Reggie Lee Gets Feelers From St. Louis Browns

WASHINGTON — Unaware that he was being observed during the city series baseball playoffs at Griffith Stadium recently, Reginald (Reggie) Lee made a favorable showing before a major league scout, and may have taken his first step toward a career in organized ball.

In fact, the lanky ex-Armstrong southpaw's showing on the mound and at bat was so impressive, Scout Rex Greaves of the St. Louis Browns, recently acquired by Bill Veeck, wants an encore. He wants to be sure what he saw was no flash in the pan.

Taught by Father

The 19-year-old youth, son of the veteran baseball player, Skrip Lee, who is credited with teaching him the rudiments of baseball playing, was the centerfielder's head toward the plate when the scout, yesterday (Thursday). Whether that meant he would be offered a contract to a minor league team of steps up a rival Cardion pitcher the Browns was not disclosed.

Lee, however, revealed Greaves told him he was impressed over his performance against Cardozo, both as a pitcher and a hitter.

Lee, whose high school class has graduated, twirled the Generals to a 3-0 shutout over Cardozo in an abbreviated five-inning stint of a cobalation tilt.

Slams A Triple

He gave up two hits, a bunt and a single, and whiffed eight batters. Meanwhile at bat, he got one of his own team's two hits, a lusty triple to center field, batted in one run and scored another on a single by Arthur Van Brackle.

You carry a heavy stick too," Graves inquired of Lee after watching him lofty his triple high over the centerfielder's head toward the 420-foot mark.

Should Lee break into organized ball he will be following the footsteps of a rival Cardozo pitcher

State Stock Car Title at Stake

Another new feature has been added to the Jaga And Fourth stock car racing show which promoters Bill Clagett and Tommy Coates are offering at the Ritchie Raceway next Wednesday afternoon, with the announcement of the awarding of the Maryland State championship to the winner of the 25-lap feature race.

Messrs. Clagett and Coates have arranged with NASCAR to present the winner with a handsome trophy which will be emblematic of the state stock car driving title in addition to the usual prize fund payoff as established by NASCAR for all feature race winners at all its sanctioned meetings.

Maurice (Sonny) Wills, who is in the Brooklyn Dodgers' farm chain, Wills is a second baseman with the Hornell (N.Y.) Dodgers in the Pony League.

Versatile Performer

Like Wills, the stringy Lee is a versatile performer. When he not toiling on the mound, he is playing centerfield. Because of his power hitting, he is kept in the lineup in practically every game.

Lee currently is playing with the Washington All-Stars, one of the Recreation Department's Metro Baseball League leaders.—BY FRED LEIGH

Piper Davis Figures in Ottawa Win

OTTAWA, Can.—Lorenzo (Piper) Davis, one-time manager of the Birmingham Barons of the Negro American League, set the pace as the Ottawa Giants, of the International League, tallied a 3-2, eleven-inning victory over the Baltimore Orioles here Wednesday night.

Davis, playing his first week with the New York Giants' IL farm club after a sojourn in the Pacific Coast League, delivered a two-out single in the eleventh inning to set the stage for the home club's winning rally.

The new Ottawa acquisition drilled a one-baser to left and moved to second as Dutch Mele followed suit. Davis then crossed the plate with the tying run when Marv Rickert, Orioles outfielder, dropped an easy fly ball.

Stan Jok, running for Mele, like Davis was of with the swing since there were two out, and he scrambled into the plate a little ahead of Rickert's recovery and peg to grab the game.

Davis got one hit in five time at ba ts, while opening the game at third base and being shifted to first in the late innings.

Crisco Tigers Take 3rd in Row Trotters, Crown Cork, Stars Score

The Crisco Tigers, of South Baltimore, took a neat, 3-1, victory from Building Trade School last Tuesday for their third straight win without defeat in the Bureau of Recreation's fast Easterwood Unlimited League.

Dick Cornish's boys, who have played lukewarm ball in the West Baltimore Club Sunday League, have been a powerhouse in the Tuesday twilight loop. Behind Big Sid Long's effective fast ball, the Tigers have convincingly spanked the cream of the city's softball giants, Burt's Mohawks and Crown Cork and Seal, in addition to last week's victory over Building Trade.

The Tigers face Crown Cork on Tuesday and then meet Building Trade School in a make-up game from the first round on Thursday.

Crown Cork staged a last ditch rally to nip the Mohawks for the second time this season 9-8 in another Easterwood game.

Trotters Score

The defending league champion Cherry Hill Trotters, sporting flashy new uniforms, celebrated by annexing two Independent Club Unlimited League victories during the week, beating the Pythons, 8 to 6, on Wednesday at Easterwood, and Western Maryland Dairy, A.C., 12 to 7, on Saturday at Cherry Hill Park.

The Pythons bounced back Saturday at Easterwood to trim the Churchill Ambassadors, 11-7.

Crown Cork and Seal, first round winner in the Industrial and Trade School Unlimited League, notched topping Social Security, Sunday, at Druid Hill Park, 11-9.

Building Trade School, defending league champions, overpowered the Martin Jets 20-11 to keep their hopes of overtaking Crown Cork alive. The Trademen play the Corkers in a crucial game this Sunday at Druid Hill No. 2, 11 a.m.

Stars Take 1st Round

The romping Northwestern Stars took their fourth straight and the first round title in the Northwest Unlimited League last week by bouncing Domino Sugar Company, 11-3, Saturday at Druid Hill Park and spanking the Hurricanes, 6-3, at Easterwood on Sunday. Maryland Vocational School got its first league win Sunday over the Tailoring Institute, 10-2.

The Jr. Red Dogs A.C., clinched at least a tie for first round honors in the Easterwood Junior League by beating the Cloverdale Jr. Ramblers, 21-1 at Easterwood Park last Tuesday. The Red Dogs also received a forfeit victory from the Gilmor Giants as a result of the Giants' use of ineligible players against the Dodgers A.C.

Penalized 3 Games

The Giants were penalized three games, losing also to the Dodgers and to the Cloverdale Jr. Ram blers. Linwood Steven's Dodgers have a chance to tie the Red Dogs if they can win against the Jr. Ramblers next Monday.

In Cherry Hill Junior League action, the Imperial Earls began to move away from their opponents with a third successive victory over the Bunneker Tigers, 24-21, at Cherry Hill Park.

In the South Baltimore Junior League the Bluejays took over the lead by beating the Jr. Clowns A.C. 10-7 for their second win. The Mt. Winans Jr. Braves squeezed out a win from the Rangers 14-13 in other Swann Park action last Monday. Taylor Junior league games were postponed due to work being done on the diamond at P.S. No. 122.

3-Way Tie for Lead in Rec Baseball Race

Three teams tied for the top spot in the Bureau of Recreation Monumental Unlimited Baseball League race The Post Office beat slipping Cobra A.C. 10-5 to stay in the fight with five wins and one loss.

Dutch Booze's high flying Westside Eagles took the measure of Howell's Barber Institute 8-0 on Sammy Dutton's neat shut-out pitching at Druid Hill Park. Dutton posted another shut-out victory earlier over Cobra A.C.

Eastside A.A., defending city champions, posted a 7-6 victory over Dolphin A.C. in another tight Druid Hill contest to keep pace. Eastside's victory was protested by the Dolphins because of the use of one player. The hearing is set at the Bureau of Recreation next Monday and would call for a forfeiture if upheld.

Arundels Hold 4th

The Arundels, who had an off-day last Sunday, held on to fourth place with a 6-2 record. Willie Holland's boys go against a blazing Post Office Nine this Sunday at 1:00 p.m. at Druid Hill Park No. 1. The Dolphins have the Westside Royals who are fresh from their first league win this year, at 3:30 p.m. on the same diamond.

The Royals beat Maryland Technical Institute 9-4 last Sunday. Eastside A. A. faces the Westside Eagles in another promising clash at 3:30 p.m. on Druid Hill Park No. 2. Maryland Technical Institute squares off against Barber Institute at 1:00 p.m. on Druid Hill No. 2

Monumental Intermediate League teams have a busy slate next week. The Jr. Black Caps meet the Strand A.C. in a postponed game at Carroll Park on July 3 and at Druid Hill Park Park No. 2 on Thursday, July 5 in a second round contest.

Hawks Bid

The Greenway Hawks make their bid for league leadership, taking on the Jr. Dolphins on July 5 at Clifton No. 5. The Zodiacs already a powerhouse in the Taylor Junior Softball league, put in an application for the open berth in the Monumental Junior Baseball League.

Arthur Williams, civic minded school principal and sponsor of the city and intercity intermediate basketball champions Trinity Bullets, agreed this week to sponsor the Zodiacs in the young baseball loop. The Zodiacs join Johnny Turner's E. Baltos, Rockets, Avon Cooper's Northwest Police Boys Club Jrs., and Winfield Ligon Red Sox in the city's first Junior baseball loop.

Barksdale, Compos to Meet Here

Frisky young Elmer Barksdale, Baltimore's leading candidate for featherweight ring honors, laces on the mittens Monday night to headline the Squires A.C. fight show at the Coliseum against Jesus Campos, seasoned Puerto Rican campaigner from New York.

Compos, whose only previous start here saw him taking part in a fast skirmish against former champion Willie Pep, represents another stiff test for the local teen-ager who has developed fast in recent months.

Compos will have an appreciable edge in experience. Jesus has been boxing pro since 1947 and has traveled in fairly fast company in addition to his brush here with Pep.

But on other counts the hustling Barksdale seems to take down the honors. For one important thing he hits harder. Compos pleased fans well enough to get three battles with Brooklyn's star, Charlie Cotton—but Tibbs won all three by decision. Barksdale took on Tibbs once at the Coliseum several months ago and flattened Charlie in four rounds.

Winning Elites Eye 3-Ply Bill Sunday

Baltimore Elite Giants, continuing their winning ways, promised local fans a three-ply treat when they come into Memorial Stadium Sunday for their first showing of the 1951 baseball season.

In addition to a colorful game featuring old-time Baltimore Black Sox players, the Elites figure to offer a real test for the always-strong Memphis Red Sox in their Negro American League doubleheader.

The Sabbath program will get under way with a 3-inning game between two oldtimer teams, featuring—among others—such stars of yesterday as Blaney Hall, Nick Logan, Eggie Clark, Ben Taylor, Jod Wilson, Joe Lewis, Doc Sykes, Mack Eggleston, Script Lee and Laymon Yokeley

The Elites, themselves, come into town on the crest of a victory wave, the most recent achievement of which are two-for-two against the Philadelphia Stars and a triumph over a white semi-pro club at Homer, N.Y., Wednesday night.

Slim Holloman hurled his fourth straight win of the campaign at Harrisburg, Pa., Monday night when he turned back the Quakers, 13-3.

On Tuesday night, at Bangor, Pa., the Elite outmoreans made a rout of it with the Stars, winning 9-8 in a battling surge that w... topped by Henry Kimbro's two homers, plus round-tripers by Fleming Reid and Doc Dennis.

The Wednesday night game was a real tussle until Reid blasted a two-run homer in the top of the ninth to give the visitors a 7-5 decision.

Elite officials are still confident that Pee Wee Butts, their veteran shortstop of many title-seeking seasons, will be back in the lineup when they take the field at the Stadium against the Red Sox. Butts told the club he will leave Winnipeg, Can., in time to rejoin the team here Sunday.

Saddler Wins

SANTIAGO, Chile — Sandy Saddler of New York knocked out Mario Salinas, light-weight champion of Chile, Friday night in the fifth round of a scheduled 10-round bout.

Westport Stock Race Crowds Grow

Westport Stadium's crack car racing pilots swing into action tomorrow (Saturday) night for the ninth time this season and a large and classy field of more than thirty lead-foots will start their assault on Westport's records with the first of the seven events starting at 8:30 o'clock.

So far, no one pilot has been able to dominate the Westport programs, and with attendance climbing at each meeting and the field of cars becoming ever larger, Promoter Ed Otto confidently anticipates one of the most exciting shows of the year to unfold before the Baltimore stock car clientele tomorrow evening.
