Holloway-King Vows Spoken

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Beautifully solemnized Saturday evening in the Fisk Chapel was the marriage of Miss Estelle Marie Holloway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mile Holloway, to Roy J. King of Glen Allen, Va.

The Rev. T. M. Brumfield, former professor of Religion at Fisk University, read the marriage vows of the double-ring ceremony which was preceded by nuptial music given by Arthur Croley, organist of Fisk University.

White flowers and tapers combined with palms decorated the altar.

Wears Satin

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin dress embroidered in seed pearls with a marquisette yoke. The edging of her ivory satin mitts was of seed pearls also. The full skirt terminated in a semi-train. The finger tip length veil of imported bridal illusion was attached of a cornet of matching satin and seed pearls. Her arm bouquet was of white gardenias.

Miss Marquenta Jones, of Nashville, was maid of honor. Mrs. Ona Margules, of Caro, Michigan, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Camille Patterson and Miss Weslia Holloway, of Nashville, Miss Willette Murrell, of Miami, Florida, and Miss Carolyn Parker, of Jacksonville, Florida. James Bowles was best man. Ushers were Charles Battle, Harold Ballard, Marshall Johnson, LeMoyne Smith, and John Wade.

Reception Held

Mr. and Mrs. Holloway, parents of the bride, gave a reception at their home, 907 18th Avenue North, immediately following the ceremony.

Paterson Pair Wed at Ft. Dix

FORT DIX, N.J.— Miss Betty Free, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Free, 119 Governor St., Patterson, N.J., and Private Roland Johnson, son of William Johnson, 67 Carroll St., Patterson, were married on Sunday, July 9, at Fort Dix.

Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Elmer P. Gibson, regimental chaplain of the 365th Infantry Regiment, a unit of the famous 9th Infantry Division, officiated at the ceremony solemnized at 4:30 o'clock in Post Chapel No. 3.

The bride, wearing a street length dress of pink organdie applique, was given in marriage by her father, William Free. Her sister, Mrs. Marian Oliver, of 119 Govenor St., was her matron of honor. Miss Marion Lewis, 9 Governor St., was bridesmaid.
