Miss Lucille J. Stevens Is Married to William Parson

Miss Lucille Jeanette Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sayler Stevens of 1624 N. Fulton Avenue, and William Parson of Philadelphia were married at the home of her parents, recently.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. J. Garnett, pastor of Morning Star Baptist Church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of French tulle with matching veil held by a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white satin covered bible marked with a corsage of white carnations.

She was attended by Miss Dorothy Stevens, maid of honor, and Miss Bernice Bey. Leroy Johnson was best man, and Alvin Fowlkes was usher.

Following the reception the couple left for a brief honeymoon in Philadelphia, and upon their return will be at home at 607 Cheraton Road, here.

Mrs. Parson is a graduate of Douglass High School and the St. Paul Institute of Nursing.

Out-of-town guests at the ceremony and reception were Mrs. Mary Gamble and Alfred Whitman of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Washington.

"Fashion is Fun" Says Miss Audrey Nicken

"Shopping used to be a headache to me," says beautiful Miss Audrey Nicken of 1515 McCulloh Street. "When I lived in Lancaster County, Virginia, 3 years ago, I rarely could find the exclusive fashions I wanted. And if I found one, I seemed to have enough cash to get everything I needed just when I needed it.

"But since I've moved to Baltimore," continues Miss Nicken, smiling happily, "fashion is fun. Hendin's ultra smart exclusive Hollywood Fashions are just what I've dreamed of wearing. And best of all, at Hendin's I don't need to pay cash . . . I can charge everything!"

One look at Miss Nicken's beautiful face, and you know without telling that she must be a photographer's model. In addition, she is a very capable ward cook at Provident Hospital, and loves to go bowling and dancing.

Miss Nicken has already chosen her new Spring outfit for Easter from Hendin's exciting collection of Hollywood Fashions, and urges all her friends to come in and see Hendin's stunning Spring line of new suits, dresses and offdresses. Remember, you can charge it at Hendin's.
