a North Ave. traffic pylon about 4:40 a.m.

Mr. Foster, who is survived by his wife, one child, and two stepchildren, was pronounced dead on arrival at Provident Hospital, some 20 minutes later.

The car, a 1949 Oldsmobile, was travelling east on North Ave. when it struck the pylon about 108 feet west of Fulton Ave. and was demolished.

Victim Son of Pastor

Mr. Foster's body will lie in state at the Charles Law Funeral Home, 802 Madison Ave., until this evening (Friday), when it will be shipped to his home in Zebulon, N.C., for burial on Sunday.

His father is the Rev. Jarvis Foster, Baptist minister, and his mother, Mrs. Lizzie B. Foster, school teacher, both of Zebulon.

Mr. Foster has lived in Baltimore some 18 years. He is survived here by his wife, Mrs. Alma Foster; son Milton Jr., 4, and stepchildren, Avalon Green, 13, and Natalie Green, 10.

Pleading guilty to the theft of more than $200 worth of clothing, the property of a former co-worker, Miss Florence Jackson, 22, of 1500 block Woodyear St. was held under $500 bail, Thursday, to await grand jury action.

Mrs. E. Bryant testified that the clothes were taken from her home at 2100 McCulloh St., during the day, Wednesday.

was caused by bullet wounds of the heart, lungs, liver and stomach.

2 Shots Fired, Story Revealed

A statement said to have been signed by Kelly was introduced by Sgt. Fred Koenig. It read, in part:

"I went to use the telephone and as I neared "Dumdum" (Weems), he started toward me saying, 'I think I'll take this.' I thought he was going to do something to me, so I shot and when he kept on coming I fired again."

According to the statement, Kelly then ran from the place, ditched the revolver in a hedge in the nearby housing project and visited several bars before going to Washington.

Mother Influences Surrender

He reportedly spent a few days there, but left because prices were too high and went to his mother's home in Philadelphia. She prevailed upon him to surrender, the statement disclosed.

As to the reason for carrying the revolver, Kelly allegedly told police he had just returned from a motor trip to Cleveland and had carried the weapon for protection.

Kelly was not represented by counsel during the hearing and made no statements. Magistrate Fitzpatrick ordered him held without bail to face grand jury action.

Rent Award Suit for $1230 Filed

Suit for treble damages amounting to $1230 was filed, Thursday, against a landlord by a tenant, who cited rent overcharges of $5 a week for 82 weeks.

Through his attorneys, Samuel Brown charges that Robert Wallace of 117 S. Bond St. rented him property at 15 S. Dallas St., in June, 1947, for $8 a week, despite maximum rent regulations designating $3 a week for the unit.

He points out further that he was threatened with eviction after Dec. 9 when he refused to pay the alleged overcharge. The suit also seeks to collect for attorneys' fees and court costs.

Ford Pickets Win Convert After 3 Years

merstein 2nd, and other national, lyricists, personalities who have long opposed the theatre's policy of segregating the races.

Mr. Hopkins, who lives at 808 N. Carrollton Ave., told the AFRO on Thursday that he "realized that it was bad" to attend the theatre while the jim-crow seating arrangements are in effect.

To Boycott Ford's

He said, in the future, he will attend stage shows at out-of-town theatres where there is no segregation.

The Pennsylvania Railroad chauffeur, who is a union member, explained his actions this way:

"I attended the theatre two or three times a year, although I am 100% in favor of the efforts of the NAACP in breaking down racial segregation in public places.

"I always feel bad when I go in because I am a native of Baltimore and know many of the people in the picket line personally. I do not plan to go there again."

Picketing Widely Supported

The NAACP - sponsored picket line observed its third anniversary in front of the Fayette St. theatre on Thursday. Attendance at the theatre has decreased considerably since the picket line was formed on Feb. 17, 1946.

The local effort has had nation-wide support. The Theatre Guild on Feb. 1, 1949, decided "not to include Baltimore as one of its stopping points." The Guild described the NAACP efforts as "most worthwhile and deserving."

Irving Berlin, famous composer, said in a letter dated Jan. 10, 1949, to the NAACP:

"I agree with Rodgers and Hammerstein, producers of "Annie Get Your Gun," and hope that something can be done to wipe out segregation of any kind in all theatres. You already know the stand we took in the National Theatre in Washington, and the result."

To Fight Biased Theatres

Producers Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein 2nd, said on Jan. 4, 1949, that they plan to use their efforts to "prevent future

Trailed by Civilian

A white civilian, M. C. Leitch of 3000 blk. Christopher Ave., trailed Talley's car Tuesday evening after watching him trying car doors and frightening the four off his own car in the 3500 block Walbrook Ave., he said.

A police car joined the pursuit, and arrested the quartet as the car was turning into a park, he added.

The youths denied that they were tampering with autos, and insisted that they were simply "out for a ride." The blackjack, it was said, belonged to Talley who was carrying it about for "protection."

Defends Segregation in American Theatres

Charles Boyer on Nov. 11, 1948 said he was in "full and complete sympathy with the cause" and only legal prohibitions prevented him from breaking his agreement to appear at the Ford Theatre.

Trouble Seeking Suspect Warned, Fined by Magistrate

A white man arrested for "looking for trouble" in the Pennsylvania Ave. section, was fined $2.45 Wednesday in Northwestern police court.

Magistrate Thomas Fitzpatrick told the man, Charles Row Jr., 28, of the 700 block North Ave., "We can't keep you off Pennsylvania Ave., but if you're looking for trouble, you're going to get it."

Officer Jerome Glass testified that before arresting Row, he had warned him against hanging about the neighborhood "trying to pick up girls."

Along Our Street

with Aunt Penny

Last week we had one of those dark, rainy days when it's good to hear the crackle of a warm fire in the fireplace, and perfect it, I thought, to chat with a few friends on the telephone.

A few calls would have been all right, but before I knew it, I was monopolizing our telephone party line.

So that it wouldn't happen again, I jotted down a list of "party-line points" to remember when using the telephone. At the top of the list, I wrote "Always allow some time between calls so that others have a chance to use the line." The rest of the points were little more than rules of common courtesy. Such things as not interrupting when someone's talking on the line, except to make an extremely urgent call . . . or giving up the line quickly when someone needs it in an emergency. All in all, it's the "little things" that make our party-line service good service.

Traffic Death Hearing Snarled; Car of Doom Driver Missing

When the chief witness to a fatal automobile accident failed to appear at a scheduled manslaughter hearing, Tuesday, the case was postponed indefinitely.

John E. Queen, 47, of 818 McKean Ave., is the man who wasn't there. Queen is charged with causing the death of Mrs. Hilda Johnson, 37, of 553 W. Lafayette Ave., on Jan. 24.

Police said Mrs. Johnson died of injuries received when she either fell or was thrown from a funeral limousine at Druid Hill Ave. and Biddle St. on Jan. 19.

Not Notified to Appear

Following an investigation, Northwestern District police charged Queen, who was subsequently released under $1000 bail pending a preliminary hearing, with guilt in the death.

The case was called, Tuesday afternoon, but the hearing was called off when, after a 30-minute wait, it was learned that Queen had not been notified to appear.

A similar hearing, the week before, was delayed several minutes while police went out to get one of the main witnesses.

15 Vets Register at Vocational School for Electrical Training

The wide open field of electrical work is beginning to attract a crowd.

Encouraged by an Urban League campaign, 15 men registered this week for the class in electrical training which began at 8 p.m. Monday, at Veterans Vocational School No. 456, Pennsylvania Ave. and Retreat St.

Authorized by the Board of Education, the classes will be conducted four nights a week, Monday through Thursday.

Vets Urged to Enroll Now

Pointing out the advantages of this training, which prepares the men to become journeymen electricians, Cecil H. Scott, Urban League industrial secretary, is urging war veterans who still have time under the GI Bill of Rights to enroll in the day classes.

Registrations for the day classes will be accepted at the school between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily.

Electrical work is a profitable field, Mr. Scott pointed out, inasmuch as there is only one colored master electrician now to serve the city's population of 250,000 colored persons, and qualified electrical workers earn an average of $1.85 to $2.25 an hour.

Enrolled Men Named

The men enrolled in the opening class are:

Paul F. Ingram, 600 W. Lafayette Ave.; Celester Hall, 1028 W. Franklin St.; Wright Dixon, 1307 Edmondson Ave.; Joseph Ellis, 503 Parrish St.; Harden Wooten, 2447 Druid Hill Ave.; Joseph Harris, 328 N. Fulton Ave.; Joseph Johnson, 1112 Druid Hill Ave.; William P. Carroll, 937 Linden Ave.;

New Duties Given 2 NPBC Officers

The recent wave of holdups, climaxed by the $30,000 robbery of a North Ave. bank, Tuesday, resulted in two police officers from each of the eight police boys' clubs being reassigned to street beats.

Two of the officers were Milton O. Gardner and Jerome Troy who have been assigned to the Northwest Police Boys' Club since it opened in May, 1946.

Officers Harry Scott, director, and Walker S. Lewis Jr., now are carrying on the operation of the club located at Calhoun and Gold Sts.

Four Suspects Arrested

The series of holdups and robberies so baffled police authorities that the time-off leaves of detectives were temporarily halted and all available patrolmen assigned to special duty.

Late Thursday, Western district police arrested four suspects in connection with the bank robbery.

IT'S CAMELS FOR ME TOO, TYLER!...EVER SINCE I MADE THE 30-DAY MILDNESS TEST!
In a recent test of hundreds of people who smoked only Camels for 30 days, noted throat specialists, making weekly examinations, reported
NOT ONE SINGLE CASE OF THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS
Smoke Camels, and only Camels, for 30 days... See how mild a cigarette can be!
You've read what these noted throat specialists reported in the recent coast-to-coast test of Camel Mildness..."not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking Camels."
And the smokers in the test—men and women alike—smoked an average of 1 to 2 packs a day.
But make your own personal Camel 30-Day Test! Put Camels to the test in your "T-Zone" (T for taste, T for throat). See if your taste doesn't cheer for that rich, full Camel flavor. See how your throat welcomes Camel's cool, cool mildness.
According to a Nationwide survey:
MORE DOCTORS SMOKE CAMELS THAN ANY OTHER CIGARETTE
Doctors smoke for pleasure, too! And when three leading independent research organizations asked 113,597 doctors what cigarette they smoked, the brand named most was Camel.
