

Q At the time of your grandmother's death was she married?

A She was a widow.

Q Did she leave any children surviving her?

A Yes, sir.

Q Will you name those children, please?

A The Children are: D. John Markey, who was a widower at the time of the filing of the bill of complaint in this case but who has married since the filing of the bill in this case, Carlotta Kinnamon. D. John Markey had two children: Myself, who is married, and my wife's name is Mary Alice Markey, and Mary Elizabeth Hooper, who is married and whose husband's name is J. Harold Hooper. We are all over 21 years of age and are all residents of Frederick County, Maryland.

Elinor M. Hughes, whose husband's name is Byron Hughes, both over 21 years of age and reside in New York City, State of New York.

My grandmother had another child, Mrs. Susan Fickling, whose husband is Thomas J. Fickling. They are both over 21 years of age and reside in Columbia, South Carolina.

Q Is that all the children of Mrs. Markey?

A That's all the living children.

Q Did she have any children who are now deceased?

A She had a child by the name of Betty and it died very young. I have no idea whether it was over 21 or not. It was long before my time. She is ^{not} mentioned in the bill of complaint.

Mrs. Fickling had a child, whose name is Mrs. Elinor Grove.

There was another son, Willard Hanshew Markey, who married Bertha Zimmerman.

Q Did Willard Hanshew Markey, a son of Mrs. Ida M. Markey, leave any children?

A Yes.

Q Name those, please.

A Willard Hanshew Markey, whose wife's name is Leona Palmer
