

A I got $1500. I sold the two pieces for $1500.

Q Tracts A and C don't join, do they?

A No, one is on one side, the 2 acres; and 3 acres on the other.

Q Tract B is in between? A. Yes.

Q If a man owned Tract C and didn't own Tract B, Tract C wouldn't be any good to him, would it?

A No, you couldn't get to it.

TO THE GEN. INT. by Examiner Motter:

A Nothing more at this time.

NOON RECESS

HORACE F. WILLIAMS, recalled by Mr. Clapp, deposes and says further:

Q Mr. Williams, you have already been sworn. I show you this aerial photograph and ask you what it is.

A It is a photograph of a section of Frederick County including Dickerson Station, Monocacy River, and includes the entire property in dispute.

Q Does that accurately represent that property with respect to its relationship to other properties, the river and so forth? A. Yes, sir.

Q And taking a fountain pen, Mr. Williams, will you mark on there, first, the road from Buckeystown to Dickerson marked Route 28 and will you at each end here on the map designate which direction is Buckeystown and which is Dickerson?

(Witness complies)

Q Now, Mr. Williams, starting at Buckeystown, will you take your fountain pen and trace along that road how you get to this property that is now in dispute? Just draw a line along where
