"I'd put him away for about two months," she added.

The boyfriend, Wylie McCoy, 20, of the 300 block N. Bruce St., was given a suspended sentence of $25 and costs in Western Police Court, Thursday. He said he had kept company with Miss Williams for about a year and a half and as far as he knew, she was still his girl friend.

Miss Williams said McCoy struck her on Fremont Ave., forced her into a cab, and took her to Cory admitted hitting her, but denied that she went to his house under duress.

In warning them against seeing one another, Magistrate Romano advised the erstwhile sweethearts to "go fish for somebody else."

Herb Jones May Head Elks

Expected to Assume Exalted Ruler's Work

WASHINGTON

According to rumors drifting from the smoked-filled rooms where strategy is planned Herbert E. Jones, Grand Esteemed Loyal Knight of Elks, will take over the duties of ailing Grand Exalted Ruler J. Finley Wilson when the antlered herd converges on Chicago this month.

Mr. Jones, who rose to his present post after serving as exalted ruler of Washington's Columbia Lodge 25 and other posts in the Grand Lodge will, if all goes according to plan, be eased into the post of Grand Leading Knight which is practically the vice-presidency of the order.

He will succeed Joseph Brown of New York, the incumbent who is reported suffering from impaired eyesight and is not expected to stand for re-election.

James Kelley of Birmingham, the grand treasurer, who some expected to relinquish his present duties, the rigors of leadership are said to hold no charms for him.

Both William C. Hueston, grand educational director, and Perry W. Howard, grand legal advisor, also prefer to retain their present posts in the cabinet.

Mr. Wilson, according to rumors, will not vacate his post, but most of the arduous duties of his office will be delegated to the younger shoulders of Mr. Jones who has a high popularity rating with all of the lodges.

Possibility of 'Dark Horse'

Unless some unknown dark horse comes to the fore within the next few weeks, the plan of succession is practically cut and dried and only awaits ratification from the rank and file.

Mr. Jones, who is at present employed in the Government, is rumored planning to retire so that he can devote his full time to the duties of his office.

to attend the convention

According to reports out of Chicago, already every hotel and rooming house is already booked solidly and the housing committee is hard-pressed for accommodations.

Youths Fear Use of Atomic Bomb

WASHINGTON

Grave alarm over the usurpation of talk about the use of the atomic bomb has been expressed to the United Nations by a group of local youth leaders affiliated with a number of youth organizations.

In a letter, mailed to UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie, the youths declared:

"We join in this statement in order to save humanity from the horrors of a atomic death.

First User to Be "Scorned"

"We call upon you and the United Nations not to give sanction to the use of this inhuman weapon and to warn all nations that whoever may in the future be the first to use the atomic bomb shall be scorned by all peoples."

The following signatures were attached to the letter:

Joseph Pikus, YMHA; Bernard Shiffman, YMHA; Robert Leake, YMCA; Huffman Harris, Essex West Hudson Achievers Assoc.; Irwin Miller, Stephen Wise Chapter, American Jewish Congress; William Davis, Essex County Youth Council;

Clean Block Mail Bag

Dear AFRO: As the Clean Block Campaign is about to come to a close I wish to thank everyone who helped to make Baltimore a healthier and cleaner city in which to live.

I am very proud of the captains, workers, and neighbors who co-operated so nicely to get their blocks in good shape.

The Clean Blockers in East Baltimore have made a decided improvement in their homes. They have cleaned alleys, back yards, planted flowers and painted steps and woodwork.

On several occasions, I made a tour of 70 blocks in the north sector. I talked to the captains, workers and neighbors. I had all kinds of questions popped at me, and I answered them to the best of my ability.

There are so many pretty blocks in East Baltimore, that I should like to suggest that if you really want to see a clean block just drive through this section of the city.

Of course, there are a few blocks where the neighbors refused to cooperate. However, I hope that when the next campaign comes around, they will unite for an all out Clean Block Campaign.

Y.—Miss Vivian Ford, pictured above, owner of the Vivian Ford Shop, 776 St. Nicholas Avenue, New York City, stated that she used full strength Kotalko for a period of six weeks on one of her customers, whose hair was dry, cracking off, and brittle due to lack of sufficient natural hair oils. Among 47 Top Blocks Vying for $100 Prize in 16th Campaign

Try and Pick the Winner

Two weeks remain before the winners in the 16th annual AFRO Clean Block Campaign will be announced. A committee of judges will tour the top 20 blocks and arrange them in order for prizes, sometime after Aug. 15.

The public is invited this week by clean block managers to submit its list of the top 20 blocks to the AFRO in the order that they think the judges will put them. Let's see how good a judge you are.

These 20 blocks should be selected from the 47 blocks which received a rating of "A" this week.

Two Reasons Cleans Block Judges Will Have a Hard Time

Hundreds of Baltimoreans have made nice comments about this 1400 block of E. Preston St., at left, which is on the No. 21 trackless trolley line. Both sides of this street look very pretty. Even the empty house in the 2000 block Hunter St., has window boxes and freshly painted steps and woodwork. They, too, are in the running for the top $100 prize.

Evangelist Moves Tent Services Indoors Here

Bishop Paul Tucker, radio evangelist, who formerly held tent services in the 1300 block Whatcoat St., is now conducting religious services indoors at 1 Asquith and Orleans St.

His new location is called the Good Samaritan Holiness Temple Church.

47 Clean Blocks Vying for 1st Prize in Campaign registered in the campaign. Only blocks are eligible to compete for the $100 first prize while the housing project courts compete for a $25 first prize.

A block can receive a total of 125 points. Last year's winners of the two $60 first prizes, 1600 Milter St. and 1300 Ashland Ave. got 123 and 122 points respectively.

Final Judging on Aug. 31.

The final judging of the blocks will begin Tuesday and run until Aug. 31. The clean block closing exercises will be held at the Met Theatre Sept. 1.

The third and last honor roll will be published in the AFRO next Friday. A block must get on the honor roll at least once in order to win a prize.

The honor roll indicates that a block had finished three-fourths of its cleaning and painting and that over half of the residents have flowers growing in window boxes, flower pots or in yards.

On the present rating sheet there were only five blocks in East Baltimore to get "C." Some 27 received a "B" and 39 got a rating of "A."

Northwest Ratings

In Northwest Baltimore there were nine "A's", 20 "B's", 19 "C's", and eight "D's."

A block received a rating of "A" if all of the painting of woodwork, chairs, benches and doorways was completed, if the streets and alleys were clean and if there were sufficient flowers in yards, window boxes or flower pots.

The "B" mark went to those which had not completed their painting, had dirty doorways or lacked enough flowers.

The "C" blocks were those which had made some effort to clean and paint, but had failed to get the co-operation of all of the residents in the block.

The "D's" are those which have done nothing to improve their area.

Higher Mark Possible.

These ratings will of course change when the final inspection starts. Most of the "C" and "B" blocks still have a chance to get a higher mark.

Many blocks were marked down because they had failed to turn in their victory reports.

Clean block inspectors made no comments on the "A" blocks since they were considered ready for final inspection.

Here's what they had to say about the rest of the blocks to help them raise their marks.

900 MYRTLE AVE. You have painted your woodwork, what about doors, steps and window sills?

900 BENNETT PL. See if you can do anything with the house on the corner. You also have steps and vestibules to clean or paint.
