Listening to Morals Charge

Walter C. Whitaker (right), 64, of 518 S. 23rd St., Philadelphia, shows slight interest as he hears himself accused of statutory rape of a 12-year-old South Philadelphia girl. The child's mother said her daughter is pregnant. Testifying at the hearing, held at 12th and Pine Sts. police station, is Patrolman Preston Washington.

GREAR CASE HITS RUT:

State's Witness Shows Inability to Testify

The star witness in the Edward Grear-Patrolman John (Hap) Arnold fatal shooting case lapsed into a trance over the week end that has baffled police officials.

The witness is Miss Mary Alston, 23, alias Mary Williams, 746 W. Lexington St., who allegedly spent several hours carousing with Grear on the night before Officer Arnold was fatally shot on Dec. 12.

She is said to have been with Grear when the latter allegedly shot the patrolman at Biddle and Little Pine Sts.

Strange Actions Cited

Miss Alston, who was at liberty as a State's witness pending grand jury investigation of the shooting, was arrested late Sunday night.

Officers said she acted very strange and appeared to be highly intoxicated so she was sent to the Receiving Hospital for observation.

Psychiatric Aid Asked

Late Monday, the officer reported that Miss Alston had been returned to the station house and her condition had not changed. He revealed that efforts are being made to have the woman admitted to some institution for study and proper attention.

When the case was called by Magistrate Fitzpatrick the following morning, the witness was half lied, half-pushed into the courtroom.

Her hair was disheveled, her red sweater and black skirt were soiled and rumpled and her face was dirty.

Now at Aberdeen

Pfc. Hewdorsey Rucker, a member of the 3050th Quartermaster Depot Squadron, formerly stationed at Kelly Field, Texas, has been transferred to the ordnance in the Regular Army and is now located at the Aberdeen Proving Ground. He is the son of Mrs. Daisy Rucker of Baltimore.

Policeman's Slayer Gets Life in State Prison

Youthful Murderer of Western Union Clerk Must Also Serve Life Term

Two teen-age killers, escaping death in the electric chair, were sentenced Friday, to life terms in Eastern State Penitentiary.

The Commonwealth had asked that both of the youths, David Allen Jr., 19, of Eighth St. near Poplar, and Joseph Simmons, 18, of Jefferson St. near 11th, be doomed to die.

Allen was charged with shooting to death Patrolman William B. Chapman, 41, of 1823 N. Marvine St. as the officer was leading him to a call box at Darien and Poplar Sts. last June 13.

Killed in Holdup Attempt

Simmons was accused of fatally stabbing Willis Matthews, 57, a white clerk, during an attempted holdup in a Western Union office at Broad St. and Montgomery Ave., last July 1.

The youths, when put on trial before juries pleaded not guilty but later changed their pleas to guilty. Three judges, Frank Smith, Eugene V. Alessandroni and Gerald F. Flood, heard their defense in November.

Friday's proceedings took only 10 minutes.

It had been testified earlier that Chapman, a war hero attached to the Eighth and Jefferson Sts. police station, had placed Allen, a laborer, under arrest for disorderly conduct before the latter snatched the officer's gun and shot him three times.

Says Policeman Was Drunk

Allen said he shot the officer after Chapman had threatened to kill him. Six defense witnesses supported his contention that Chapman beat him with his nightstick; and a brother with whom Allen lived said the patrolman was intoxicated at the time of the shooting.

Simmons, a junior pastor who was planning to attend a theological school, denied the Commonwealth's contention that he killed Matthews in a futile effort to get $300 which he had allegedly seen a Texas seaman give he clerk in payment for a money order.

The stabbing occurred, according to Simmons, after Matthews, a slightly-built man, became enraged and attacked him during an argument over some money Simmons had given the clerk during a transaction.

Both of the killers had come to Philadelphia from South Carolina, last year. Simmons arrived here from his home in Bennettsville, S.C., 15 days before the Matthews slaying, and Allen came here from Landrum, S.C., last February.

Man Shot as He Stops in Alley

As Luther Brown, 52, of 827 Woodyear St. battled valiantly for his life in Provident Hospital, Monday, police sought his two assailants, one of whom shot him twice last Saturday.

Physicians said Brown, who received a bullet wound in the left side and one through the left side of his neck, was in a fair condition.

Stopped in Alley, Shot

Police said shortly after 10 p.m. Saturday, Mr. Brown stopped momentarily in an alley in the rear of a store at Pennsylvania Ave. and Dolphin St. Two men walked up and asked what he was doing.

A few words had been exchanged when one of the strangers drew a revolver and fired several shots, of two of which struck Brown. The latter fled as their victim slumped to the ground.

Police Summoned

A passerby summoned police who removed the injured man to the hospital then began searching for his assailants. They were apparently a member of the gang of thieves who robbed a meat market of $100 in cash and a quantity of meat last Friday.

A few minutes later, Phillip Combs, 24, 2212 McCulloh St., was arrested in the 1100 block Wilmer St. for interfering with police while they were investigating the robbery. He paid a fine of $10 and costs.

IN MEMORIAM

RUFFIN—In loving memory of my darling wife, Helen, who passed away one year ago, January 17, 1948.

Her loving face I hope to see again
Though the days have passed away
Her voice, dear and sweet, no more I hear
There is one you must who love you best.
Loving husband, FARL.

HILLIARD—In memory of father and brother, JOHN QUINCE, died 5 years ago, Jan. 30, 1943.

He was young in a dear today
As we look back he passed away
Sweet is the memory of his face
And fondly we cherish his place.

CAMPBELL—In memory of our husband, father, Sgt. Major Jesse Campbell, who died Sunday, January 16, 1938.

Sunshine passes, shadows fall
We miss you more as time goes by
We miss your smile and your kind advice
They are filled with sweet memories of you.
Loving Wife
SUSIE CAMPBELL

BROWN—In loving memory of our dear father, Rev. Jesse Brown, who departed January 15, 1948.

Where mother breathes her last farewell
This broken family mourn their loss
The world seems quite another place
Since we bade our mother adieu
Earth years have passed since that sad day
Yet memory brings back your image
God took her home it was his will
But Will Power, heaven, we know
We cannot LOSE. Thy turtle-dove.
Lo! the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
SARAH ANTHEW, JAMES and BLANCHE

GREEN—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, John Green, who passed away January 17, 1946.

You fought the pain so lovely
Your heart was dull not lonely
Your smile we loved with you dear, but
God loved you more
You gave, to the end
Your life, your love, your kind loving ways
God gave more—he gave HIS
How we miss you each day, God knows only
Sadly,
Loving Wife, JENNIE GREEN
