Virginians Mark Anniversary of Club

Miss Clara Robinson Is Married to Martin Gillis

Miss Clara Virginia Robinson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, became the bride of Martin Winford Gillis, son of Mrs. Lillie Gillis and the late Lee Gillis of Aberdeen, N.C., Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The wedding took place in the home of Mr. Alfred Booker, 342 Dolphin St. The Rev. G. M. Edwards of Pennsylvania AME Zion Church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Cole Plays

Mrs. Queenie Cole gave a recital before the ceremony. Mrs. Helen Richardson sang.

A gown of white satin was worn by the bride who was given in marriage by her brother, Randolph Robinson. Her finger-tip veil of tulle fell from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white rose buds.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Elenora Hill of Oradell, N.J. She was attired in Fushcia crepe and carried white carnation. Fred Watson, a classmate of the bridegroom, was best man.

Over 100 guests attended the reception which was given at the bride's home.

The bride is a graduate of Douglas High School of Winchester, Va., and Alverta's School of Beauty Culture.
