

A My memory fails. I think it was Horace Alexander. I will have to look back on my records.

(Mr. DeLauter) Well, they are filed in the Orphans Court?

A Yes, sir.

Q They will speak for themselves.

TO THE GEN. INT. by Examiner Motter:

A Nothing further.

(Signature waived)

(Mr. Clapp) We would like to call Mr. James Moxley as an adverse witness.

JAMES E. MOXLEY, the Defendant, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Clapp:

Q Your name is James E. Moxley? A. Yes, sir.

Q And you are a brother of Everett Moxley and Mrs. Compher and some others who have testified here today?

A Yes.

Q How old are you, Mr. Moxley?

A Sixty-three.

Q Where do you live now? A. Deerwood, Maryland.

Q Where is that?

A About two miles this side of Rockville, Maryland.

Q In Montgomery County? A. Yes.

Q How long have you lived there?

A About three or four years.

Q Where did you live before that?

A Washington Grove.

Q Washington Grove, Montgomery County?

A Yes.

Q About how long did you live there?

A Well, I don't just remember when we moved there.
