Rev. E. W. White to Head Baptist Ministers' Group

The Rev. E. W. White, pastor of the Providence Baptist Church, Fremont and Edmondson Avenues, was installed as president of the Baptist Ministers' Conference of Baltimore and Vicinity, on Monday, at its weekly meeting at Enon Baptist Church, with some 200 persons in attendance.

The Rev. Simon Williamson, of Faith Baptist Church, conducted the installation ceremony. He said in part: "Dr. White, is a deserving man. He has filled many positions in the conference and has proved loyal and faithful. It was in the minds of our brethren that it is now the time for him to become president. He possesses the spirit and determination to do right by everybody, and to see that all do right by him."

Unanimously Elected

The Rev. Mr. Williamson spoke at length of Dr. White's fine christian character; and, the fact that Dr. White is a prepared man who has observed the conditions, and can well fill the office.

The new president served for 19 years as current news commentator for the body. He was drafted and elected unanimously to the office of president, succeeding the Rev. Ward D. Yerby.

Dr. White, in his acceptance address, expressed thanks for the great honor bestowed on him. He said "with no friends to reward and no enemies to punish, I can solicit your help and cooperation, and will be glad to have the counsel and advice of anyone."

Other Officers

Other officers installed along with the Rev. Mr. E. W. White were:

The Rev. Luke G. Reynolds, first vice-president; the Rev. Dennis Harrow, second vice president; the Rev. S. A. Harrington, secretary; the Rev. Nathaniel Wicks, assistant secretary; the Rev. E. W. Williams, treasurer; the Rev. James L. Moore, reporter; the Rev. Ward D. Yerby, assistant reporter; the Rev. Hiram Smith, critic.

The Gospel Chorus of the Providence Baptist Church, under direction of Mrs. Irene Bowen, rendered two musical selections.

They're Headed Back to U. S.

1st Lt. and Mrs. Thomas I. Gaines of 127 W. 136th St., NYC, formerly of the 24th Infantry Regiment, Camp Gifu, Japan, are now returning to the United States for assignment with the 25th Infantry Regiment at Ft. Benning, Ga.

In Our Churches

BY LOUISE K. HINES

The Union Evangelistic Service of Faith, Fountain, and Memorial Baptist Churches, which began last Sunday at Memorial, will be conducted Monday through Friday at Fountain Church, Monument St. near Gay St.

The Rev. W. H. Skipwith, singer and evangelist, is conducting the religious crusade which is attracting crowds each night.

The New Shiloh Baptist Church is beginning the second week of its annual revival conducted by the Rev. P. L. Harvey of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Norfolk.

An added attraction is the Roberta Martin Singers of Chicago. They are assisted by Shiloh's own singing groups.

St. James 125 Years Old

St. James PE Church, the third oldest congregation of Episcopal Churches serving colored people, is preparing for its 125th anniversary.

Last Sunday marked the first anniversary of the publication of the "Messenger" of the Emmanuel C. C. Church. John E. Hill Jr., editor, is the author of hard-hitting editorials on civic issues.

Another feature of the informa tive bulletin is the weekly "capsule sermon" by the Rev. Wilbur W. Waters.

Lester M. Suitt, Membership and program committee secretary of the Druid Branch YMCA, will speak to the youth of St. John's AME Church at 11 a.m. on Sunday on "Christian Youth Faces A New World."

Some 376 names were on the Financial Honor Roll at New Shiloh Baptist Church when it was closed out for 1948, according to its "Bulletin."

Rev. Garnett at Shiloh

On Dec. 26, the Rev. George J. Garnett of the Morning Star Baptist Church, his choir and congregation, paid their annual visit to Shiloh. His sermon was on "The Giver and His Greatest Gift."

A total of 910 persons participated in communion services at the Memorial Baptist Church for the four-month period beginning in September.

The peak number, 230 persons was reached at the April 1948 communion service in December. The Rev. C. E. Browne is pastor.

The eight annual "Installation Tea" will take place at 2 p.m. on Sunday at the parsonage of Payne AME Church, 417 Laurens St., with Mrs. Cassie Cole as chairman.

Payne's pastor, the Rev. C. Baker Pearle, is slated for three speaking engagements.

On Wednesday he will speak at the dedication services of the new home of the Mt. Olivet Christian Church, 1725 Division St.

B & O Glee Club Concert

He will deliver two messages at the YMCA forum, On Wednesday at 7 p.m. his subject will be "The Technique of Prayer." The next week at the same hour he will speak on "The Purpose of Prayer."

Payne's Gospel choir will present "The Old Ship of Zion," at 5 p.m. on Jan. 23.

The Women's Glee Club of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will be presented in concert at 7:30 p.m. on next Sunday at Sharp St., according to the Rev. Joshua O. Williams.

Sunday will mark the 32nd anniversary of the pastor, the Rev. John T. Colbert, at Grace Presbyterian church.

The first in a series of monthly sermons will be preached at 11 a.m. by the Rev. L. B. West of Charlotte, N. C. There will be special music by the choir directed by Mrs. Margaret Franklin.

Special Sermon at Ames

Communion, the reception of new members and the baptism of infants will also take place at the morning service.

The Rev. R. Adolph Haynes of Ames Methodist Church, will preach on Sunday morning, the sixth in a series of three word communion messages, selecting as his subject, "Release Vs. Barabbas."

Communion will be served at the evening service at Perkins Square Baptist Church. Monday begins the observance of "Trustees Week" there.

Memorial Baptist Church reports that it followed its 25-year old Christmas Eve custom of having its choir sing carols to the patients, and staff of Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Emancipate Yourself, Minister Admonishes

"The New Year will be one of destiny if the million colored people will emancipate themselves from mental and spiritual prisons in which most of us live today, the Rev. Melvin D. Bullock asserted in First Baptist Church Sunday.

He urged that everyone resolve to seek four freedoms—from "obtuse prejudice, stupid superstition, baseless fear and unwarranted suspicion"—as a solution to the problem of "complete emancipation for colored people in the United States."

South Baltimore Notes

"Community Night," set for 7:45 p.m. on Wednesday, at the Mt. Winans Methodist Church, will feature a resume of the activities of the Mt. Winans Improvement Association, and the showing of two films.

Presented by the Citizens Planning and Housing Association, the films are "Baltimore" and "Baltimore is What You Make It."

The meeting is open to the public.

Trustees of the Star of Bethlehem AME Church, will sponsor a Songfest on Jan. 23, presenting 15 city and county choirs on a program arranged by George W. Hill.

Proceeds will be used for the repair fund of the church located at Ridgely St. and Harmon Ave., and pastored by the Rev. G. Oliver Wing.

Southside Personality

Mrs. Dorothy Johnson, young housewife and mother, of 637 S. Paca St., is this week's personality choice.

A life-time resident of the Southside, Mrs. Johnson attended Carver Technical High School and is a member of John Wesley Methodist Church.

She spends most of her time keeping house for her husband, Harry, and their son, Andre, 7 years old.

Mrs. Johnson loves to attend baseball, football and basketball games. Sewing is her hobby.

Mystery Fire Guts School in Ark. County

McGEHEE, Ark. (ANP)— Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the Desha colored Training School, the only accredited colored high school in the county, here early Wednesday morning. Damage to the school, which is a mile from the business district, was estimated at about $100,000, for which only a part is covered by insurance.

The school was a one-story brick veneer building with 12 classrooms. Enrollment numbered 268. Fire spared the home economics building nearby. Pupils were gathered for classes at the time of the fire.

Klan's Day Over, Editor Declares

NEW YORK (NNPA) — Where ever discrimination patterns against the colored man are sanctioned, prejudice against the Catholic and Jew will be also found, Richard Reed, editor of the Catholic News, told the regular forum of the Catholic Interracial Council, last Thursday.

Attributing the growth of racial issues in the South to political leaders, who raise the race question in an attempt to gain power, he said the day of the Ku Klux Klan as a power to be feared is past.

However, he warned that there is always the fear of a revival of the spirit of hatred which kept the Klan alive for so long.

"Hatred Can't Be Confined"

People may claim that the spirit of the Klan is no longer anti-Jewish or anti-Catholic, he observed, and that it is solely directed against the colored man, but he emphasized, "hatred cannot be confined to a single channel."

Mr. Reid admitted that the world today is in a deplorable state insofar as justice is concerned, but he said, if conditions of today are compared with those existing at the time of the birth of Christ, "the improvement is beyond measure."

White Warns Democratic Party Not to Take Group Support for Granted

Speaks at NAACP Annual Meeting at Which Five New Members Were Elected to Its Board

By JAMES L. HICKS

NEW YORK (NNPA) — Support given the Democratic Party by colored people during 1948 is not to be interpreted as a permanent commitment to that party, Walter White, executive secretary of the NAACP, stated to his organization here Monday.

Five new members were elected to the NAACP board of directors and Dr. Rayford Logan of Howard University was named as its consultant on colonial affairs at the meeting of 40th annual meeting, at which Mr. White spoke.

"How the colored man will vote in 1950 and 1952 will depend on what the 81st Congress does about amending the rules of the Senate so as to make cloture possible and what it does about reforming the rules of the House of Representatives. Mr. White added.

More than 300 members attended the meeting, which was held at Freedom House.

Total Active Branches

Reporting that the association now has a total membership of nearly half a million, the executive secretary said there are now 1551 active branches of the NAACP over the nation.

These include youth councils and college chapters in 45 States, the District of Columbia and Hawaii. Reporting on that 234 NAACP units were chartered during the past year.

He lashed that colored voters today are as independent as any class of voters in the nation. Mr. White said colored people voted for Mr. Truman in the past election because he was the forthright spokesman for civil rights and not because he was the Democratic candidate.

Vote to Be Reckoned With

He said despite the efforts of some to restrict and discredit the vote of the colored man in the South an estimated 700,000 colored citizens voted there last year and that by 1950 the Southern colored vote should reach the two million mark.

He pointed out that such a vote added to the three million colored voters in the North and West can no longer be ignored by any national party.

Mr. White said last year 23 new NAAC
