Improvement of Social Conduct Urged by Houston

Attorney Challenges Church to Take Leadership in Community Responsibility

WASHINGTON

Charles H. Houston, member of the research committee preparing the Report on Segregation in the Nation's Capital, said Tuesday, "a majority of people will be happy to have us exercise leadership we seek" if minority group citizens improve on their social conduct.

Addressing one of three forums by the Berean Baptist Church, 2023 11th St. N.W. Mr. Houston urged his audience to develop responsibility so that their social conduct will be accepted by society.

Discussing various aspects of the segregation report, he pointed out that "crime is not a racial characteristic, but is raised by environment. And it is our responsibility to try and correct that environment."

Church Should Lead

He also emphasized that it would be a good idea if each church should take the responsibility for its own neighborhood and make a survey of housing and recreational facilities.

"The church should take also the responsibility for following up on probation work," he added. "It should sponsor men released on probation and see that they get on and go straight."

Urging churches to assume further duties, he declared that churches should foster homes for children who have had family environment. Every instance of anti-social conduct plays int the hands of reactionaries, he concluded.

Also participating on the program was Dr. Vincent Browne, associate professor of government at Howard University, who assailed the small extent to which citizens in Washington participated in community planning.

Turner's Center Dedication Set

Dr. D. O. W. Holmes, president emeritus of Morgan State College and Christian Kahl, president of the Baltimore County Board of Commissioners, will speak at the formal dedication of the Turner Station Community Center Building on Jan. 23.

Dr. Arthur L. Johnson, president of the Turner Station Progressive Association, which sponsored the drive that resulted in purchase of the building, will present the keys to Dr. Eugene D. Byrd, president of the center's managerial board.

Residents Raise $7,000

Mr. Kahl will be introduced by Dr. Joseph H. Thomas. Mrs. Mary Gwaltney is chairman of the committee making arrangements for the dedication ceremony.

The building was purchased early last year with $7,000 raised in a door-to-door campaign.

IN MEMORIAM

MURPHY — In loving memory of our beloved daughter and sister, VIRGINIA F., who died eleven years ago, January 8, 1938:

We have only your memory, dear daughter.
To remember our whole life through:
But the sweetness will linger forever.

As we treasure the image of you.
THE FAMILY.

BLACKWELL — In loving memory of our dear daughter, sister and aunt, ELLA MAE BLACKWELL, who departed this life, January 8, 1945:

The road into the unseen
Is one we all must tread,
And one by one we follow
When a loved one goes ahead.
There is always comfort knowing
We will meet again some day
When the joy and pain are over
And the clouds have passed away.
Loving Mother, Father, Sister and Brothers.

BROWN — In loving memory of our dear mother, Rosa Gray, who passed away, Jan. 8, 1945:

You did so much for others,
You laid your life to none,
You gave your heart unselfishly,
And suddenly you were gone.
We miss your smile and your sweet
And you could have lived twice
The gates of Heaven opened
And God said, "Come home."
And only those who have lost can tell
The pain that fills one's heart when a loved one bids farewell.
— Goldie F. Downs, granddaughter, Pearl B. Downs.

BILLUPS — In loving remembrance of our beloved wife and children, who departed this life, January 8, 1925:

We do not forget her, we love her too dearly.
Her memory to fade from our lives
Our lips need not speak when our hearts
memories
For great often dwells where it seldom is spoken.
— Husband, Rev. Joseph Haughley, Edward Billups, Children.

GROSS — In loving remembrance of our dear husband, John Gross, who passed away January 8, 1945:

From this world of pain and sorrow
God in His wisdom called home
And he taken one from our midst
Where you have found eternal rest.
I do not forget you, nor do I intend;
I think of you often and will to the end.
Sometimes I think I can see your face
But soon to my sorrow I see you are gone.
Your loving wife, Emma.

ROGERS — In loving memory of our loved sister, Anna Boyer, who died January 8, 1935:

Not lost today, nor every day,
But ever in our memories.
— Brother and sister-in-law, Samuel J. and Carrie D. Hooper.

MCNEAL — In loving memory of our son and brother, Richard W., who passed away, January 8, 1948:

Gone but not forgotten,
Mother, sisters, brothers, and nieces.

SCOTT — In memory of our dear wife and mother, Rosa Wise Scott, who departed this life, January 8, 1944:

Your work is ended since that sad
day
The one we loved was called away.
Your home is empty, your place is vacant
But in our hearts, the fourth still remains
Sweet are the memories we cherish.
— Husband, Rev. Wm. H. Scott, Mabel Bell Beatrice and Earl Gibbons.

TATE — In loving memory of our husband, John, who passed away, December 31, 1945:

The road into the sunset is one we all must tread
And though it brings sorrow
Loved one goes ahead
There is always comfort knowing
We will meet again some day
When all sorrow and pain are over
And the clouds have passed away.
Loving wife, Eliza Tate.

TOWNS — In memory of our sister, Carrie, who passed away, January 8, 1948:

Sweet is the memory of your Sister and Brother.
