15 WORDS One Day 60c

In Memoriam 1

BARTON—In loving memory of my dear uncle, MORRIS KING BARTON, who departed this life, June 16, 1949.
I have lost my uncle's companion,
A life linked with my own;
And day by day I miss him more,
As I walk through life alone.
MRS. ANNIE BARTON
HELEN B. JOHNSON.

CULBON—In loving memory of my dear mother, ELLA CULBON, who passed away June 16, 1949.
If we loved you, sadly miss you,
If we held you very dear,
In lonely hours of sorrow,
Always your loving presence near.
Daughter, EDNA.

GARRETT—A tribute of love to our dear mother and father, ROBERT CLARKETT.
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own,
And day by day I miss him more,
As I walk through life alone.
DEVOTED WIFE.
Gone, dear father, gone forever,
How we miss you, only God knows.
But you left us
Memories no one can take your place;
A happy home we once enjoyed,
Now sweet the memory still.
But death has left a vacant place,
The world has lost a gem.
DEVOTED CHILDREN.

JOHNSON—In loving memory of my dear husband, ROBERT WILLIAM JOHNSON, who departed this life, June 16, 1937.
His memory is as dear today,
As in the hour he passed away.
WIFE, ANNIE.
ANNIE P. JOHNSON and CHILDREN.

MOORE—In loving memory of our dear father, GEORGE B. MOORE, who passed away, December 19, 1948.
More and more each day we miss thee,
Friends may think the wound is healed,
But their little home the sorrow,
Has within our hearts concealed.
BY THE FAMILY.

MOORE—In loving memory of our dear husband and father, SUSIE A. MOORE, who departed this life 2 years ago, June 17, 1949.
Two years ago you left us
For a beautiful place called rest;
We miss you in our home,
By the ones who loved you best.
You left a beautiful memory,
A sorrow too sacred to be told;
But to us who loved and lost you,
Your memory grows more precious
Devoted daughter,
MRS. ANNIE L. GUTTERBRIDGE,
SISTERS and BROTHERS.

PRINCE—In loving memory of my dear wife, ELLA PRINCE, who passed away six years ago, June 17, 1945.
There is no heart lost, a picture of a loved one laid to rest;
In memory's frame I shall keep it,
Because she was one of the best.
HUSBAND, WILLIE
CLIFTON PRINCE.

SHEPPARD—A tribute of love to the memory of my husband, CHARLES SHEPPARD, SR., who passed away two years ago, March 1949.
The golden sun is shining upon my dear daddy's grave
One I loved so dearly and tried so hard to save;
When I lost you, dearest daddy,
I lost my all in life;
I love you now, I miss you more and more and ever stay.
Devoted Daughter, SARAH SHEPPARD MORAN.

SIMMS—A tribute of love to the memory of my husband, ARTHUR WILLIAM SIMMS, who passed away June 16, 1948.
There is a sad but sweet remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true,
There is a heart that loves thee still,
And a heartache still for you.
Loving Wife, AGNES SIMMS.

STEWARD—In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, WILLIAM D. (HUNTER), who passed away June 16, 1948.
Sometimes we fail to understand,
Why death must come to be
But in His wisdom, God has planned
Beyond our powers to see.
Loving WIFE and CHILDREN.

Ex-VA Clerk Goes to Jail

Faces Other Charges in Federal Courts

NEW YORK — Already sentenced to a prison term of 2-to-4 years for fraud, Robert B. Godet, 29, former Veterans Administration clerk is scheduled to be tried in Federal Court June 29 on charges of embezzling the mails.

He is accused of going through the mails while working as a clerk at the Radio City sub-station during Christmas holidays last year.

Godet was sentenced by Special Session Judge Saul Streit last Tuesday after pleading guilty of altering medical records to give members of the fire department 10 additional disability points on a civil service examination.

The forged records resulted in the firemen being "promoted." They reportedly gave Godet $600. Both firemen, who ranked as lieutenants, pleaded guilty and were dismissed from the department. The Judge refused to send them to jail.

Jury Probes Police Slaying of Dad of 4

BROOKLYN (ANP) — A grand jury began a probe Tuesday into the fatal May 26 shooting of Henry Fields, father of four young children, by Patrolman Samuel Applebaum, Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz telling the jury to make "a thorough, impartial inquiry."

Continuing, Judge Leibowitz told the grand jury that, if the evidence warrants it, an indictment should be returned. "There must be no whitewash," he said. "At the same time, no injustice must be done to this police officer, if he has not violated any criminal law."

He added that, if the jury does not return an indictment, he expires that it file a presentment giving details of its findings because he considers it of great importance that our citizens be informed of the facts."

Driving away from the scene of a minor automobile accident, Fields was pursued by patrolmen and the driver of the car he struck. He leaped from his car a short distance away and was slain by a single shot from Patrolman Applebaum's pistol, dropping in front of his machine.
