MRS. LINWOOD MASENBERG HAS THREE SMART GIRLS!

Mrs. Linwood Masenberg of 1410 Division St., has three beautiful daughters; Lucille, Alverta, and Gloria. Three smart girls, who like their mother, know that Hendin's is the finest fashion shop in town.

Mrs. Masenberg, a charming, young-looking mother, believes in higher education for her children. Lucille is in her third year at Coppin Teachers' College. Alverta, a Douglass High School senior, plans on attending Temple College. Gloria has her heart set on Coppin, too.

"I don't know what I'd do without Hendin's friendly, convenient charge-it service", exclaims Mrs. Masenberg. "Outfitting three girls is expensive, especially when they want exclusive fashions. That's why we like to shop at Hendin's. At Hendin's, we don't have to pay cash . . . we can charge everything".

Delta Sorors Hostesses at Founders' Day Fete

with Lula Jones Garrett

Some ninety Delta Sigma Theta Sorors gathered about banquet tables at the YWCA, here, Saturday evening, to honor their founders at one of the prettiest parties of the season.

And pretty it was with crimson and cream roses bedecking the tables, all the accessories in the same colors, and even the ices, in book form with inscription indicating they were marking their thirty-sixth anniversary, in the same color motif.

Speaker was Soror Gwendolyn Lee, a supervisor in the department of public welfare, here, who discussed the necessity of the present day woman participating fully in government. She was introduced by Soror Pearl C. Wilson, president of the local chapter, Epsilon Sigma.

Other participants were Ruth Rosedom, who gave the medication, Harriet Peat, who made presentations, and Soror Velma McKeen, who was toast mistress.

Two of the founders, Mrs. Vashti Murphy of this city and Mrs. Florence L. Toms of Washington, were present. There were gifts for them . . . a leather jewelry case to the former, and a half-dozen hand embroidered handkerchiefs to the latter. There were also corsages of crimson and cream roses for past national presidents Gladys Shepperd and Mae Downs, the chapter president, Mrs. Wilson, and the regional director, Mrs. Muriel Johnson.

There were a group of visiting sorors, Mrs. Pauline Weeden, Miss Susan Fain and Mrs. Bernice Hill, from Alpha Beta Sigma chapter, Lynchburg; and Mrs. Vietta Willis from Alpha Sigma chapter, New York City.

There were scores of the local sorors about, including:

Phyliss Allen, Gloria Basfield, Evelyn Bass, Juliet Bragg, Deloia Call, Ann Calhoun, Kay Carter, Minnie Ceaser, Vivian Chamberlain, Elaine Davis, Mae Dyson.

Olivia Dixon, Ella Edemy, Ethelyn Evans, Velma Ferguson, Jimme Finney, Ellen Fisher, C. Fletcher, Ruby Gill, Martha Gover, Miss Gwaltney, Charlotte Hackett, Madge Hibbler, Frances Hill.

Ethel Hucles, Ezmora Hull, Grace Hunt, Mary Jacobs, Laura Jackson, Annette Johnson, Dorothy Johnson, Elizabeth Johnson, Ardell Jones, Ruth Jones.

Clementine Knox, Thelma Lawrence, Velma Leaper, Mae Morris, Charlotte Mebane, Lorraine McDowell, Florence Merchant, Muriel Marshall, Lydia Musenden.

Ida Nixon, Olga Parker, Gladys Parker, Harriett Peat, Margaret Proctor, Marjorie Prout, Betty Phillips, Alma Randall, Inez Read, Dorothy Roberts, Mildred Roberts.

Elsie Robinson, Ruth Rosedom, Osceola Savage, Vera Scott, Ida Smith, Carnelia Smith, Mary Spellman, Gloria Sturgis, Lillie Sturgis, Lilla Terry, Frances Woods.

PEREGRINATORS

Vivian Alleyne dashed off to Tennessee, Tuesday, to be with here mother, who is seriously ill. Agnes Underwood and her small daughter, Gale, entrained Wednesday for San Francisco, Calif., where they will join Capt. Leonard Underwood, who will be there for another year on Army assignment. Let's uncross those wires . . . 'Tis rumored Carol Blanton, the Morgan State College associate professor of music, concert pianist, who Stuart Owens of Morgan Park is in a tizzy over. Though I do hear that he is having a little quiet competition from former president Dwight O. Holmes.

But don't ask me to uncross those wires at a high school which are all tangled over an administrator's notes to his lady, pupil interference, and now community agitation. And it is entirely too late to get into that matter of the physical instructor beating the DHS teacher, by the scuff of the neck, out of the gym.

CUPIDOODLING

Myrtle Thompson and John Koger, Jr., became one in a pretty home wedding at the residence of her brother-in-law and sister, the John J. Oliverts on Friday afternoon at six.

The Rev. Reginald Daniels officiated. Mrs. Geraldine Powell, accompanied by Mrs. Louise Smallwood, was soloist and the wedding music was played by the bride's niece, Hazel T. Stewart.

The bride wore a lace and blue dressmaker suit which had its beige jacket trimmed in blue sequins and a navy blue skirt. Her accessories were of navy blue and her corsage of orchids, her matron of honor, Hazel Barrett, her sister, wore grey with navy accessories and a corsage of camellias. O'Neil Koger, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver tendered the couple a reception, then they dashed off to New York on a honeymoon.

Guests included:

Linwood Koger, Mrs. Ruth Black, Miss Constance Black, Linwood Koger Jr., William Bevans, Mrs. James Penn, Mr. and Mrs. John Koger Sr., Miss Winifred Koger, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Daniels, Reginald Daniels Jr. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Koger, Miss Sandra Koger, Mrs. Geraldine Powell, Mrs. Louise Smallwood.

Mrs. Evelyn Stewart, Misses Hazel and Roslyn Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett, Miss Beverly Barrett, George Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Algernron Prestwidge.

Miss Barbar Prestwidge, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, Miss Marilyn Oliver, Jakie Oliver, Mrs. Katherine Jackson, Cordell Jackson, Anthony Jackson, Earl Koger Sr.,

Mr. and Mrs. William Collins, the Rev. J. Baxter Matthews, Mrs. Myrtle Wilson, Mrs. Lillian R. Webb, Mrs. Cynthia Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Maddox, Miss Carolyn Thomas, and Miss Shirlen Williams.

Gloria Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ford, and Charles Mitchner were wed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Coy Davis, by the Rev. E. Adolph Haynes.

The bride, gowned in champagne taffeta and carrying a huge bouquet of yellow roses, was attended by

Mrs. Wooden was given a surprise party in celebration of her birthday.

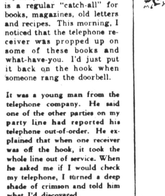
JOLLY EIGHT—met with Mrs.

Along Our Street

with Aunt Penny



My telephone table in the hall is a regular "catch-all" for books, magazines, letters and recipes. This morning, I noticed that the telephone receiver was propped up on some of these books and what-have-you. I'd just put it back on the hook when someone rang the doorbell.

It was a young man from the telephone company. He said one of the other parties on my party line had reported his telephone out-of-order. He explained that when one receiver was off the hook, it took the whole line out of service. When he asked me if I would check my telephone, I turned a deep shade of crimson and told him what I'd discovered.

I made a note then and there to put a sign up over the telephone. In big, bold letters, I wrote, "Always replace the receiver carefully after each call."
