Scene of Insurance Co. Safe Theft

Search on for Thugs Who Stole $150 in 200-lb. Safe

Northeastern District police continued their search, this week for the persons who stole a 220-pound safe containing $150 from the Supreme Liberty Life Insurance Company, 1222 E. Monument St., late Friday night.

The thieves apparently gained entrance by forcing the front door, after unsuccessful attempt to open a rear window. They searched the office, then removed the safe through a rear door.

Important Records Taken

John S. Fenneil, manager of the Eastside branch office, said the safe contained important company records. The safe had not been recovered, late Wednesday.

Orange Windley, who lives on the second floor above the company, discovered the theft as he left for work early Saturday morning.

Noticing the firm's front door open, Mr. Windley called Northeastern District police, who in turn notified the manager. Money in the safe was insured, Mr. Fenneil reported.

X-ray Survey to Be Made in Catonsville

The Baltimore County mobile chest X-ray unit will make a survey at Banneker High school, in Catonsville on Feb. 4.

The unit will move to the south eastern section of the county early in March. X-rays are made without cost and all positive findings will be treated in a confidential manner, health department officials explained.

In 90 per cent of the cases it is cheaper in the long run.

60 DAYS TO SOUR TASTE FOR SALMON

Pleading guilty to the theft of three cases of salmon from a freight car parked on a railroad siding at Lafayette Ave and Smallwood St., William Robinson, 23, 1839 Lorman St., was given 60 days in jail, Tuesday.

A special policeman testified he discovered the theft and, while searching the neighborhood, noticed two men pulling a small cart containing the canned goods valued at $24.

The second man, identified as Clifton Kilpatrick, 27, 1806 Laurens St., was dismissed when it was testified he had just met Robinson and had nothing to do with the burglary.

GROCERIES BRING TROUBLE TO MAN, 28

Frank Savage, 28, of 1204 N. Central Ave., was held in $1000 bail for grand jury action, Wednesday, when charged in Northeastern police court with breaking into a grocery store in the 1600 block of E. Madison St. with intent to steal.

$1000 in Jewelry Stolen From Store

Detectives are searching for a to of thieves, one member of which is believed to be a woman, that burglarized a Pennsylvania Ave. department store of approximately $1000 worth of jewelry, Monday night.

The robbery was reported by Albert Kermisch to have occurred at his place of business, 1138 Pennsylvania Ave., sometime between 9:30 p.m. when the store was closed and 8:30 a.m., exactly 42 rings and 30 watches were stolen, the proprietor stated he learned.

Headquarters detectives investigating the robbery said they found fingerprints which were regarded as those of a woman because of their small size. Puzzling the sleuths, however, was the method of entry into the three-story building.

The intruders climbed up a telephone pole on the narrow side walk at the rear of the building for immoral purposes.

Re-Elected to College Fund Board

These two men were recently re-elected to the board of directors of the United Negro College Fund. They are James E. Townsend, international president of the United Transport Service Employees, CIO.

School News

The Kindergarten Mothers Club of Lockerman School No. 190 sponsored a lecture at its monthly meeting at which members of various mothers clubs in the school were guests.

The speaker, Mrs. Marion Coombs, of the Northwest Branch Planned Parenthood Clinic, talked on "Sex Education for Young Children." Mrs. Geraldine Klard, president of the kindergarten, presided.

The parents and teachers met on Jan. 18 and group of teachers explained the new report cards developed by the Report Card Committee to a group of parents. Mrs. Anita Grinner explained those for the kindergarten; Mrs. Ethel Jarrard, the first grade reports; Miss Evelyn Ross, second grade; and Mrs. Lillian Johnson, intermediate grades.

New Arithmetic Method

Parents were acquainted with the newer methods of teaching arithmetic. Miss Melba Rawlings, Mrs. Mary James and Mrs. Ethel Hunter explained the use of concrete objects and "bundles and ones" in developing meaningful concepts of numbers.

Mrs. Mary James showed a moving picture on China and demonstrated the use of visual aids and projects in teaching social studies. Parents also were entertained by a dance recital given by Miss Gloria Murray, pupil of the 6a class.

The intermediate opportunity class of Hayes School No. 102 gave the play, "The Mouse Trap," by Dorothy Deming, for Dr. Harry Latshaw, over Station WMPB, Sunday at 8 p.m., Thursday. Mrs. Mary Gordon is teacher; Mrs. Anne L. Payne, principal.

Honor Group Induction

The Booker T. Washington chapter of the National Junior Honor Society inducted 19 new members, Jan. 19, in an impressive ceremony held in the school auditorium, with older members dressed in black robes, seated before altars draped in white bearing a candle for each standard of the society.

Margaret Corman, Jean Campen, Alfred Prettyman, Virginia Walker and Mary Boulware, older members, addressed the candidates.

After they had been selected from their ranks by Robert Wheatley, Elijah Saunders, Jennie Epps and Freddie Hill, they passed to the stage and were administered the pledge by the president, Vashti Bodfie.

Marcia Chapman, secretary, welcomed them into the society and the presentation of certificates was made by the vice-principal, Mrs. Annette Johnson.

Membership in the society is achieved by maintaining an average of 80 or more in each major subject for three consecutive semesters and a passing grade in each minor subject.

Shiveman Slain in Gun-Knife Duel

One man was killed and another wounded in a bloody gun-and-knife duel, Wednesday night from which the wielder of the pistol emerged victorious.

The victim, Henry Canady of 511 S. Green St., was pronounced dead on arrival at University Hospital of a bullet wound reportedly fired by Joshua McDowell, whom he is said to have stabbed during the duel that took place at Green and Conway Sts.

Treated for cuts of the neck at the same hospital, McDowell, 28, who resides at 509 Burgundy St., was released to Western District police.

He was docketed on three counts

Held on 3 Charges

and ordered held for a hearing at a date to be set by the State's Attorney's offices.

Charges were listed as assaulting and shooting, and thereby causing the death of Canady, having a deadly weapon in his possession and firing the gun within the city limits.

The body of the victim was identified by Mrs. Rosiee Bradley of 309 S. Green St., and removed to the morgue, and Mrs. Emily Ballard of Fayetteville, N.C., his mother, was notified.

Women Work, Men Get the Pay in Liberia, Says Dr. Kittrell

The women in Liberia still do the work, that is all except work for which pay is received, Dr. Flemmie Kittrell, head of the department of home economics at Howard University, said, here, Saturday.

Dr. Kittrell was guest speaker at the National Day Celebration of the Baltimore Branch of the National Association of College Women. The affair was held in the library of the Madison Avenue YWCA, with a social hour and buffet service in the lecture room, following.

Dr. Kittrell recently returned from the Africa Republic where she served on a nutrition project under the sponsorship of our Government.

She told the group, Saturday, that she was particularly impressed by the attractiveness of the Liberians, of their irate culture, the gentleness of their voices and their peaceful attitudes

Death Rate High

On the other hand she pointed to the high mortality rate, saying that in many villages there were very few children and in some, no elderly people. Dr. Kittrell scored the missionary set-up in Liberia, saying that many, not all, were of little value in eliminating the wretchedness of the natives.
