Music by Concert Bands Pleasing Large Audiences

The fine music presented by the Number 2 Park and Municipal Concert Bands has been greeted with enthusiasm by the large audiences attending these concerts given by the Bureau of Music.

This week, the two bands will again present concerts for the enjoyment of the public. The Park Band, conducted by Charles E. Gwynn, will play this evening (Friday) June 29, at Sharp and Hill Sts., starting at 8:00.

Mr. Gwynn as always has selected a program that will be pleasing to the audience.

The complete program is as follows:

Baltimore, Our Baltimore, Member: Our Mascot, Jewell; Raymond Rose Lavalle; Tennessee Waltz, Stewart; Oh Babe, Prima; Chicago Tribute, Thomas; The Village Tavern, Peters; Seven La Paloma, Yoeder; Smooth Lize Trombone, Pillmore; Tennessee Waltz, Stewart; So Long Guthrie, Poet; Peasant and Lady, Taylor; Back Bent Lefty, Calvarsman; March, Fillmore; Gibraltar Overture, Meyer; Hearts Bleed, Boogie; Jazz Suite, Stars & Stripes Forever, Sousa; Tobias Knightsbridge March, Coates; Tales From Vienna, Strauss; Red Rose Boogie, Boogie; The Can Take Away, The Blues, Bassie; Battle Royal March, Jewell; The Star Spangled Banner, Key-Smith.

SUNDAY CONCERT SET FOR DRUID HILL PARK

On July 1, the Municipal Band conducted by Mr. Samuel M. Dodd, will present a concert at 3:00 p.m. in Grove A, Druid Hill Park.

Mr. Dodd will present a program in keeping with the high standards set by him previously.

Mr. Dodd's complete program is as follows:

Baltimore, Our Baltimore, Member: Our Mascot, Jewell; Raymond Rose Overture, Thomas; I Still Feel The Same About You, Reid; The Bridal Rose, Lavalle; Tennessee Waltz, Stewart; Oh Babe, Prima; Chicago Tribune March, Chamber; On The Mall, Goldman; Egmond Overture, Heethoven; Big Time Boogie, Moffitt; Tear-drop From My Eyes, Toombs; The Lefty Calvarsman March, Fillmore; King Pin Overture, Taylor; Back Bent Gibraltar Overture, Meyer; Hearts Bleed, Boogie; Jazz Suite, Stars & Stripes Forever, Sousa; Tobias Knightsbridge March, Coates; Tales From Vienna, Strauss; The Star Spangled Banner, Key-Smith.

ON LOCAL SCREENS THIS WEEK

Henri Vidal and Michele Morgan the Italian spectacle, "Fabiola," play the star-crossed lovers in now at the Regent.

Lloyd Bridges, Marie Windsor and John Ireland are involved in a romantic triangle in this scene from "Little Big Horn," now at the New Albert along with "Pier 22."

Patric Knowles and Corinne Calvet are co-starred in "Quebec," action spectacle, now playing at the Met.

Mario Lanza and Ann Blyth in MGM drama of the life of the scene from "The Great Caruso," great tenor, at the Harlem.

Frank Lovejoy, Dorothy Hart and James Mullican in a thrilling scene in "I Was a Communist for the FBI" at the Royal.

Toni Harper to Headline Revue

PHILADELPHIA

Although Toni has toured the East for the last three seasons through an over-crowded booking schedule, a date in Philadelphia could never before be arranged by Gale Agency, her exclusive agent.

This year, the Earle management put their bid in way in advance and grabbed off the opening week of Toni's tour for their loyal fans.

Toni has long been a record favorite in Philly and the date at the Earle should be a banner week. Present indications point to a new box office record at that theatre.

At the close of her Philly engagement, Toni will trek to New York where she will play the Apollo Theatre and then will join the Duke Ellington show at the New York Paramount Theatre.

Since her debut in show business, Toni has been featured on the Eddie Cantor television show, the Milton Berle show, We the People, Ed Sullivan show, This Is Show Business, and every other top television show on every network.

Thief Takes Jersey Joe Walcott's Car

CAMDEN—An automobile belong to Arnold Cream, known in fistic circles as Jersey Joe Walcott, heavyweight boxing champion contender, was stolen Sunday.

The vehicle was parked in front of his residence, 1020 Cooper St. Walcott's wife, Lydia, reported it stolen to Camden police.

Reorganizes Band

NEW YORK—Sy Oliver, arranger-and band leader, who broke up his crew a few years ago, will reorganize this fall for recording, theatre and one-night dates.

On the AVENUE

By E. B. REA

SPOT OF THE WEEK—The new Club 909 (Calhoun St.), is located in a bar spot, famous for more than 100 years. It has passed through the hands of some noted connoisseurs.

IT WAS FIRST OPENED by the late John N. Oberlin, who passed to Billy Bartell, killed in a hunting accident around the early 1900's to the Weinsteins and later to the present interests.

Present owner is Max Nicholson with his brother, Sidney, as manager. The Nicholsons acquired it in 1922. Once called the Jim Crow Bar, it has outlived its past, and is now one of the cosiest, quietest and friendliest neighborhood spot to be found anywhere.

IT'S MODESTLY MARKED by its attractive barmaids, Eloise Jennings and Aleen Martin, both formerly on the Avenue, and by the lilting solovox music of Zerita Stepteau, one of the best in the biz.

ZERITA AND ELOISE

DAL RASIN, and Gus Knox were installed as inspectors on the Liquor Board as of last Monday. Rasin, a former inspector, went out with the Lane administration. Johnny Sparrow and his Bow and Arrows pulled stakes this week and moved into Atlantic City for the summer.

THE SUPERINTENDENT OF Parks reported wanting a number of 18-year-old youths, with Red Cross life-saving certificates, to do guard duty at some of the local pools. He can be found at the Madison Ave. entrance to Druid Hill Park.

SLATER ROAD, in Cherry Hill, disrupted by the actions of a delinquient schoolboy. Local dope peddlers and addicts expected to go underground following the completion of the inquiry by the Senate Crime Committee. Pennsylvania Avenue has been put under the spotlight.

REMEMBER TWO WEEKS ago this column told of a "private investigation and picture-making tour being made along the Strip. The June 25 Life magazine carried one of the photos of Prosecutor Anselm Sodaro, Senator O'Conor and James M. Hepburn, Baltimore criminal justice commission, standing in front of an establishment at Wilson St. and the Ave.

WHAT A DAY it will be Sunday at Carr's and Sparrows Beaches! What, with Illinois Jacquet on one side of the fence at Carr's, and Arnett Cobb, on the other side at Sparrows, there will be a hurricane of music sweeping the bay. Both are graduates of the great Lionel Hampton's "Flying Home" band. Don't be surprised to see the fish climb out on shore and do the Rand!

SOME AVENUE FIGHT fans are of the opinion that Johnny Bozz, Baltimore's latest "white hope," doesn't (at present) have a big-time appearance, other than his 209-pound frame. Otto, the tailor, now otto, the Rittenhouse, making tailor-made meals.

MEANEST MAN of the week—A hit-and-run driver who ran down a small boy at Carey and Gold Sts. on Monday. The driver of another car ran his car down and brought him back to the scene of the accident. Police gave him a ride to Northwestern. The boy a DOG.

IRONY OF THE situation was that the kid's mother, living in Collette St., didn't have sufficient funds to pay for immediate hospital treatment, and the hit-and-run driver didn't either. Wonder how long the kid suffered before being treated?

BALTIMORE TAXICABS clamouring for a fare-hike since the Baltimore Transit Company drove more business their way—after its recent fare-hike. The Comedy Club doing turn-away-business on weekends. Beer parlors attracting more business, on the whole, than the major clubs.

SIGN ON THE ALHAMBRA window announcing change in licensees for July 1. Dan Gary, former business manager of the Sweethearts of Rhythm, and once a frequent visitors to the Avenue, died recently in Washington. Francis Leo Stevens, of 553 Pressman St., one of Baltimore's first private chauffeurs, died recently in a nearby hospital.

LOCAL SPORTS FANS left half-freedmen and half-slaves as far as the recent ruling of the Park Board is concerned. Provident Hospital will benefit from the Elite Giants-Memphis Red Sox doubleheader on Sunday at Memorial Stadium. You'll be seeing two (expected) exciting games. If you attend, you'll be helping not only a worthwhile, but a very, very needy cause. Hop on it!

BERT BROWN, lady of affairs out at suburban Hilltop, calls to say: "Hilltop's the spot for these sultry, summer nights." The town of lonesome gals—A note came this way saying: "There are more lonesome gals in Baltimore than any other town its size. A certain widowed hall has 17 eligible bachelorettes."

COTTEN (KING PIN) BYRD, top man in the "You Must Lose Something Club," modsied down to Portsmouth, Va. on a brief trip during the week. Wendell Wilson, Vilma prop, still spelling: "I told you about that man, Truman." Hottest matinees on Mondays at the Musicians (543 AFM) Lounge, when all of the top hornblowers get together with their latest tunes.

RUBY BARNES, of the 200 block N. Parrish St., former bearkeat of Tan Feet Hines, the drum-beater, left Monday for NYC for an indefinite stay—after Tan Feet did the way he did!

AN EIGHT-HORSE hitch of champion Clydale breed, attracting much ado pulling an old-fashion (from the good old days) brewery wagon.

BERT HALL and Bill Forrester, of the 3 B's and A Honey, write in from Montreal, Canada, with a "hello" to the gang. They're across the Andrew Jackson, of 633 N. Caroline St., and Officer Jeurne and wife, of Cherry Hill, vacationing in the Canadian city, where Johnny Hudgins is also filling a club date. The W's can be contacted at 1084 Stanley St., Montreal.

POP GOES THE TUNES of Jimmy McCann and his Cannonball Jazz Explosions and, Emma Floyd, a gal with swinging piano ways, in a Mardi Gras atmosphere at Club 511, while an ad, elsewhere, tells of "A. P's Dog House," 400 block McCulloh St.

TICKETS FOR THE Josephine Baker appearance in Washington on Monday can be bought at both the Madison Ave YWCA and the Druid Hill Ave YMCA.

MABLE SMITH, the chirp, reported getting married today (Friday). Bobby (Bovd) Yancey, the shake dancer, 105 N. Payson St., and Clarence Clark Jr., 460 Waddy Court, jointly celebrating birthdays Saturday night at the Payson St. address. Bobby is now a grandmother. Her daughter, Chalgette, presented her with a 7-pound 13-ounce grandson, June 1. Christened "Paul Clarence Clark."

CANBY'S MUSICAL BAR opening, scheduled for today (Friday), has been postponed, due to construction delays, until next weekend. When completed, it will be a beaut in every detail. Meanwhile, the front bar continues in full swing, with the new air-conditioning unit hitting on all cylinders.

ARLINGTON RACE TRACK get up and Off the Avenue this week. That slow-talkin', fast-shooting "Sugarfoot" will streak across the Bridge screen, Sunday and Monday.
