In Our Churches

At a special meeting called by the Rev. W. N. Edwards, pastor of the Union Bethel AME Church the trustees voted to paint and repair the interior of the church. Albert Rodgers was elected committee chairman, Francis Dorsey, assistant chairman and James Johnson, secretary.

The Climbing Ivy of the Douglas Memorial Community Church is planning a dinner, Sunday June 23. The Women's Club will sponsor their Annual Garden Party at the Church House July 15. The Floral Circle is planning for their outing which is to be Thursday, July 19. The first Sunday in July, they will serve a dinner. The Rev. M. C. Bascom is pastor.

The Five Kings of Harmony of Richmond will appear at the First Mt. Calvary Church at Fulton Ave. and Wheeler St. at 3:30 p.m. The Rev. W. L. Pitts is pastor. They will also appear at the Gospel Tabernacle at 8 p.m. on Dallas St.

At Methodist Meeting

The Rev. Levi Miller St., Mt. Zion Church, told the audience at the Methodist Ministers meeting Wednesday afternoon how he conducted the financial affairs of his church without paid entertainment.

One method employed, he stated, was that he made personal sacrifices for the cause. A second method, he added was to inform the church on the financial statements. Mr. Miller added, the those little things help to win the confidence of the congregation.

The Ushers of the Payne Memorial AME Church, Madison Ave. and Laurens St., will sponsor the Annual Memorial Services of the Church, Sunday June 24 at 3:30 p.m. The Rev. Noah Melvin will be guest speaker. The ushers will have their annual outing to Sparrow's Beach, July 4. The Rev. W. P. Mitchell is pastor.

The Ladies Aid of the Grace Presbyterian Church, Etting and Dolphin Sts., gave $100 to the trustees as a result of funds raised from the Mad Hatters Bazaar.

June graduates were Joyce Burris, James D. Steele, Annestia Edmonds and Constance Wyatt, high school. Jean Weaver, Coppin Teachers College; Madeline Barber, Mrs. Beatrice Pitts, Joseph Tyler, Dorothy Webb, Morgan State College; and E. Lloyd Davis, Catholic University.

Recital Scheduled

The Birthday Circle, Brotherhood and Gospel Chorus of the Sharon Baptist Church, Presstman and Stricker Sts., will present Faustina Hall Tate in recital June 19 at 8:0 p.m.

Miss Tate is a graduate of Spelman College, former student of Madam Maria Hussa, and Sherwood School of Music, of Chicago. She has sung as guest soloist with Graham Jackson and sang for Gen. James Dolittle and the U.S. Ambassador to Canada.

She recently appeared with Ray McIvers Show over WERD, Atlanta, Ga. The Rev. James Moore is pastor of Sharon Church.

Mrs. Edna Gray was speaker at the fifth annual luncheon of the Sixth Ward Civic League last Saturday at the Water's AME Church. Mrs. Clara Banks, chairman, Mrs. Louise Harris, president.

Men's Day Celebration

The Men's Club of Madison Ave. Presbyterian Church will observe its Annual Men's Day Celebration, June 17.

Dr. Archibald S. Chalfant, vice-moderator of the Baltimore Presbytery and former Medical Missionary to China, will be the speaker.

The Baltimore Singers and the male members of the church choir will furnish the music. The music will be under the direction of Gerald B. Wilson. The Rev. Reginald J. Daniels is the minister.

In an "inch rally" given by the Willing Workers Club of the Leadenhall Baptist Church, 1021 Leadenhall St., a prize was given to the person having the largest and smallest waist line on June 11. The Rev. T. B. Davis, pastor.

Freedmen's Contest Ends on Saturday

WASHINGTON

The second annual popularity contest sponsored by the Welfare and Recreation Association of Freedmen's Hospital comes to a close tomorrow (Saturday) night with the announcement of winners in the nurses' recreation room at 9 p.m.

The public is invited to the affair at which there will be a floor show by student nurses and band music for dancing.

Proceeds from the contest will go to the Welfare and Recreation Association. Prizes will be a $100 war bond, a $75 war bond, and a $50 war bond, in addition to awards for all the contestants.

MID-SUMMER INCIDENT:

Or Much Ado About Filching One's Roses

By JAMES L. HICKS

(NNPA Correspondent on tour of Army, Navy and Air Force Installations)

FORT BENNING, Ga. — One morning about two years ago Carl Murphy, president of the AFRO - AMERICAN Newspapers, opened the window of his beautiful Morgan Park home and found his white Bond Bread delivery man busily helping himself to Mr. Murphy's much prized roses, which were then in full bloom.

Ever the diplomat, the scholarly Mr. Murphy calmly proceeded to lecture the surprised bread salesman on the evils of taking other people's property and ended his lecture by quoting a few passages from Shakespeare to the embarrassed white man.

The abashed bread salesman, after learning that the weight of the world was not going to be dropped on him for stealing roses, recovered himself sufficiently to join Mr. Murphy in reciting the last few lines of the Shakespeare quotation.

Shakespearean Reporter

Surprised at this turn of events, Mr. Murphy remarked: "Oh! an intellectual bread salesman, I see!" To which the bread salesman replied, "Yes sir, serving an intellectual home owner!"

The two scholars then proceeded to enjoy a few more passages of the classics together as only true scholars can, and soon the bread man picked up his basket and was off on his delivery route taking the roses he had tried to steal along with him with the compliments of Mr. Murphy.

I picked up the story ten years later here at Fort Benning. The bread salesman, who was Louis E. Holz, then of Baltimore, is now Capt. Louis E. Holtz, public information officer of the first Student Training Brigade at Fort Benning.

Happy Ending

When I walked into his office last week and introduced myself as a representative of the National Press Association his first question was: "Do you know Carl Murphy?" He then related the story of the roses to me.

The story has a good ending too. Captain Holtz married the young lady whom he was stealing the roses for and she is now the mother of his three children.

As old Bill Shakespeare would say, "All's well that ends well."

Charles Freeman, Noted Mason, in Jubilee Speech

Tells of Historic Fight for Privileges; John Murphy Jr. Leads Baltimore Group

By Joseph L. Henson

WASHINGTON

An address by Charles D. Freeman, Masonic historian who is reputed to be the oldest active Prince Hall Mason in the nation, highlighted the 23rd annual celebration of Jubilee Day by Mecca Temple No. 10, AEAONMS, and Mecca Court No.2, Daughters of Isis, Sunday at Zion (Southwest) Baptist Church.

Mr. Freeman recently observed his 55th anniversary as a Prince Hall Mason in Social Lodge No.1 AAM, and is now serving his 30th consecutive term as treasurer of the Imperial Council of Shriners among colored Masons in North and South America.

Jubilee Day commemorates a decision handed down by the United Supreme Court in 1929, giving Prince Hall Masons full rights to the Degree of the Masonic Shrine. The late Chief Justice William Howard Taft read the unanimous decision of the nation's highest court.

The suit to put the Negro Shriners "out of business" was instituted by whites at Houston, Tex. and was fought by colored Masons in southern courts to the Supreme Court. Mr. Freeman served as historical advisor to the colored Masons during the suit. It is said that he astounded the courts of the land with his knowledge of the history of Freemasonry.

Informs "Younger Generation"

During his address Sunday Mr. Freeman gave the "younger generation" a detailed account of the fight "for the privileges which you now enjoy."

Martin L. Jackson, potentate of Mecca Temple and Clive L. Handy, commander of Mecca Court, presided. Noble Arthur E. Brooks was master of ceremonies. Also participating in the celebration were a large contingent of Shriners from Jerusalem Temple, Baltimore, who were headed by Past Imperial Potentate John H. Murphy Jr., and Illustrous Potentate J. L. Hicks. Other visitors were from Magnus Temple and Court of Alexandria, Va., Arabia Temple, Portsmouth, Va.; and Suaki Temple, Wilmington, Del.
