

when the two tracts were conveyed to the said Everett G. Moxley, said grantee ask this respondent about the use of the house and lot, and was told by this respondent that he, the grantee, could occupy the house as long as this respondent did not need it, if he would pay the taxes, insurance and keep the improvements in good repair

And having fully answered said bill of complaint, this respondent prays to be hence dismissed with his reasonable costs.

Respectfully submitted,

Solicitor for Respondent.

Service of the above answer and a copy left with me this 16th day of November, 1953.

Solicitor for Complainants.

Filed November 16, 1953