Social Worker Gets Master's

Walter E. Purviance, one of eight persons to receive a fellowship in medical social work from the Lutheran Church, through the Wheat Ridge Foundation of Colorado in 1949, received a Master's degree in Social Work at the University of Minnesota, June 16.

He is a graduate of Dunbar High School and received the Bachelor of Arts degree with honors from Morgan State College in 1948. Mr. Purviance is a member of the American Association of Medical Social Workers and the American Association of Social Workers.

He is the son of Mrs. Marion P. Boyce ,1419 E. Madison St. He is a member of the St. Phillips Lutheran Church. Mr. Purviance will began work as a medical social worker with the Chicago unit of the Wheat Ridge Foundation, July 15.

Too Hot in Bedroom Man, Wife Divorced

The heat was blamed for one more evil, this week, that of wrecking the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ayres.

Mrs Ayres, who lives at 1412 N. Eden St. told the court that in July of 1949 she went into a back room to spend a night because of the excessive heat of their joint bedroom, and that while she was at work next morning, her husband moved her vanity into the back room and told her to stay there.

She said that he never allowed her to return, thereby technically deserting her. They had been married 10 years.

Along with the divorce granted her, the couple agreed to a division of property. She gave him $2250 for his interest in the Eden Street home, and he also took as his share of the furniture the refrigerator, living room furniture, bed, a cabinet, desk, chair, china cabinet and buffet.

Charges Injuries

A divorce also went to Mrs. Arilla Baker of 808 Somerset St., from David Baker of 428 Register St., who was charged with extreme cruelty.

Married less than two years, the wife said that she spent more than three months of that time in Johns Hopkins Hospital as a result of his beating and stabbing her.

She will resume her maiden name, Williams. J. Howard Payne was her attorney.

Put Him Out

Thalmion Ingram won a divorce from Mrs. Inez Ingram after testifying that she put him out of their home.

The couple, married in 1942 and separated in 1948, are parents of three children who were given into custody of the mother. Mr. Ingram was ordered to pay her $15 a week for their support. Thomas Knox was his attorney.

Roy S. Bond was attorney for Ransom Reed of 102 Kings Court, and Mrs. Josephine Duval of 1678 Montmor Court, both of whom said Mrs. Willie E. Reed and Freddy they and their respective mates, Duval, voluntarily parted.

Celebrate Anniversary

WASHINGTON

The Scottish Rites Masons and Eastern Star celebrated their first anniversary in their new home at 1027 Harlem Ave. Friday with a dinner program.

Appoximately 100 persons attended the affair, pointing of the organization's progress under the leadership of Deputy Inspector General H. B. Womack for whom a testimonial will be given soon.

Rosedale Beach Scene of Swags' Annual Outing
With Lula Jones Garrett

The Swags (that swank masculine aggregation) swashed off to Rosedale Beach, near Millsboro, Del., the past week-end, for their annual two days of doings.

Garnered guests from eight cities for the usual things one does on a week-end house party fishing, crabbing, dining, dancing, innumerable sips, some cards, a lot of talk.

Members, whose wives, of course, were along, included:

Dr. and Mrs. Ulysses Bourne of Frederick, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Rivers Chambers; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. William Gonnell, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Harmon, all Baltimore;

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Woodland, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Law, Dr. and Mrs. Ted Phifer, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Urquhardt, all of this city; Dr. and Mrs. Tom Clayton of Coatesville, and Dr. and Mrs. James Johnson of Elkton.

Guests were:

Mr. and Mrs James Murphy, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henson, Frederick, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris.

Pete Tyson, D. C. attorney, and Mrs. Tyson; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walburg, New York;

Mr. and Mrs. Ulysses Glover, Mr. and Mrs. William Stanford, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Moseley, Mr. and Mrs Elmer Patterson, Dr. and Mrs. Martin Jenkins, Dr. and Mrs. James Carr, Dr. and Mrs. Albert Burwell, all of Baltimore;

Mr. and Mrs. William Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Saul Perdue, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. Hiriam Butler, all of Baltimore;

Mrs. Marie Johnson, New York, Dr. Maybelle Weaver, Baltimore; Miss Hortense Robinson, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Allen West, Philadelphia; Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams, Princess Anne; Mr. and Mrs. William Paul, Longside, N. J.; Dr. and Mrs. Wayman Coston, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Montgomery, Wilmington, Del.; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Tiller, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. (Dr. Ethel) Nixon.

SORORS NAME OFFICERS

Sigma Gamma Rho sorors held forth at their closing meeting on Wednesday, when the civic business consisted of inducting officers.

Serving for the next year will be Ida Washington, basileus; Carolyn Robinson, anti-basileus; Georgeanna Thompson, grammateus; Catherine Tucker, antigrammateus; Mae Folkes, tamjichus; Rosp Kinney, parliamentarian; and Dora Hutchinson, epistoleus.

Following the session the sorors were guests at a party hosted by 12 pledgees to the sorority.

COTERIES ENTERTAIN

The Coteries Club gave an anniversary party the other evening in the York Hotel Blue Room, which was filled to the hilt with good music, eatables, sippables, and a likely looking bunch to enjoy them.

Sadie Gunther, who has headed the group for ten years, was recipient of a gold pin. The presentation was made by Margaret Singletary, for the club.

Hostesses at the affair were Sadie Funther, Margaret Singletary, Lillie Bristol, Amanda Jackson, Erma Wake and Geraldine Lee.

Their guests included:

Miss Gwen. Johnson Is Bride of James Hamlin

An exquisite gown of nylon net over an underskirt of satin, with simulated tiers of the satin, was selected by Miss Gwendolyn L. Johnson for her marriage to James W. Hamlin, Friday.

The bridal ensemble was completed by a veil held by a lace crown. She carried a Bible topped with an orchid.

Rev. Mr. Reynolds Officiates

The ceremony took place at Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church, and was read by the Rev. Luke Reynolds. Mrs. Wanda Green was soloist and Mrs. Carrie Green was at the organ.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Phillip Timberlake, Miss Johnson was attended by her cousin, Miss Edna Johnson; Mrs. Delores Rowley, Miss Dinna Prettyman, Miss Gertrude Diggs, Miss Eleanor Green, Miss Ann Crosby and Miss Vashti Ganger.

They carried nosegays.

Junior maids, who wore white organdy frocks, over underskirts of orchid, and carried orchid muffs, included Misses June Wilson, Audrey Johnson, Shirley Thomas, Sandra Bates, Evelyn Wilson, all of Baltimore and Carrie Kenny of Staunton, Va.

Mr. Johnson Best Man

Wilbur Johnson served as best man and ushers were Eugene Paris, Grayson Johnson, Ray Porter and James Gillette.

A reception, given by the mother of the bride, Mrs. Ressie Johnson, followed at their home, 1517 Lanvale St. Mrs. Johnson selected a gown of royal blue net trimmed with satin, matching gloves and shoes, and yellow roses.

Out-of-Town Guests

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Waddy and Freddie Wilson of Brooklyn, N.Y.; Mrs. Eddie Clifford of East Orange, N. J.; Collis Timberlake of Atlantic City, N. J.; Mrs. Frances Daniels of Carlisle, Pa., Miss Ruth Friend of Washington, and Mrs. Carrie Kenny and daughter, Carrie, of Staunton, Va.

Texas more than a year ago she left the child, whose legal custody she has, in Baltimore. Her former husband, Marshall Hood, took the little girl, tucked her away with his sister in Buffalo. Having garnered her daughter, Mrs. Abney is on her way back to Texas.

Fay M. Hershaw of Washington (but who does her teaching chore at public school No. 136 in this town) took off Saturday from Idlewild International Airport, New York, for Monrovia, Liberia. Miss Hershaw will visit Nigeria, the Gold Coast, Sierra Leone and other points thereabouts while enjoying a two-month vacation.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. B. Milton Hargrove of Eastern Methodist Church, left this week for Morristown College, Morristown, Tenn., to attend a Leadership Training School of the Church. He will do special work in the adult division of the South Baltimore District. She will be director of the children's work in the same district.

Alma Gray, head of the "Pitcher Street branch of the Enoch Pratt Library; and Thelma Bell, who will head the Children's Room of the Pennsylvania Avenue, Branch, now under construction, are attending the sessions of the American Library Association in Chicago. Miss Bell will represent the Pratt Staff Association. They will be guests of Mrs. Gray's uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Brown.

Within our gates, this week, are Mr. and Mrs. James Carpenter and son, James Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. John L. Shearer Jr. of Elizabethon, Tenn., guests of their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Simmie L. Price.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Garland Chissell holidayed in Atlantic City, N.J. Mr. and Mrs. J. Logan Jenkins are back from a vacation in West Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Howard Hueles and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Williams have been recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Robertson in Muskogee, Okla. Mrs. Robertson is the former Mamie Diggs, at one time a teacher of science in Douglass High School here. Her husband is a prominent lawyer in the Oklahoma city.

Misses Emma and Kate Sheppard have been vacationing with Mrs. Pauline Wharton at the latter's summer place in Cotuit, Mass. They will go on to Plymouth and Oak Bluff, Mass.

POT-POURI

Dr. and Mrs. James Pair (Tillie Young) have a date with the Stork. Daniel McClain Jr., son of this city's Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McClain, has a bride as of June 6. She's the former Aria Ellis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ellis of Omaha, Neb. They were married in Alaska, where he is stationed with the Navy. Mrs. Everett Butler (Addie) ex-timekeeper of School No. 176, is up and out after a spell in Provident Hospital.

Quandra Prettyman six date week for six weeks in Mexico, where she will serve as a librarian at a Friends Service Camp near Mexico City. She's the daughter of the Eugene Prettyman of this city and a junior at Antioch College.

Burt Hall (Three Bees and a Honey) posts back from Montreal, Canada, that the town is great, the group going fine at Ciro's there. Rolans and Anita Henson are vacationing in Atlantic City.

Ball fans can combine pleasure with Charity by attending the double-header between the Elite Giants and the Memphis Red Sox Sunday, at the Stadium. Provident Hospital Building Fund will benefit.

And speaking of Provident . . . their smart Ladies Auxiliary turned over $2000 to the fund a day or two back. Mrs. Cordiland Brown heads the group. Here for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. Miles Connor is her sister, Mrs. Fannie M. Jones of Fort Lewis, Wash.

Mrs. Robert Quickley has gone to Buffalo, N.Y. for graduation exercises of her nieces, Misses Wanda and Yvonne Smith. Mrs. Leona Jackson was in Virginia, this week, to visit her mother. Mrs. Georgia Chambliss, tucked in Franklin Square Hospital, has been home since Wednesday.
