DUNBAR RALLY UPSETS CARVER BASKETERS

Sykes's Late Baskets Spark Poets' 47-44 Cage Victory

Cain's Youngsters Fight Off Early Lead of Favored Trainers; Tie for SAC Top

Assuming the hero's role for the second game in succession, Lawrence (Easy) Sykes, youthful 6-foot, 6-inch center of the Dunbar High School basketball team, sparked his mates to a surprising 47-44 victory over Carver Vocational High School on the Douglass court Wednesday afternoon.

Sykes, whose deadly shooting eye spurred the rally that nipped the Poets's D.C. namesakes in Washington on Monday, dropped in two timely double-deckers to pull Wednesday's contest out of the fire.

Collaborating with Nat (Skeets) Pointer to tally six points in the last minute of play, Cain's splintery pivot star paced the East Baltimoreans to win a game in which Carver had led throughout.

Coach Sodie White's previously undefeated Trainers shot to the fore at the starting whistle, and at one point in the opening quarter were on the seemingly safe end of a 10-point lead, 16-6.

Dunbar rallied mildly, however, and at halftime were trailing by four points, 26-22.

Carver Pulls Away

As the third period got underway, Don Quarles and Jerome Hutton began hitting with greater consistency and again Carver pulled away from their rivals from across town. At the midway point of the quarter, the Trainers were ahead by 31-22.

But Dunbar was not finished yet, with Coleman and Langley starting the rally, as the final quarter got under way, the Poets closed the gap to within one point of the Whitemen. And it was at this point that Sykes took over.

With the score standing at 41-40, the Easy One drifted in for a foul lowup, gathered in the ball as it came off the backboard and, with his back to the basket, flipped the ball over his head. It arched into the ends without touching back board or rim.

Trainers "Blow" Chances

Burton, Dunbar Carver back in the lead a moment later, netting a lay-up as the crowd went mad.

With the clock showing 50 seconds remaining and Dunbar behind, 44-43, Poet partisans began pleadling for victory. Sykes responded with a lightning-fast lay-up and Ponder duplicated to put the game.

In those wild final seconds, Carver shooters "blew" two easy chances under the basket to deprive them of what dying opportunities they may have had to bag the decision.

Hall Paces Selon Against Rutgers

NEW BRUNSWICK — Bobby Hurt, former Orange High School All-Stater, currently is pacing the Seton Hall freshman basketball team. Hurt thrilled a capacity crowd in the Rutgers gym here last week with his deceptive passing, and phenomenal southpaw shot-making ability.

The lanky star's 15 point total, 12 in the second half, led the visiting South Orangeites to a 59-52 triumph over a game Rutgers frosh quintet. Hurt's three successive goals in the last three minutes provided the margin of victory.

Upon his graduation from Orange High School last fall, the 19-year-old lad was awarded a four-year athletic scholarship to Long Island University, but Bobby decided he'd rather stay nearer home, so he accepted an offer to attend Seton Hall.

If Hurt had gone to the New York institution, where he would have joined Clair Bee's other star, Sherman White of Englewood, he would have received $1200 yearly to pay for his tuition, living expenses etc.

At Seton Hall, Bobby is majoring in a business management, and commutes daily from his home in Orange, where he lives with his family. His 120 points in the first 11 games leads the freshmen scorers at the Hall, and varsity coach, Jack Reitemeier, has great plans for Bobby's future as a varsity player.

Seton Hall, the "Basketball School of the East," hasn't had a colored varsity performer on its basketball team in the past, but Bobby undoubtedly will make the grade.

HONORS FOR IKE

Ike Williams of Trenton, world champion lightweight boxer, was awarded the Edward J. Neil memorial plaque as top 1948 boxer in his hometown last week, and on Thursday is scheduled to get the Newark A.C. trophy.

Hooks and Passes

By THE OLD SCOUT

One of the most improved teams in the Maryland AAAA League, from the up and coming Pointers . . . They took the Harlem Bears into camp Sunday . . . The Old Scout failed to back by the ex-captain of the St. Peter War Vets . . . He claims that St. Peter Vets play every Friday night at the St. Peter Hall and are anxious to meet any fire and all comers, and that the team is not disbanded as was reported here recently.

Eastwood bounced back into high gear when they uncorked a terrific ball game and crushed the United Public Workers, 62-28 . . . The interracial five had a busy week last week beating Mount St. Joe Resident, Baltimore Clippers and the highly regarded Washington War Vets . . . The first half to get the race for the Intermediate Division ends Monday night and the way the teams are bunched together, there's no telling who will take the honors . . . From here it looks like it might be St Peter Claver.

The Old Scout was visiting the other night at the Sharp St Gym and was glad to see the Banta-Dons an all colored five, signing up a white boy to play in the Intermediate Division . . . The boy's name Jim Casey . . . They expect to add another white player very soon . . . The official scorer of Sunday's league games, James Crockett, has all the players looking twice . . . at his new "Hoot" hat . . . When he's on time, Jim does a swell scoring job . . . And this also goes for Gilbert Moseley, the timer.

The Eastwood Poets are beginning to climb in the league race . . . By beating St. Phus, Sunday, they went into a third place tie with the Carver Vets . . . John Pointers was high scorer this Sunday with 20 points . . . Eastwood Progressive A.C. will sponsor this week's games . . . They meet Sheppard Burge's Harlem Bears in the feature game of the day.

Some of the league managers have become just a little bit lax in signing and releasing players . . . Maryland AAAA officials tell us that some of the teams are going to get themselves some pretty stiff penalties if they don't watch out . . . Just a friendly tip to managers . . . Better make sure all players you intend to sign are not members of another team in the league . . .

St. Francis Xavier of East Baltimore is looking for opponents for Friday nights and Sunday afternoon games with unlimited and junior teams contact Lawrence Tinson, Pea. 9407 . . . Also the Baltimore Clippers, Linwood Stevens, and St. Peter Claver Vets, Leroy White 1562 N. Carey St . . . The grapevine has it that one of the unlimited teams in the Maryland 4-A is due for a real shakeup . . . Seems some of the players were caught red-handed playing under assumed names for another team.

Stowe Pupil Wins Hopscotch Tourney

Virginia Bishop, pupil at Stowe School No. 118, emerged the winner of the annual elementary hopscotch tournament held Monday in the gymnasium of Taylor School No. 122.

Runners-up were Hilda Washington of Wood School No. 176, Rachel Jones of School No. 126, and Alice Diggs of Elliott School No. 104.

Honorable mention went to Thelma Collins of School No. 115, Lillian McCoy of School No. 136, and Estelle Miles of Bennraker School No. 113, who reached the semi finals.

Prizes to the winners were replicas of a rubber ball hammered out of brass and made by Warren Nix on and Charles Henry of Taylor School.

21 Schools Participate

The tournament in which 21 schools participated, was sponsored by the health and physical education division of the Department of Education.

Judges, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Ganges, were Misses Talmadge Bunn, Bettye Matthews, Beatrice Johnson, Mary Watson, Yolanda Jones and Lorehe Fitzgerald, all of Coppin Teachers College.

Miss Katherine Nelson of Taylor School served as clerk and Louis T. Snowden was the tournament supervisor.

Union Collects 144 Points in 2 CIAA Cage Victories

Panthers Wallop Hampton, 73-39, Then Crush St. Paul, 71-37, in Va. Court Tilts

RICHMOND

Two smashing conference triumphs last week end got the Virginia Union University Panthers off to a flying start in the CIAA court race. On Friday night Hampton proved a surprisingly easy victim as they fell, 73-39, on Saturday night, St. Paul's Poly of Lawrenceville was thrashed, as expected, 71-37.

The Panthers go into action twice this week, meeting Howard at Turner's Arena in Washington on Thursday night, Inauguration Day, and Morgan State in the Belgian gym here on Friday night. The Washington fray is a sellout and no tickets will be sold to the public, school officials have announced.

Union was in fine form in both games last week. They were steady and pursued front-running tactics all the way, aiming at as high a score as possible. No stalling tactics were used by the starters or the replacements, who played more than a quarter of the Hampton game and more than a half of the St. Paul setto.

Ross Racks Up Pair of 13's

Capt. Don Ross, senior sharpshooter from Braddock, Pa., who has captained three Red and Steel teams than any athlete in the college's history, bagged 13 points in each game while giving limited service . . . Ross is still shaking off effects of a football injury.

Eugene (Jelly) Smith, senior forward from Richmond and a religious education student at Union, paced the scoring in the St. Paul game with 16 markers.

Friday night, Hampton was the picture of baseball futility in the ring half as they cashed in on only 3 field goals while tossing the ball goalward 43 times (just about a shot a day for 20 minutes of playing time).

Union garnered 16 goals on 31 attempts for a healthy, 40-13, lead at the end of the second half, more nearly resembled a basketball game. Ross was too late, got 9 goals out of 26 attempts and the visitors 9 out of 22 tries.

Union racked up some kind of foul shooting mark for two nights' play as they got 35 out of 50 tries against Hampton and bettered 19 out of 31 the next night.

St. Francis' Quint Downs Sheiks, 42-28

St. Francis Xavier's intermediate basketball team scored its second victory of the season this week defeating the Sheiks, 42-28.

Bob Jones was high man on the doubtedly lost the fight because of his rough tactics.

Shields Winner

After buckling Floyd Carberry's knees from the opening bell, John Shields of Police Boys Club No. 2 covered the Andrews Field soldier with a flurry of lefts and rights to the head to take a TKO in 54 seconds of the first round.

A cool, calculating fighter, Gene Smith, opened the senior division by soundly thrashing Joe Davis of Apollo A.C. in the 112-pound class. Smith, who drew four byes, dropped Davis in the first frame with a smashing left hook and finished him off in 1:06 of the second heat.

A Pier 6 brawl ensued between Connie Wilkins of Police Boys Club No. 2 and George Kane, a Korean in the Marine reserve. The two 160-pounders flailed wildly with rights and lefts until Wilkins sent Kim sailing through the ropes on the apron at the bell.

Kim was unable to answer the bell for the third round and Wilkins received a technical knockout. Kim, It was revealed later, suffered a broken nose.

Sutton Brakes Neat

Leon Daughtry of Liberty A.C. making his second ring appearance, was hard pressed to take a decision from Leland Williams, a stablemate who stayed on top of him from the opening bell. Daughtry dropped Williams for a count in the final round to take a split decision which was loudly booed.

Pee Gees Down Lakeland, 36-29

BERWYN, Md. — Lloyd Diggs, fast-breaking Parker-Gray forward, tossed in 15 points to lead the Pee Gees to a 36-29 victory over a scrappy Lakeland team, on Monday, on the losers' court.

The Louis Johnson-coached Vikingians, amassing their second South Atlantic Conference victory in three starts, took a 25-17 halftime margin over the Wildcats and stood off a final-period drive to win.

High scorers for the losers were Carl Cage, tall Lakeland center, with 10 points, and Bill Queen, who tallied eight and seven points, respectively.

Lakeland threatened the Pee Gees in the opening minutes of the contest with their accurate set shooting but a pressing defense bottled the Lakeland drive.

Lenny Ford Joins Rens Cage Quint

WASHINGTON

Lenny Ford, 230-pound Los Angeles Dons professional gridder, departed yesterday (Thursday) to join the Rens here now representing Dayton, Ohio, in the National Professional Basketball League.

The 6-foot, 4-inch former University of Michigan star did not disclose the salary he accepted in reaching an agreement with Eric Illidge, Rens manager.

Ford, who participated in basketball at Armstrong and later at Morgan, is expected to join the Rens tonight (Friday) against the Oshkosh cagers in Wisconsin.

Ford is booked to play center or guard, and was reportedly hired to replace John Brown, two-year veteran with the Los Angeles Dons who signed with the Rens shortly after Christmas. Brown, former All-CIAA star at N.C. State, reportedly has decided to return to school.

Semi-final Bouts Draw $5,217 Gross Gate; Four Conceded Excellent Chance for Titles

WASHINGTON

A battle-scarred array of 10 fighters emerging winners in the Golden Gloves semi-finals slugfest Wednesday, immediately launched heavy training for the crucial 5-bale set for next week in the armory.

Survivors of the torrid semi-finals, which produced five knockouts, unexpected spills and thrills, were Alfonso Williams, Police Boys Club No. 2; Willie Troy, 12th St. YMCA; and John Shield, Police Boys Club No. 2, all in the novice division; Gene Smith, Liberty A.C.; Sammy Kelsey, Liberty A.C.; Connie Wilkins, Police Boys Club No. 2; Roland Randall, Mel A.C.; Eddie Grant, Apollo A.C.; and Eliel Powers of Fort Belvoir, of the senior division.

This number augmented by some four battlers who drew byes will include probably 18 boxers aspiring for titular honors in the finals. However, only winners in the senior division will represent the District in the national tourney.

Already conceded sure winners in their respective classes are Smith, Daughtry, Randall, Leader Marshall, the latter a light-heavyweight.

The 21-card semi-final affair attracted a crowd of 2,576 who contributed to a gross gate of $5,217.56 with a net of $4,629.56.

Action was not set at a furious tempo from the opening bell. Alfonso Williams of Police Boys Club No. 2 was dropped for an eight-count by Richard Graham's left hook in the first round, but rebounded in the second and third heats to floor the marine reserve twice, once at the bell, to take a split decision.

7 All-Colored Bouts

The first of seven all-colored bouts saw long-armed Willie Troy of the 12th St YMCA punch out a sizzling three-round split decision over Jesse Edward of Police Boys Club No. 2.

It was left up to chunky Harold Brown of the 12th St. YMCA to provide the merriment. Swing wildly at the taller Ronald Miller, white, of Seat Pleasant, he missed four times and went sprawling to the canvas for a count. In the second round, he ducked, and, catching Miller on his knees, heaved him to the canvas head first. Although Brown counterm Miller's attack effectively, he undoubtedly lost the fight because of his rough tactics.

Shields Winner

After buckling Floyd Carberry's knees from the opening bell, John Shields of Police Boys Club No. 2 covered the Andrews Field soldier with a flurry of lefts and rights to the head to take a TKO in 54 seconds of the first round.

A cool, calculating fighter, Gene Smith, opened the senior division by soundly thrashing Joe Davis of Apollo A.C. in the 112-pound class. Smith, who drew four byes, dropped Davis in the first frame with a smashing left hook and finished him off in 1:06 of the second heat.

A Pier 6 brawl ensued between Connie Wilkins of Police Boys Club No. 2 and George Kim, a Korean in the Marine reserve. The two 160-pounders flailed wildly with rights and lefts until Wilkins sent Kim sailing through the ropes on the apron at the bell.

Kim was unable to answer the bell for the third round and Wilkins received a technical knockout. Kim, It was revealed later, suffered a broken nose.

Sutton Brakes Neat

Leon Daughtry of Liberty A.C. making his second ring appearance, was hard pressed to take a decision from Leland Williams, a stablemate who stayed on top of him from the opening bell. Daughtry dropped Williams for a count in the final round to take a split decision which was loudly booed.
