of ceremonies; James E. Stevenson, grand engineer and architect; Royal W. Bailey, grand standardbearer; Lewis T. Bentley, captain of the guard; and George Farrow, grand sentinel.

Installation Held

The new officers were installed by Louis W. Roy Sr., deputy of Washington for the United Supreme Council of Scottish Rite Masons, Southern Jurisdiction.

The annual New Year's reception of Jonathan Davis Consistory will be held at Scottish Rite Cathedral, 1633 Fifteenth St., N.W., Saturday, from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Counsel Named for Ga. Fugitive

Willie Huff, 19, Set to Fight Extradition

ELIZABETH — County Court Judge Edward A. McGrath on Friday assigned J. Leroy Jordan and Joseph I. Bedell of Plainfield, as counselors for Willie Huff, 19, who is fighting extradition to Georgia.

Huff, who escaped from Reidsville State Prison in Georgia, while serving a 20-year term for participating in the theft of a small rifle, was arrested in Plainfield eight weeks ago on an assault charge. Jinger prints disclosed his identity as a fugitive wanted by Georgia authorities.

Huff, who said he was born in Montreal, Canada, and was reared in Stone Mountain, Ga., is married and has a child.

The Georgia State Board of Corrections sought his extradition by applying to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

The application was corrected last week and Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll signed a warrant of rendition calling for court appearance.

Jordan and Bedell will represent Huff at a hearing on Tuesday at 10 a.m. when an application may be made for a writ of habaes corpus, the first step in fighting extradition.

Gas Station Attendant Fined for Threatening Vet

Judge Lenient; Complainant Says Obscene Talk Caused Trouble; Operator Transferred

WASHINGTON

George A. Cox Jr., white gas station attendant, charged with threatening the life of William White, World War II veteran of 3725 J St., N.E., was found guilty of assault in Hyatts ville Court on Monday and fined $25 and cost by Judge Arthur P. Owens.

Judge Owens, who had continued the case three times, twice at the request of Cox's attorney, suspended the $25 fine after the defendant's attorney pleaded for leniency for his client because of his good court record.

Mr. White charged that Cox, night attendant at a Hyattsville Gulf Station, threatened him with a pistol when he asked the man to refrain from using obscene language in the presence of his wife, Mrs. Ruth White, and Miss Hilda Boyer.

The three, along with Phillip Matthews of 732 Park Rd., N.W., were en route to Baltimore when they stopped at the service station for gasoline.

According to witnesses, the operator of the car, Mr. Matthews, was in the process of cleaning the windshield when Cox, using coarse words, told him to move on after the gasoline bill was paid.

Mr. White testified that Mr. Matthews told the attendant that he would move as soon as he finished cleaning the windshield. With this, Cox used more profanity, the witness said.

The complainant said he then got out of the car, and the attendant then pulled a revolver, pointing it at his face and threatening to shoot.

Denied Having Gun

In his testimony, Cox denied having a pistol. He said the object he pointed at Mr. White was a pair of pliers. Cox did have a pistol with him to carry a guard, the District Attorney told the court.

After learning about the incident from some disinterested customers who drove into the station at the time, the chief was transferred Cox to another station, it was later reported.

Mr. White, a "ham" radio operator, is manager of the Veteran's Radio Shop, 602 Seventh St., S.W. His friend, Mr. Matthews, is also a "ham" operator.

Gen. Grant Charged With Favoring Segregation

As an aftermath of Maj. Gen. Grant's approval, for installation of segregated sporting facilities at the Grant 3rd's playing of the National Capital Golf Tournament on September 12 in Washington, a group of at business and sportsmen is charging him with upholding segregation in refusing to lease government property for an interracial sports stadium.

This group, headed by Morris Beale, author and newspaper man, William Kavakos, has proposed to build a $500,000 golf plant on reclaimed land in Anacostia Flats. It was to be open to use of all groups, boys' clubs and schools.

However, an application to General Grant of the National Capital Park and Planning Commission, for a lease of the property, was denied. Harry T. Thompson, acting superintendent, notified the group that "it is illegal to lease Federal land for more than 30 days."

Interior Holds Authority

Following a study of the act creating the park service, Mr. Beale quoted Public Law 202, dated June 6, 1924, and Public Law 158, dated April 30, 1926, which gives the Secretary of the Interior authority to lease public land for up to 20 years.

Mr. Thompson in his reply to the findings said that if facilities were to be installed for public use on a concession basis, either the U. S. G. Loeffler Company or Government Services, Inc., of Baltimore would be given first recognition under the preferential clause in their contract to furnish additional concession facilities in the District.

The group now has charged General Grant and A. E. Demaray, associate director of the National Park Service, with constituting a monopoly.

Termed Private Corporation

It was pointed out that Gen. Grant and Mr. Demaray are presiding serving with the 61th Transportation Port Company are Cpl. Calvin L. Edwards, son of Mrs. Annie Edwards of 1527 Kingham Pl. N.W. who is manager of an enlisted men's club. Cpl. Alfred A. Cole, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Cole, 7668 Walker Mill Rd., S.E. as security guard, and Cpl. Henry Dishman, son of Mrs. Pearl Dishman of 1642½ New Jersey Ave., N.W., also a security guard.

Pvt. Franklyn S. Johnson, son of Mrs. Jane Johnson of 1501 N. Eden St., Pfc. Marion Butler, son of Mrs. Beatrice Collins of 804 Carondelet St., Pfc. Melvin Mason, son of Mrs. Daisy Mason of 618 W. Barre St., Pfc. Clarence M. Donahue of 317 S. Monroe St., and Pfc. Floyd Miles of 2707 Giles Rd.

Civilian Among 6 in Japan News

WASHINGTON

A civilian worker, and five District servicemen serving in Japan were reported in the news this week by Eighth Army Public Relations Officials. They were:

Miss Thelma Taylor of 1019 Third St., N.W., a civilian worker, who is on duty with the 159th Field Artillery Battalion at Marayama, Japan. She is director of the Army Educational Program Center School.

Among servicemen was: Pvt. Ralph E. Dickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dickerson of 106 16th St., S.E., a former pupil at Armstrong High School, who has been promoted to private first class.

Pvt. James Allen, son of Mrs. Sarah Allen of 1630 Covington St., N.W., also has been promoted to private first class. A former pupil of Phelps Vocational School, Private Allen entered the Army in August, 1947, and received his basic training at Fort Dix, N.J.

A former employee with the AFRO-AMERICAN, he was overseas in December, 1947.

Court Aid Named County Detective

CAMDEN — Eugene Aumaitre sergeant at arms in the District Court here, was sworn in on Thursday as a county detective by Prosecutor Mitchell Cohen.

Aumaitre was one of three persons who received appointments. All had passed civil service examinations for the jobs, with Aumaitre third, Russell Maurer, first and Philip Large second. Large and Maurer formerly were city detectives.

The men will be sent to the State police school for training.

Aumaitre has served with District Court for seven years. Formerly he was building inspector at Branch Village housing project.

Baltimore Soldiers Now Serving in Japan

Reports from the Eighth Army in Japan indicate that Baltimore soldiers are playing an active part in the long-range occupation program.

Among the Baltimoreans serving with the occupation forces are:

Escape by Girl Laid to Mother

NEWARK

Christmas was not merry for Mrs. Martha Hodges, 30, of 354 15th Ave., or for her 16-year-old daughter.

John McElroy, who is accused of staying with Mrs. Hodges without benefit of marriage, also did not enjoy the holiday season.

The mother was held in $1000 bail by Judge Stanger in Family Court on Thursday, after the girl said that her mother arranged for her to escape from the State Home for Girls in Trenton on Sept. 14.

She said that Mrs. Hodges had brought to Newark later by a man who had a car ready when she escaped.

The girl also told the court that her mother sent her to Philadelphia and later to stay with her grandmother in the South. The grandmother ordered her to return to New Jersey and surrender.

McElroy and Mrs. Hodges also were held for the grand jury for living together.
