Miss Eugenia Bourne, Alvin Gantt Married

With Lula Jones Garrett

A luscious toast lace over taffeta was the selection of Eugenia A. Bourne for her wedding to Alvin L. Gantt, here, Saturday evening. Her picture hat matched the froek and she carried a Bible, marked with an orchid.

Miss Bourne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Austin Bourne of Lutsey, Md., and her bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Gantt of this city, is serving with the Merchant Marine.

The ceremony was read by the Rev. J. Lloyd Harrison of Ames Methodist Church, and when her sister, Rosella B. Williams, became ill and was unable to serve as her matron of honor, Eleanora M. Brown took the latter's place. Gaylord Anderson was best man.

Back from Pittsburgh, Pa., this week, the Baltimore Links were recuperating from a week-end of business doings and social affairs.

They say the banquet at the William Penn Hotel was grand, but talk on and on of the swankness of the brunch on Sunday when they were hosted by Mrs. Jessie Van at her Oakmont estate.

Our gal, Beatrice Butler, maintained her secretarial post on the national roster, and Audrey Butler will turn her talents to the plans of the scholarship committee.

From here went Pearlie Pennington, Theresa Waters, Lillian Butler, Etta Phifer, Catherine Adams, Marie Bourne and the Mesdames Butler.

Their next project — their closing party on the Fourth at the Arundel-on-the-Bay summer home of Dr. and Mrs. George McDonald.

TO COLLEGE AND ALTAR

Prior to her leaving for Chicago on Wednesday, Eugenia Hardy, city teacher, was the honoree at a shower hosted by Leona W. Jackson.

Eugenia, who is studying at Northwestern this summer, and who will be an August bride, received personal gifts and lingerie from:

Helena Jefferson, Gloria Stokes, Billy Henderson, Elizabeth Allen, Julia Jenkins, Florence Dennis, Sadie Jenkins, Lucille Talbot, Jerry Mann, Alma Gray, and Margueirte Peterson.

Miss Hardy is engaged to Ahmed Rayner, Chicago mortician.

LIBRARY GETS PIANO

When the Dubois Cirele held its closing meeting in May in the library of the Madison Avenue YWCA they missed not having music; so, because of the lack of a piano, that President Estelle Lee turned to Member Wheatley and said "Laura, go out and get a piano for this room."

Needless to say the piano is already installed in the Y library.

Mrs. Wheatley tells me that she just went out and collected enough funds to purchase the instrument from:

Edythe Myers, Dr. N. Louise Young, Marjorie Cole, Mrs. B. M. Rhetta Sr., Veola Coleman, Mrs. Raymond Carpenter Sr., Edna Brown, Mrs. Truly Hatchett, Edna Gray, Erma Davis, Mrs. John Woodhous.
