Sweetheart of Boogie Woogie

Mabel Scott, dazzling recording star, who has been tagged the "National Sweetheart of Boogie Woogie," has set a nation-wide tour for next month. "Boogie Woogie Santa Claus" is her latest effort on Exclusive.

Concords and Discords

By W. LLEWELLYN WILSON

Hideko Yoshino, Japanese-American soprano, Elizabeth Dunning, Scotch-Irish soprano, Napoleon Reed, a colored American tenor, and Burton Cornwall, English-American basso in cantante, a quartet of sterling singers who make up "The One World Ensemble," will be presented at Enon Baptist Church on Sunday, Jan. 16, at 5 p.m., by the local chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

The annual Artist Concert Series by this group of public-spirited women is one of the features of Baltimore's musical program each year.

This sorority began a few years ago to offer an annual series of concerts which brought to our town the finest artists obtainable. Each succeeding year the organization has endeavored to raise the standard of the programs which they have presented.

Dunham Dancers Billed

This year in the series, which numbers three, in addition to the artists to be presented in the initial concert in January, the Katherine Dunham Dancers will appear in recital on Feb. 18 at Douglass High School; and the final concert will have Dorothy Maynor at the Polytechnic Institute Auditorium on Mar. 14.

These concerts have just been announced by Mrs. Edna Over Gray, who is national head of this Greek-letter group.

The Baltimore City Chorus will be heard on Sunday, Jan. 9, in a broadcast which will originate in the Steiert Hall. The program will begin at 3 p.m. over a local station.

Mareda Gaither Soloist

Mareda Gaither who recently won acclaim when she sang with the organization in December will be heard as soloist in a group of numbers.

The Douglass Assembly Choir, under the direction of Georgianna Chester, has been invited to sing at the Har Sinai Community Center on Park Heights Ave. in the latter part of January.

The Morgan State College Choir, under the direction of J. O. B. Moseley, gave an excellent broadcast over WBAL during the past week.

This choir improves with each public appearance and much credit is due the young director for the excellent results he has obtained in the short time he has been connected with the institution.

Mercedes Douglass is still winning success with her splendid All-Girls Choir. This choir was recently heard in concert at Fort George Meade.

Charleston GI Passes Cook Exam in Japan

OSAKA, Japan —Cpl. Elijah Grant, son of Mrs. Grace Grant of Rt. 7 Box 348a, Charleston, has just completed the Army's promotional examination for cooks. The examination is part of the new career guidance plan, designed to facilitate promotions within the enlisted grades.

Corporal Grant is assigned to the 159th Field Artillery Battalion stationed in Japan as part of the 25th Infantry.

Joining the Army on March 12, 1946, at Fort Jackson, S. C., Corporal Grant was sent to Fort Bragg, N. C. for his basic training.

Gateway to Gayway

By GEORGE D. TYLER

SUGAR HILL TAVERN fans club personality and a gay Jamjubilant since Ernest White's return to the field of seven-sliters.

Just opposite Harold Bevans's combo and Sylvia Anderson, the canary, whip up a musical fest at LITTLE WILLIE'S.

The charming Myrtle Burns and Walter Rouse spent a great deal of the gay season greeting fans and patrons at 1017 King Draper and his Drapes continue to divide their time between BERRY'S, South-Rod taverns, and BERTIE'S roadhouse.

Glamor Gus

Returning to the ZANZIBAR after a successful run at the Astoria, the Ra-Ders are going bigger than ever with the accent on Ray Shoates, guitarist-leader and vocalist. The chicks have started raving over Ray's personality and Thurlow is talking of putting a rope around the bandstand to protect the combo from intruders converging on "Glamor Gus." The ASTORIA will offer the Orioles beginning tonite (Friday).

Harvey Hill, singing emcee, and Lorraine Hollis, ethic warbler, moved into JONES'S popular offstroll rendezvous Monday night, injecting new life into the palace of jump and refined entertainment.

BRNEYS has a valuable utility man, "Sailor Joe" re-tar. Faye Holmes blues singer and one-time stroll favorite is evolved at her DC residence. Bobby Boyd is in her third week at Cicero's, downtown nifery.

Alaska Calls

Eddie (Lemons) Le Monte, veteran comedian, received a bid from Alaska to open New Year's Day, and the only means of timely transportation was the airlines. Eddie blabbered no dice at his age and continues to do week ends in Southwest Washington. Roy's roller of Alpine the nobile, the bus is one of the DRIVEAWAY'S mottos.

Brock Held Over

Pending the inauguration of its slack season policy of respectful shows on week ends only, GAMBY'S will hold the sensational soprano Frances Brock, until Sunday nite. Top rankine artists will be lined up for the week ends.

With a few minor changes the AVENUE will swing into the parade with a galaxy of star-studded renovvials guaranteed to keep you in the mood.

CHRISTMAS EVE SLAYING

FRANKFORT, Ky. (ANP) — Raymond P. Tatman, 60-year old white man, was jailed here last week for the Christmas Eve murder of Tom Miller, 44. Tatman is in the county jail in default of $5,000 bond to await grand jury action.

Buddy Johnson Sets 3 Eastern Theatres Before Road Jaunt

NEW YORK — Buddy Johnson will depart from his usual routine on the one-nite circuit to bring his band to the stages of three leading Eastern theatres, beeing off with the week beginning Friday, Jan. 14, at the 125th Street Apollo Theatre in Harlem.

The Johnson crew then will play the week of Jan. 21 at the Howard Theatre in Washington, and the week of Jan. 28 at the Royal in Baltimore.

The youthful pianist-maestro and his versatile aggregation will take to the road again in February for a nationwide tour.

Lady Day 'Wrecks the Joint'

In action, Billie Holiday changed the tune of a favorite song, "Oh Lady Be Good," for "Let's Wreck the Joint." Following a New Year's Eve explosion by the singer, she was held on three charges of assault with a deadly weapon, for throwing dishes in the kitchen of the Billy Berg Club in Los Angeles, leaving the place in shambles, according to police.

National Symphony Aces Join Modern School of Music Staff

WASHINGTON

The Modern School of Music, 3109 Georgia Ave., N.W., in its present expansion program, has added several members of the National Symphony Orchestra to the school faculty.

New staff members are Armand Sarro, trombone; Carmen Parlanti, trumpet; Vernon Kirkpatrick, oboe; Walter Maciejewicz, bassoon; Wallace Mann, flute; Louis Pirko, string bass and tuba, and Alfred Manning, harp.

The school also has engaged Joseph Leavitt, percussion instructor from the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra.

Other new staff members include Miss Jessie A. Zackery, voice, and Levington Smith, voice, piano and organ. Miss Zackery studied in Europe and Mr. Smith is a graduate of Howard, Columbia and Catholic Universities.

The Modern School of Music, Arthur E. Smith, founder and director, since its beginning in 1935 has grown from one building at 749 Park Rd., N.W., to two administrative buildings and two residence halls. The new equipment, which includes a $4,500 organ, is valued at a quarter million dollars.

The school maintains a scholarship fund and a full scholarship of $500 is awarded every two years to the outstanding student from any department. In addition to this Homer L. Kitt prize of $50 and the W. Sherman Smith prize of $25 to the outstanding senior piano student is awarded yearly.

Each year the students demonstrate their musical abilities in a symphonic concert, which is held in one of the city's auditoriums.

Cab Dropped by Columbia Execs

NEW YORK (ANS) — Columbia records executives following an artist and repertoire meeting last week, announced they would not renew waxing pacts with Cab Calloway, Woody Herman, Claude Thornhill and Tommy Tucker. It is expected that others are due to be released from their pacts as soon as the papers have expired, both at Columbia and at the other major diskeries.

RECORD MAKING STAND

NEW YORK — Eddie (Mr. Clean head) Vinson is slated for a 17-day recording at Mercury Studio before embarking on a dance tour late this month.

Showgirls Fall Out Over Ciggies; 2 Shot, 1 Held

TAMPA, Fla.—A blast of gunfire from a 32.20 calibre revolver, fired in a troupe car of the Silas Green Minstrel Show on a side track here behind Union Station, injured two women, one seriously, late last week.

Julia Mack, 19, is in a serious condition at the Tampa Colored Hospital; an unidentified girl was slightly injured by the same bullet, and Ella M. Birdsong, also a member of the show, was held in the shooting.

According to Detectives Myers and Rigsu, the shooting was the result of a disagreement over a package of cigarettes.

Miss Mack suffered a bullet wound in the neck, which severed her windpipe. Doctors at the hospital are doubtful she will ever be able to talk again. The bullet continued onwards and struck the second girl.

Both injured women are reported to be natives of Atlanta, Ga.

The show, currently touring Florida, will close in Brunswick, Ga. around Feb. 3.

Rev. Gatemouth to Shout at the Devil

CHICAGO (ANP) — Dewight (Gatemouth) Moore, popular blues singer and recording artist, announced last week he is retiring from blues singing and is going into the ministry. Moore, best known for his recording of "Somebody's Got to Go," closed a lengthy engagement at Club De Lisa.

Orioles Ink New Jubilee Contract, Cut 8 New Discs

The Baltimore Orioles, who have achieved fantastic success in the past few months via the jukebox circuit, have signed a new long-term contract to record exclusively for the Jubilee label, it was announced this week by Jerry Blaine, president of the firm, who originally discovered the group in a Baltimore night club.

Concurrent with the termination of the recording ban, the Orioles waxed eight new sides in two recent sessions. Their next release will pair a beautiful new ballad, "Date in Dream," with "To Be to You," which originally was released on the flipover of their platter of "Lonely Christmas." Their disc of "It's Too Soon to Know" is now nearing the million mark in sales.
