Recreation Notes

The Bureau of Recreation's playground track and field meet will meet at the Washington team in the first of an annual series at Druid Hill Park at 5 p.m., Aug. 15.

Events for boys and girls in the midget, junior and intermediate classes are include in the schedule—Milton Q. Dorsey—Democratic Flying Squad is awarding a trophy to the winning team.

Druid Swimmers Take Meet

Turning the tables on Chick Webb swimmers, Druid Hill pool swimmers won both the junior and senior division of the first municipal swimming meet, which is to be an annual event.

The Eastsiders missed the junior title when a member of their 115-pound relay team was disqualified.

In the senior class the Druid swimmers had things pretty much their own way, winning all events except the fancy diving, which John Hargrove of the YMCA took by a wide margin.

Over 150 swimmers participated in the events. Though ending up in fourth place, the Cherry Hill swimmers put in a splendid performance.

Afro Upsets Softy Champs

Building Trade Defeat Opens League Race

The Afro-American Bombers blew the Bureau of Recreation's Industrial and Trade School softball race wide open by hammering out a 6-5 win over the defending champion Building Trade School, to hand the champs their first loss of the year.

By whipping the champs, the Bombers kept the race open for five other teams.

New York Technical bounced Morgan School of Watchmaking 12-3 to dim the Watchmakers hopes. Crown Cork and Seal and Domino Sugar took forfeit wins from the Tailoring Institute and Hutzler Brothers

Shakeup Likely

The league standings should see quite a change after the busy schedule this weekend. Afro meets Domino Sugar on Saturday, 6 p.m., at Druid Hill Bowl; Building Trade takes on Tailoring Institute at 11 a.m., and replays a game against New York Technical Sunday in the Druid Hill Bowl; Morgan Watchmakers get their big chance against Crown Cork and Seal, currently unbeaten, at 4 p.m., in the Druid Hill Bowl, and New York Technical faces Hutzler Brothers at 11 a.m., in the Bowl.

The Finos and Athenians battled for ten innings before the Finos could slip across the deciding tally and take the important West End Bowl Industrial League contest, 4-3, Sunday at Druid Hill School 122. The win kept the Finos hopes of tying with the Mohawks for second round honors alive. A victory over the Spartans this Sunday will give George Young's stalwarts a

The Mohawks clinched at least a tie by taking their fourth victory from Mt. Winans Eagles by forfeit. The Toppers-Sparks game was not played and has been cancelled.

The Mohawks, Toppers and Finos who finished the first round in a three-way tie will commence their playoffs next week. A meeting of managers will be held Sunday at the Bureau of Recreation for playoff drawings.

In Independent Club League competition, the Grenadiers of Sollers Point forfeited to Western Maryland Dairy A. C. and the Churchhill Ambassadors beat the Richmond Town Clippers 14-0. The Churchill Ambassadors and Western Maryland Dairy A. C. will settle their dispute for second place this Saturday, August 12, 6:00 p.m. at Druid Hill Park Bowl.

The East Baltimore League race has boiled down to a crucial contest between Clarence Burn's first round winning Lexington Sportsmen and James Wheatley's Caravans. The two unbeaten nines are stated to settle the second story on Monday, August 14, 6:15 p.m. at Clifton Park diamond 12.

The second round championship in the Cross-City Intermediate League will be decided this week (Thursday, August 10) when the Northwestern Police Boys Club meets the Jr. Red Dogs in a playoff. Both wound up their second round schedule with three games won and one lost. The Police Boys Club won the first round crown.

The Mid City Intermediate second round crown will also be decided this week when the first place champion Crimo Tigers meet the Jr. Finos on Monday, August 14. The Tigers and Jr. Finos are tied for the league lead with three victories and no defeats.

Junior Bears Begin Grid Drills at Bowl

A large turnout was on hand for the first practice of the Junior Harlem Bears last week at Druid Hill Park.

The team drills twice weekly—Thursday and Saturday—at the Druid Hill Bowl, beginning at 4 o'clock and working until 6:30 p.m.

New members and candidates will be accepted at the club's first regular meeting Monday at the Lexington Recreation Center. In order to engage in football or basketball, candidates must be 21 years of age and under, and must be residents of this city.

Crown Cork Blanks

The Crown Cork and Seal softball team defeated Tailor's Institute, 9-0, in an Industrial Trades School League game on Sunday at Druid Hill Park.

Batteries were Ellis and Jenniffer for the winners; Jones and Byrd for the losers.

Colts-Bears Battle

—Northwestern Police Boys Club is among those to be benefitted from the receipts of the annual Variety Club professional football game, to be held Aug. 24, at the Memorial Stadium.

The game will pit the Baltimore Colts against the Chicago Bears in the latters' only appearance here during the 1950 gridiron season. It is to be a night affair with kickoff time set at 8:30 o'clock.

Reverse Jim Crow

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—The State of Alabama in general and city of Birmingham in particular, took to the reverse in enforcing its jim-crow regulations last week.

Three white players who are members of the Chicago American Giants, were barred from participating in a Negro American League game between their club and the Birmingham Barons. They are Lou Chirban, Frank Drill, infielders, and Stanley Mierko, utility.

Policemen accosted Manager Ted (Double duty) Radcliffe at the gate as his team arrived, and told him the State laws would not permit the three players taking part in the game.

Chirban, Dyll and Mierko were ordered out of their uniforms and made to watch the game as spectators from the white section of the stands.

George Lee Meets Wilson for Title

WASHINGTON

Caddy George Lee, having dethroned the defending Army-Navy champion in the semi-finals, is set to face Sammy Wilson in the championship playoff, Monday, at Arlington, Va.

Lee, a slender lad and dark horse in the tourney, defeated Melvin Newman, defending caddy champion, one up over 19 holes on Monday. His competitor, baby Wilson, reached the finals by defeating Louis Summerville, 2 up over 18 holes.

Old Dominion Classic Plans Near Completion

RICHMOND

Plans for the second annual Old Dominion Classic to be held in Richmond, Va., on Oct. 12 featuring the football squads of North Carolina College and West Virginia State, were nearly completed last week.

William A. Powell, Washington attorney, is president of the sponsoring association, which includes Ernest Dickson, Washington, treasurer and Dr. Felix Brown of Richmond, assistant treasurer.
