3 Get $4,000 a Year FEPC Field Representative Jobs

PHILADELPHIA — Appointment of three field representatives was announced this week, by Judge Gerald F. Flood, chairman of the Philadelphia Fair Employment Practice Commission.

They are Clarence J. Barksdale, 116 N. 50th St.; Herbert W. Dean, 6908 Sherman St., and Mrs. Anna M. Moore, 3535 N. Gratz St.

Filling of these positions, which pay $4,010 per year, makes it possible for the commission staff to carry out a comprehensive program, Judge Flood said.

In a recent report to Mayor Bernard Samuel and City Council, the commission chairman disclosed that a total of 100 charges of unfair employment practices had been processed in the first seven months of operation.

65 Satisfactory Adjustments

"Satisfactory adjustments" had been made in 65 cases, Judge Flood said, 14 were disposed of because of withdrawal and other reasons and 30 are still pending.

"The most far-reaching part of our work is the educational job," Judge Flood wrote the Mayor. "The commission and its staff have been meeting with various groups including employers, unions, schools, religious bodies and civic organizations."

Over 14,000 letters and posters have been distributed among various groups, the report added. An itemized account of expenditures showed that for the months of November and December, the commission spent $8,432.67 of the $8,500 allotted it for the period.

Handicaps Cited

One of the handicaps cited by the commission was lack of office space, facilities and equipment. At present, the office is located in Room 305, City Hall.

Barksdale, a graduate of West Virginia State College, is a former school teacher. During the war, he was employed in the Philadelphia plant of the Allied Chemical and Dye Corporation.

He is president of the 50th St. Civic and Improvement Association; active in the NAACP, the Parkside YMCA and White Rock Baptist Church. His wife is a school teacher and part-time visitor with the Bureau for Colored Children.

Hoey Award Winner

Dean was formerly an assistant vice president of the Bell Telephone Company, in charge of industrial and employee relations, Mrs. McGarry, active in Catholic interracial movements, won the 1948 James J. Hoey Award for interracial justice.

Other members of the staff include Dr. Frank S. Loescher, executive director; Milo Manly, director of education and research; Dr. Eli L. Cooper, supervisor of field work; Alice Paparian, administrative assistant, Mrs. Doris Thomas and Mrs. Dorothy Fukutome, stenographers.

In addition to Judge Flood, other members of the commission are Louis B. F. Raveroft, secretary; Norman Blumberg, Dr. Tanner G. Duckrey and F. Curtis Davis.

Veteran, Wife Greet Bullets

RICHMOND — Reportedly on the threshold of a reconciliation with his estranged wife, Mrs. Linda Mae Certain, 46, John A. Certain, 22, walked into her apartment at 1816 Rosewood Ave. Saturday night to visit her, resulting in both being shot down.

The husband told police that when he walked into his wife's apartment, Arthur Mills, no age listed, who shared the apartment with Mrs. Certain and another young woman, shot him in the neck and leg, then pumped a bullet into Mrs. Certain's stomach.

Mrs. Certain, in an unconscious condition, was rushed to St. Philip Hospital in an ambulance following the shooting which took place about 9:15 p.m. It is not yet known how the husband got to the hospital, but he walked in and collapsed about 15 minutes after his wife had been admitted.

Bullets in Leg, Neck

Neither is known where he went after being shot by Mills, but it is presumed that he walked into the street in search of someone to carry him to the hospital and apparently succeeded after some considerable effort. He had bullets in his neck and left leg.

While Mrs. Certain was reported in "fair" condition at St. Philip Hospital Tuesday, her husband, a World War II veteran, who had been living at 124 W. Clay St., had been transferred to McGuire VA Hospital. His condition is reported to be satisfactory.

Interviewed at the hospital by police, Certain was quoted as saying that when he entered the apartment, he discerned that Mills and his wife were engaged in a dispute about her moving out and leaving the apartment to him (Mills).

He said that Mills, apparently angry about the situation, pulled a gun and shot him twice as he walked into the apartment (No. 2 at the Rosewood Ave. address), turned the pistol on Mrs. Certain and fled the scene. He was still at large late Tuesday evening.

The Certains, reportedly separated for some time, were said to have been on the verge of reconciliation. The wife was to give up the apartment which she shared with Mills and Miss Thonette Sutton and make her home with her husband.

Details as to the cause of the disagreement between Mrs. Certain and Mills have not been revealed by police, who reported that a careful search is being made in an effort to apprehend the gunman, but without success so far.

Okla. Law School Gets First Student

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. — A Negro graduate student of the University of Minnesota, T. M. Roberts, 34, is the first person to enroll at the Langston University law school in the state capital.

The segregated school was established following a U. S. Supreme Court decision last year which ruled that the State of Oklahoma provide equal law school facilities for Mrs. Ada Sipuel Fisher.

Contending that the facilities were not equal to those at the University of Oklahoma Law School at Norman, Mrs. Fisher refused to attend the new school and received her case which is now before the State Supreme Court.

Roberts, a waiter, enrolled at the law school on Monday. He was graduated from Langston University in 1938.

All the present time G. W. McLaurin, a former professor, is attending the University of Oklahoma where he is a graduate student in education. But because he is segregated apart from the remainder of the students, Mr. McLaurin has appealed his semi-segregation status to the Supreme Court.

MINISTERS' WIVES MEET

The Interdenominational Ministers' Wives' Alliance met Monday at the home of Mrs. C. C. Scott, 1903 N. Fifth St., with Mrs. A. B. James as principal speaker. Mrs. A. A. Lomax presided.
