Breast-o-Chicken Now in Multi-Colored Cases

Designed as handy ready-made displays, which can be used in any grocery department to push related items sales, cases for Breast-O-Chicken Tuna now come in three brilliant colors — red, blue and green.

"Just set 'em up and they're easy to sell tuna," says the packer, Westgatebun Harbor, of San Diego, Calif. The new cases are the latest step in Breast-O-Chicken's moar hoar moar mouh campaign, which includes a schedule in AFRO-AMERICAN.

Red cases are used for white meat albacore, blue for Breast-O-Chicken light meat, fancy solid pack, and green for light meat chunk pack. Each case displays the trade name in prominent white letters, and tells also the style of pack.

Beach Residents Dedicate Trees

Dedicatory ceremonies of the planting of Mimosa trees in memory of Sergeant Richard Tyson Baker and Sergeant William A. Taylor were held at Columbia Beach, Shadyside, Md., recently.

The Mimosa trees are placed along the water front at Columbia Beach.

The presentation was made by Mrs. May Tyson Baker and acceptance by Edward Hackett. Dr. E. French Tyson made the dedicatory address and Mrs. Mae Wright Downs was mistress of ceremonies.

Other participants included William N. Parrott who gave an organ prelude, Dr. G. Lake Imes, invocation; Dr. Smallwood Williams, the dedicatory prayer; the Rev. Charles V. Trigg, the benediction; and Joseph J. Hamm, remarks.

Debonairs Sing

Augmenting Mr. Parrott's Playing were vocal numbers by the Debonairs Quartet.

Mrs. Baker was chairman of the committee arranging the program, and Mrs. Downs, vice chairman.

Memorial committee members were:

W. H. Whisonant, vice chairman; A. L. Jones, chairman; F. Hackett, Fritz Minor, James Crowner, W. W. Gwaltney, the Rev. G. T. Long, P. W. Webster, T. J. Bemby, P. Harris, R. L. Green, Miss A. Blaylock, Mrs. A. H. Hawkins, John Hampton, Dr. P. T. Johnson, Mrs. G. Hamm, Mrs. E. Phillips, A. Smith.

Charles Pinderhughes, Mrs. B. Anthony, Mrs. P. E. Minkins, Mrs C. W. Greene and John Gray.

LES BONNE FILLES—were entertained by Mrs. Agnes Cooper, this week.

Prizes at pokeno went to Mrs. Earl Hawkins, Mrs. Nettie Baskerville and Mrs. Eveiyn Douglass.

Miss Violet Winder Wed To Dr. Winston

with Lula Jones Garrett

Wearing a ballerina-length frock of pale blue lace, and carrying the prayer book which her mother carried at her first communion, Violet Winder became the bride of Dr. Leslie Winston, sunday.

The bride's accessories, including her maline picture hat, kid sandals and short lace gloves, were in pink, and her mother's prayer book was marked with orchids.

The daughter of Mrs. Catherine Winder and the late Arthur J. Winder, she was given in marriage by her brother, Woodrow Winder, and had her sister, Mrs. Inetta Gross, as matron of honor.

Mrs. Gross, gowned in navy blue embroidered organdy, wore a matching picture hat and carried a nosegay of garden flowers. The other attendant, Mrs. Lelia Baskerville, wore melon lace and a juliet cap of silver sequins trimmed with the melon net. Her corsage, too, wer garden flowers in a nosegay.

Dr. Winston has as best man, Lester Harris of Tappahannock, Va.

A reception followed the ceremony.

Dr. Winston is the son of the late Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Dabney Winston of Tappahannock, and is at present completing an internship at the Jersey City Medical Center.

Out-of-towners here for the ceremony and reception included:

Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Winston of Boston, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Dabney Winston of New York City, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Winston of North Carolina; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Jeter of Richmond, Va.

Mrs. Alma Hilliard of Arkansas, Miss Lauretta Edwards of Mobile, Ala., and Dr. and Mrs. Turke Lewis of Washington.

Other guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Peco, Osborne Carroll, Ellsworth Turner, Kenneth Stotts:

Mesdames Etta Davis, Alice West, Mary Logan, Lula Garrett, Hattie Douglass, Henrietta Britt, Grace Harris, Ruth Shipley, Mary Fernandez, Genesta Lane,

Mesdames Estaliena Showes, Mary Maiden, Anethia Williams, Estella Gross, Shirley Smith, Cecelia Frazier, Ellen Crawford;

Misses Constantia Winder, Catherine Winder, Edna Nash, Betty Williams, Agnes Yates, Regina Scott, Virginia Whellen, Mildred Collins, Daisy Chase and Terry Smith;

Earl Britt, Calvin Douglass, Robert Brown, Thomas Holland, Charles Rhodes, John Dorsey, Samuel Smith, Charles Foster, John Gross and William Cruise.

MRS. BURCH INTRODUCED

Marian Banfield had a baker's dozen of her friends in Thursday afternoon to meet her house guest, Rachel Burch, Chicago school marm, who is summering here while her husband, Capt. Leonard Burch, is studying at Fort Jolabird.

The guest of honor enhanced her hazel eyes and blond curls with a frock of orchid organdy, matching her accessories to the frock; and both she and the hostess (in black chiffon) wore corsages of orchids. The other girls donned cool cottons and attractive prints, sipped tall drinks with their party sandwiches and thoroughly enjoyed the hour of becoming acquainted with the visitor.

About were:

Harriet White, Lydia Mussenden, Vashti Christmas, Jeanette Christmas, Pauline Watts, Lula Patterson, Ruth Shipley, Betty Bundara, Catherine Adams, Verda Welcome, Helen Lee, Sonora Reckling, and Xaveria McDonald.

PEREGRINATORS

Come August and the home front will be practically deserted while the natives hie themselves to one or another convention about the country.

Vivian Chamberlain, national chairman of the convention committee for Delta igma Theta, will leave early (August 1) for Los Angeles to set up that sorority's national conclave. Following will be Pearl Wilson (and her mother, Mrs. Coles) and Ellen Fisher, delegates from Epsilon Sigma chapter here; and chapter members Ruth Rosedom, Lydia Mussenden, incoming chapter president; Olivia Dixon (who is motoring out with husband, Walter) and Lucille Johnson.

And practically the entire dental colony will proceed to Chicago, where the national session of that profession is being augmented by the national sessions of the Dental Auxiliary. A drawing card, of course, is that the town boasts of having the national president, Mrs. Bruce Alleyne.

So off to that meet will go Doctors and Mesdames Chalmers Hairston, Robert Hackett, Charles Watts, Maurice Doles, Irris Walker, and Edward McDaniels, Jr.; and Doctors James Whyte, Frank Sykes, John Woodland, and Roy C. Johnson.

Mrs. Spencer Dobson, first vice president of both the Baptist Ministers' Wives Alliance and the Interdenominational Ministers' Wives Alliance of this city, represented both groups when the National Interdenominational Ministers' Wives' Association met in Cleveland, Ohio, last week.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Albert Harden and daughter, Katharine, spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Woodhouse at their Catonsville home. The Hardens were en route to New York, Boston and Oak Bluffs, where they will spend their vacation.

Captain and Mrs. Leonard Underwood (Agnes Pryor) came over from California, spent the week here having a high time while being partied by numerous friends, and jaunted to New York for the week end.

Mrs. A. M. Wortham of Detroit, Mich., who came to Philadelphia to attend a meeting of the Woman's Mite Missionary Society of the AME Church, will return to her home, today, (Friday) after having spent some time with her sisters, Mrs. E. E. Tyler of Philadelphia and Mrs. J. Arnett Frisby and Mrs. John W. Woodhouse of this city.

Mrs. Ardelia R. Galmore is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Irene Smith in Huntington, W.Va. Mrs. Cornelia G. Poole was a delegate to the Ushers Union in Little Rock, Ark.

Edward and Charles Dennis, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dennis, Sr. are in Brooklyn, N.Y. visiting their aunt, Mrs. Cora Corbin. They will be off to Canada ere their return. Mr. and Mrs. James T. Harris, and daughter, Mrs. Carolyn M. Robinson (she's of the town police department) are just back from a motor trip including Niagara Falls, N.Y., Dresden, Ontario, where they visited relatives; and Detroit and Cleveland, Ohio, where they attended the opening of the Baptist World Congress.

Club Sandwich O' Tuna

For Easy Summer Eating

Delicious Tuna Club Sandwich Perks Up Summer Appetites

You can perk up jaded summer appetites with this club sandwich o' tuna, which combines bacon, tomato and chunk pack tuna in a sandwich that you can build in a minute or two.

It's a satisfying but not too hearty, dish for those days when you want to avoid cooking a heavy meal. Try it soon. You'll find Breast-O' Chicken tuna in American Stores.

You'll need:
24 slices bread
1 tin Breast-O'-Chicken tuna
3 tablesp. mayonnaise
12 slices bacon
olives, ripe or stuffed 12 slices tomato
Dressing, parsley and pickle chips.

Toast Bread on One Side

Toast one side of 12 slices of bread and then cover the untoasted sides with tuna that has been mixed with mayonnaise.

Cover with a slice of untoasted bread; put two slices of tomato and lettuce on this plain slice, and add another piece of bread. Cover this slice with strips of broiled bacon and atop it all place another toasted slice.

Cut diagonally, fastening together with toothpicks. Garnish with parsley, olives and pickle chips. Recipe serves six.
