On the AVENUE

By E. B. REA

TOP NEWS FLASH — The Alhambra, Smithson St. at Pennsylvania Ave., will change hands on Monday, July 1, with Moe Lipman, downtown business man, taking over in full.

THIS DISSOLVES A 15 - year partnership between former co-owners, J. C. Bailey and Max Scherr, which began in June, 1936. J. C. is to remain in an advisory capacity, with no immediate changes in the working staff.

WORK HAS BEGUN at Gamby's on the new musical bar which is scheduled to be ready for the public on June 29. The opening attraction will be Tiny Davis's combo, to be followed by the Paul Gayten Trio.

ERSKINE BUTTERFIELD, pianist, playing a downtown spot, made the Musicians Lounge, 2238 Pa. AFM, his regular spot while here. . . T. Logging, tenor sax with the Rivers Chambers orh, celebrated his birthday on the 12th at the Lounge. The band members gave "T" a swanky motor pack (leg for travel) use.

RUDY DIXON, manager of both The Frolic, 1400 block, and the newly-renovated Club Orleans, over Gay St. way, has set June 22 as the date for the opening of his seafood restaurant in the Frolic block, with his daughter, Peggy Barkdale, in charge.

BERT HALL's Three B's and a Honey left Wednesday via station wagon for a play date at Cuya's in Montreal, Canada.

DON'T BE SHOCKED if the old money orders soon go the way of the old dollar bills. They'll be replaced by a form that looks like a bank check, cashable at banks as well as post offices. The point note has long since disappeared.

HAZEL DAVAGE, the ex - Mrs. Milton Devage, and Jerome Washington, piano-solo-vox artist, may soon announce their engagement. Hazel is currently serving as bartmaid at a Gwyn Oak Ave. white club, where Jerome is playing nightly with Harold (Sax) Bennett and Bus (Mad Drummer Green Joining him on weekends.

BOTH ARTHUR GODFREY and Graham Jackson, pianist-accordionist, will be featured on Ed Sullivan's CBS - TV "Toast of the Town," this Sunday evening, with Louis Armstrong appearing on "Garroway At Large," at 10.

NO NAME, PLEASE! But the guy was lamenting about his own well being, while describing his feelings in the throes of a hangover.

SEEMS HE went out and got blotto, had himself a ball, and ended up not only "sick, sobr" and sorry" but broke, disgusted and sad.

TAN FEET HINES, leader and drummer, and Jackie Witherspoon, trumpetman, with the Avenue Playboys, have returned to Provident, R.I. to rejoin the group after a week's vacation at home. Other members are Clyde Patterson, piano; Irvin Howard, bass, and William Ross, sax. The home boys are making a musical home away from home.

A FOLLOW - UP on the State sales tax in the form of information: Organizations renting their premises for one-day use must assume the responsibility of seeing that the sales tax license is posted conspicuously with the one - day beverage license.

JIMMY WHITE JR. coolyard operator of Washington, dropped in on the Avenue for a brief visit on Tuesday. . . Elizabeth Swann entering her fourth year as day barmaid at Sam's on the Strip. . . Vernon (Frolic) Laws has succeeded the late Edward (Mex) Prater behind the bar at the Vilma.

POOR ROBIN HOOD—A well-known Avenuetie complaining because he has to suffer along with his wife as she battles bulges. She's on a diet.

AVENUE FIGHT FANS say Willie Pep, Roland LaStarza and Baltimore's Johnny Imza, a green pattern of Two-Ton Tony Galento, are advancing up the fight ladder at the expense of "hams." Rocky Graziano gets another boost on Monday night.

ACCORDING TO A LOCAL ring announcer, Graziano's opponent will be a "colored slugger from Newark, N.J.", and, we're just discovering that Junior Gilliam and Joe Black, of the League-leading Montreal Royals, are "colored boys."

WON'T IT BE SOMETHING when some of the announcers can room open their telecasts with: "Good evening, sports fans, here's good evening, television. Aw, yes, video has made us all skinkills, so there'll be good color-blindness tonight."

WILLIAM (BILL) LINDSAY strolling out for a date with his barber, but still taking it easy. . . The Show Goes On nightly with the John Metlerick Trio replacing Johnny Sparrow's Bow and Arrows at Club 511, down Fremont Ave. way.

PEYTON GRAY, former AFRO city reporter and war correspondent, seriously ill. . . Eddie Kelson reported still on the critical list. Donald Fields, Ed Wharton and Howard Rollins, delegates from Local 543, AFM, have returned from the national convention held in NYC.

A DISTURBED HOUSEWIFE writes in to ask: "What does one have to do to win a 'beeling' joint broken up in one's neighborhood if not, why must a neighborhood? Do these places pay to operate? If not, why must a neighborhood be forced to accept them? Why is it that the law is so hard on "numbers" writers and can't spot a house of ill repute?"

PLEASE, LADY! Don't mistake me for a Solomon or a Mr. Anthony!

SOMETHING OLD—Morris' tavern, 2100 block, the only uptown spot with the old-fashioned swinging doors.

SOMETHING BLUE—The mother of Coach Eddie Hurt died early this week.

SOMETHING TRUE — That's as far as we get On and Off the Avenue this week.

State Recruiting Service Here Has Mixed Personnel

The U.S. Army and Air Force Recruiting Service is practicing integration in Baltimore.

Pfc. Samuel Johnson, of 421 Burrway, Sollers Point, is the only colored member of the recruiting service in Maryland.

He spearheaded the recent drive conducted at the Lenox Theatre, 2100 block Pennsylvania Ave., in cooperation with the management, securing more than this Area's quota.

PFC. SAMUEL JOHNSON

Get Along Fine

The recruiting office is located at 1530 W. North Ave., where he works side by side with other personnel, "without any incident. We get along like one," he told the AFRO.

Pfc. Johnson served more than five years during World War II, seeing service in Europe and the Pacific without receiving a scratch. He was recalled and entered the recruiting branch in Oct. 1950.

A native of Philadelphia and Florence, S.C., he is married to the former Miss Dorothy Brockington, of Newark, N.J.

They are the parents of four children, one boy and three girls ranging in ages from two to 11.

LILLI PALMER SIGNS FOR "FOUR POSTER"

Rex Harrison and Lilli Palmer (Mrs. Harrison) have been signed as the complete cast of Columbia's "Four Poster," the first time two people will sustain an entire film, without any support cast.

Opening Date Set for Concert Series

A series of summer concerts and movies will be held in the Museum's Rose Garden beginning July 10. There will be three concerts and three movies on alternating Tuesday evenings.

The concerts will be given by the Chamber Music Society of Baltimore. The first evening programs will include works by Bach, Martinu and Mozart. The series of movies will include "Anna and the King of Siam," "Claudia," and "Jane Eyre." In case of severe weather conditions, the programs will be held in the museum's auditorium.

Piano, Voice Students to Give Annual Recital

The piano and voice students of the Jenkins Music Studios will present an annual recital June 17 and 24 at 6 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of Mt. Olivet Christian Church, 230 N. Fulton Ave.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. Adah K. Jenkins, will consist of piano and vocal solos, piano duets and trios. Awards for attendance and punctuality will be given at the end of both recitals.

French Water Colorist to Give Art Exhibit

Raoul Duffy, French water colorist, currently painting in this country while undergoing the Cortisone treatment for arthritis, will have a one man exhibition of work done in America at the Baltimore Museum of Art, June 10-30.

The subjects of these water colors are typical American scenes such as baseball, Brooklyn Bridge, Manhattan and a New England Church.

The exhibit includes oil portraits of Jacques Marger, well known Maryland Institute instructor, and his wife.

VAN GOGH EXHIBIT AT ART MUSEUM

Vincent Van Gogh is the subject of a panel exhibition opening on June 15 in the Saidie A. May Art Center of the Baltimore Museum of Art. A loan from the Art Institute of Chicago, the exhibition is on a national circuit under the auspices of The American Federation of Arts and can be seen at the Museum through July 15.

Heard in Sunday Recital

Wendell Prichett, gifted young pianist of this city appeared a recital Sunday evening in the concert hall of the Philadelphia Musical Academy.

To Take Over Sparrows Beach

The Griffin Brothers, whose orchestra will be featured at Sparrows Beach Amusement Park on Sunday.

Basie Follows Hampton to L.A.

HOLLYWOOD—(ANP) — Count Basie and his One o'clock revue have been signed to follow Lionel Hampton and his aggregation into the Parmount Theatre here July 26.

The deal, a one-week affair, will have the Basie group doing 28 shows.

The booking of Hampton once again brought vaudeville to the theatre and the follow-up by Basie is indicative that that theatre management may continue the policy on a full-time basis.
