PENNSYLVANIANS WIN TITLES IN NET PLAY

George Stewart Captures Pennsy Open Tournament

Southpaw Net Star Beats Johnson in Four Sets for 4th Straight Win

PHILADELPHIA

George Stewart, the broad-smiling southpaw from Panama, regained a strong bid by California's Oscar Johnson to win the men's singles title for the fourth straight year at the Pennsylvania Open tennis tournament on the Germantown YMCA courts last week.

Playing in 90-degree heat, Stewart was forced to go all out to down the Los Angeles City College student, 10-8, 8-6, 3-6 and 9-7.

The contest was featured by outstanding shots and there were many outbursts of applause from the fair-sized crowd of spectators.

Stewart, who was eliminated in the Nationals last year by Johnson in a sensational upset started strong and for a short period it seemed as though he would duplicate the easy triumph he scored over Johnson in the Mall tournament in Washington, D.C., two weeks ago.

Johnson Rallies

But after Stewart had won the first three games, Johnson rallied and finally went ahead, six games to five. Thereafter, they exchanged games until Stewart broke Johnson's service and went on to capture the set.

Johnson also led in the second set, but again allowed Stewart to catch up and win. In the third set the story was different as Stewart was easily beaten.

In the fourth set, Johnson came within one game of deadlocking the match, leading at one point, five games to three. But Stewart, further demonstrating his ability to come from behind, tied the games at five-all and went on to win.

Two Win Doubles

He and Johnson later teamed to win the doubles title by downing Raymond Jackson, Philadelphia postal employee, and Clyde Freeman, Washington, D.C., colleagues, 6-3, 6-3, 6-3.

With Althea Gibson bypassing the circuit for the so-called "major" tournaments the battle for the vacated women's singles title was wide open with top-seeded Mrs. Ethel Freeman winning top honors.

Mrs. Freeman, brown-haired and a good volleyer, downed Mrs. Dolores Davis, a fellow Baltimorean 6-4, 6-2, for the title.

In the mixed doubles Mrs. Freeman and William Jones, also of Baltimore, were beaten in the final by Vernon Morgan, New York, and Mrs. Jane Hudlin, St. Louis 6-4, 6-2.

Philadelphians Win

Philadelphians, making one of the best showing in years, won the veterans, junior, boy's and girl's singles titles.

Al Bishop Pennsylvania closed singles champion, made effective use of his backhand as he wrested the veteran's crown from Richard Hudlin, St. Louis school teacher, 6-2, 6-4.

Rudolph Chessy Winston, former Central High net star who plans to enter Haverford College next fall, upset Harold Freeman, the defending champion from Washington, to win the junior title, 6-4, 6-4, 7-5.

The boy's singles championship was won by Lloyd Houston 15-year-old Southeast Catholic High School student, who turned back Warren Wood, Baltimore, 7-5 6-0 in the final.

Kay Queen had an easy time downing Abbie Johnson for the girl's singles title 6-2, 6-1.

Midget Teams Set Championship Playoff

In the Midget League, Eastside defeated the Somerset Rockets to tie for first place. Beginning Monday, these two teams will meet to decide the league championship.

A two out of three game series will be played with each game beginning at 2 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Post Office Upsets Eagles as Title Play-Offs Open

An inspired Post Office nine upset the favored Westside Eagles, 10-8, last Sunday as the Monumental Unlimited Baseball League of the Bureau of Recreation opened its city championship play-offs.

Dolphin A. C.'s, defending city champions, had tough going against rugged Eastside C. C. Dennis Mello's Eastsiders, champs in 1948, went into the final inning with a one run edge.

Dolphin managed to tie up the game at 5-5, but protested an umpire's decision on a pick-off play by O. Brown, so vigorously that Umpire Edward Armstrong forfeited the game to Eastside because of unsportsmanlike conduct.

His decision was upheld by Deputy Commissioner Theodore R. Brown in a protest meeting this week.

Dolphins vs. Eagles

The Dolphins and Westside Eagles will seek to get back into the thick of the fight this Sunday. Eastside will face the Westside Eagles at 1:00 p.m. and the Post Office will be up against Dolphin A. C. at 3:30 p.m., both games on Druid Hill No. 2.

Victories for the Dolphins and Eagles will throw the second round-robin play into a four team tie. It appears that the championship may not be decided until the final games are played and there is strong likelihood that an extra game will be needed.

In the consolation single elimination tournament the Westside Royals advanced on the strength of a forfeit victory over the Bluebirds. Bob Summers' Westside Royals will meet Woody Gray's Cobra's in a semi-final tussle at 1:00 p.m. on Druid Hill Park No. 1. Howell's Barber Institute will go against Willie Holland's youthful Arundel aggregation on this diamond at 3:30 p.m.

Take First Round

Richard Dowell's Jr. Dolphins squeezed by the Jr. Black Caps, 3-2, at Druid Hill Park last Friday to take first round honors in a play-off contest in the Monumental Intermediate loop. The Dolphin Jrs. and Jr. Black Caps are currently tied for first place in the second round play.

The Dolphin Jrs. coasted to a 9-1 win over the Northwestern Police Boys Club Tuesday at Druid Hill Park. The Golden Eagles vs. Jr. Black Caps game at Carroll Park was halted because of darkness in the final inning with the Eagles ahead, 9-7. The game will be completed at a later date.

The Dolphin Jrs. will meet the Jr. Black Caps on Monday, August 7, at Druid Hill Park No. 2 and the Golden Eagles play the Dolphin Jrs. at Clifton Park, August 9, in key games next week.
