Miss Humphries, Mr. Pope Make Vows in Home Ceremony

With her home as the setting, Miss Pauline G. Humphries became the bride of Addison W. Pope, Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. J. O. Williams.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Humphries Sr., of 1602 N. Pulaski St., selected a gown of nylon net and Chantilly lace. Her veil of illusion was held by a halo of orange blossoms and she carried a prayer book marked with an orchid.

Miss Elsie L. Humphries, sister, was maid of honor. She wore green net with a yellow picture hat and carried a nosegay of poms and roses. John Scott was best man.

The bride's mother wore lilac, with white accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Delia Pope, mother of the bridegroom, selected navy, and also wore an orchid.

Mr. and Mrs Pope will be at home at 528 N. Carey St. after July 1.

She is a graduate of Coppin Teachers' College and New York University, and he of Howard University.

Among the guests who attended the ceremony and the reception following were the following out-of-towners:

Mr. and Mrs. P Mance, New York; Miss Lucille Watkins, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. L. Hersey, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tucker, New York, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson, Hartford, Conn., Miss Sarah Carter, Washington; Cpl. James H. Snow, Hawaii and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dantley, Alexandria, Va.

JUDGE'S WIFE MAKES STRONG APPEAL

Handsome Mrs. Ruth B. Howard, wife of well-known Judge A. J. Howard of Washington, D.C., says: "If it's richer flavor you want in cooking, use Carnation Evaporated Milk in all your milk recipes." Do you know that Carnation is more than twice as rich as ordinary milk? No wonder expert cooks like Mrs. Howard say "Carnation has the flavor!" No wonder more women buy Carnation than any other brand.

So be sure you get Carnation when you buy. Don't accept substitutes. Carnation is so rich you can use it undiluted—just like cream! Ask for Carnation Milk by name—today!

Fresh Spinach Casserole Is Old Story With Ending

If you haven't discovered how well cereal and vegetables combine, this recipe for a Fresh Spinach Casserole will win you over. It's a baked vegetable dish flavored with a bubbling cheese sauce and topped with fresh, crushed corn flakes. Substitute kale or dandelions for the spinach for a variation:

Fresh Spinish Casserole

½ cup milk
¼ pound processed cheese
½ teaspoon salt
One-eighth teaspoon pepper
2 cups cooked, fresh spinach
1 cup Kellogg's Corn Flakes (corn flakes)

Heat milk and cheese in top of double boiler; stirring until cheese is melted. Add seasonings. Drain spinach thoroughly; place in casserole. Cover with cheese mixture. Sprinkle with crushed corn flakes. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 20 minutes.

Yield: 4-6 servings.

Serve Scalloped Eggs for Sunday night supper. This recipe is a layered casserole dish made with layers of diced eggs, seasoned crushed corn flakes and a rich cream sauce. On second thought, it's good enough to serve when company comes, too.

PRETTY UP TOMATO

Now that we're getting into the tomato season again you'll want to try this favorite luncheon salad. Peel a tomato and cut into 3 slices. Put the slices back together again with a filling of hard-cooked eggs and pieces of ripe olives held together with mayonnaise, and seasoned to taste. Serve on a garnished salad plate with whole ripe olives alongside.

Curtain Call for Breakfast

Scotch breakfast scones furnish the hot dish required for a properly balanced breakfast.

Scotch Scones

We all need at least one hot dish at every meal. That's what nutritionists tell us—and experience proves them right. It makes sense to ring up the curtain on each day's menu with a good breakfast, dish that tastes good and gives enough energy to start the daily work.

And here is a welcome addition to your repertory—a quick breakfast scone that packs in flavor as well as vitamins. You can make it up the night before, if you wish, ready to pop in the oven a half hour before breakfast. It's a Scottish recipe which is thrifty too—like most Scotch dishes—because it's made with economical Blue Bonnet Margarine.

Scotch Breakfast Scone

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon Cream of Tartar
2 tablespoons sugar
teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons poppy seeds
4 tablespoons Blue Bonnet Margarine
½ cup seedless raisins
½ cup milk
1 teaspoons tartrate baking powder

Sift together flour, Cream of Tartar, sugar, salt and baking powder. Blend in poppy seeds. Cut in margarine with 2 knives or pastry blender until it is size of small peas. Add raisins and blend well. Add milk gradually, blending until lightly floured board and pat into round cake about 9-inches diameter.

Place on greased cooky sheet and with back of knife cut across in quarters, not cutting completely the dough. Bake in moderate oven (375 d. F.) hour. Split while hot and spread liberally with margarine. Serve very hot. Yield: 6 servings. This may be reheated and served for later meals.

Snappy Olive Sandwich Bit

Crumbled blue cheese and rich ripe olives contribute to the distinctive flavor of this "Snappy Olive Sandwich Spread." It makes a perfect filling for regular sandwiches, or is peppy enough to serve open face for teatime or cocktails

Snappy Olive Sandwich Spread

1 cup ripe olives
1 (3-ounce) package cream cheese
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
1/3 cup finely chopped celery
½ teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons crumbled blue cheese

Cut olives from pits into pieces. Blend cream cheese and mayonnaise. Add olives and remaining ingredients and mix thoroughly. Makes about 1½ cups.

Apricot Cream Marlow

Just four ingredients — Apricot whole fruit nectar, marshmallows, cream and vanilla wafers—plus a few grains of salt for this melt-in-your mouth "Apricot Cream together—only a matter of a few minutes—it goes into the refrigerator to chill and wait until time to serve. Make it in the morning and it will be ready to serve at night. Apricot Cream Marlow

¾ cup apricot whole fruit nectar
Few grains salt
12 marshmallows
½ cup whipping cream
16 vanilla wafers.

Heat nectar and salt to boiling. Pour over quartered marshmallows and stir until marshmallows are completely dissolved. Cool thoroughly. When slightly thickened fold in whipped cream. Arrange 8 vanilla wafers in bottom of oblong pan. Pour half the nectar-cream mixture over wafers. Add second layer of wafers and top with remaining nectar - cream mixture. Chill until firm. Cut in squares to serve. Garnish with colorful fresh fruits, if desired. (This may be assembled and chilled in individual sherbet dishes). Serves 4 to 6.

Deviled Crab

2 small cans, or 2 cups crabmeat
1 teaspoon mustard
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup melted butter or margarine
2 teaspoons lemon juice
2 cups soft bread crumbs
1 teaspoon salt
2 hard boiled eggs, minced
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1 teaspoon onion juice
¼ cup dry bread crumbs

Pick over crabmeat and remove any fibrous membranes. Add remainder of ingredients except dry bread crumbs and mix well. Turn into individual ramekins or shells.

Sprinkle tops with dry bread crumbs. Heat thoroughly in a hot oven, 400 degrees F., about 10 to 15 minutes.

To make soft bread crumbs, crumble slices of fresh bread with fingers, or place two slices together at a time and cube with a sharp knife. Crusts may be left on or removed, as desired. But never throw crusts away, they're perfect for dry bread crumbs.

To make dry bread crumbs, grind dry bread through a food chopper, using a fine blade, or toast and crush with a rolling pin. Or use packaged dry bread crumbs.

Beans, Tomatoes Plentiful Cabbage Hit New Low Price

By RUSSELL C. HAWES
marketing specialist

Liberal supplies and a wide selection of attractively priced fresh vegetables should induce one to use more fresh vegetables and certainly will help to relieve the all-too tightened budget.

Careful selection will stretch one's pocketbook says Russell C. Hawes, marketing specialist.

Beans Good Buy

"Week Economies" this week include Maryland grown snapbeans, bunched beets, cabbage, carrots, lettuce, and tomatoes. Locally grown snapbeans are in plentiful supply, at peak of quality, and a very "good buy." This is one of the times during the year that locally grown beans are of the volume and of the quality when you should do your processing. It is time to can or freeze beans. The quality is at peak.

Cabbage continues to be offered on most retail food counters at very low prices. Nearby grown beets and Jersey cauliflower are among the items attractively priced.

In selecting cauliflower, look for heads which are creamy and compact. Do not purchase any with a curd that is spotted, speckled, grimmed without causing too much waste.

Lettuce Abundant

Lettuce mostly from New Jersey is in abundant supply and low in cost. Several states are supplying our needs for tomatoes. Offerings arriving from the Carolinas and Georgia are in generous volume and reasonable in cost. Locally, both the yellow and white varieties.

In fruits, several types are available and in greater supply. Blueberries are quite plentiful but blackberries, raspberries and strawberries are decreasing in volume rapidly. Cantaloupes now are arriving in much lower prices. Peaches are moderately priced.

Fryers are a recommended meat buy. Quality egg market is firm to higher.

RECIPE
String Bean Salad

2 cups cooked beans (full length)
cup minced celery
2 tablespoons minced pimentoes or green pepper
1/3 cup French dressing
lettuce, endive, watercress, or chicory

Add the celery and peppers or pimentoes to the French dressing. Pour over the beans and chill for twenty minutes. Pile onto salad green. Garnish with a ball of cream cheese.

BUDGET AID

This menu will satisfy big appetites and small budgets for a company get-together. Baked corned pork garnished with spiced cooked prunes, escalloped potatoes and parsled carrots. Add a crisp green salad and your favorite lemon meringue pie.
