Miss Annette Hall Bride of R. Carpenter of Plainfield

Historical St. Francis Catholic Church was the setting, Saturday at High Noon, for the wedding of Miss Annette Hall of this city and Phoenix, and Russell Carpenter Jr. of Plainfield, N.J.

Miss Hall is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil A. Hall of Fairview Farm, Phoenix, and the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jakes. She attended Coloy, in Waterville, Md., and did graduate work in sociology at Catholic University. She is AKA and has been doing field work at Catholic Charities, the Department of Public Work and the Department of Recreation, this city.

The bridegroom is a reserve officer in the air force, an Alpha Phi Alpha, and is now a student at Rutgers University, New Brunswick.

Rev. Mr. McKee Officiates

The ceremony was read by the Rev. Joseph M. McKee, pastor of St. Francis, where three generations of the bride's maternal relatives have worshipped.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of nylon net over bridal satin. Her veil of nylon net was held by a garland of flowers. She carried a prayer book marked with baby orchids.

Miss Nancy Jane Mead of York, Pa., cousin of the bride, was soloist. An impressive moment of the service was when the bride placed her bouquet at the feet of the Blessed Virgin as Miss Mead sang an appropriate hymn. Mrs. Martina Castor was at the organ.

Mrs. Robinson Attends

Mrs. Patricia Murphy Robinson, formerly of this city and now of Boston, was matron of honor and Miss Jane West of this city, maid of honor. They wore gowns of yellow marquisette with sashes and hugh bows at the back of satin. Their bonnets matched in color and their bouquets were of roses.

The bridemaids wore identical marquisette gowns, in green, and carried yellow daisies. They were her cousins, Misses Merriel Thomas of New York and Audrey Hall of this city; and Misses Josephine Lansey of this city, and the sister of the bridegroom, Miss Gloria Carpenter of Plainfield.

Mr. Lee Best Man

George Lee Jr., Detroit attorney, was best man. Ushers were Joe Nelson and Percy Steele of Plainfield; Jacques and Basil Hall Jr., brothers of the bride; and Thomas Lee and DeWitt Howard of this city. Lynn French of Washington was flower girl. She was gowned in white eyelet over an undersikrt of green. Her bouquet was of yellow daisies.

Following the ceremonay a reception was held on the lawn of the parents' home in Phoenix, and was attended by 300 guests, among the following out-of-town relatives and friends:

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson of Westfield, N.J., Mrs. Lillitia Carpenter, mother of the bridegroom, Plainfield; Mrs. Ethel Hall Martin, Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. William Hall, of Princeton, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Enos L. Adams, Summit, N.J.;

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gaskins, Lincoln University, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Cuyjet, Philadelphia; Miss Julia Smith, Cambridge, Mass., Mrs. George Lee Jr., Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. George Dabney, York, Pa.;

Mrs. Alice Gittens, York, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Bernadine Dabney, Virginia State College; Mr. and Mrs. George Meade, York, Pa., Mrs. Jean Smith, Westfield, N.J.; Mrs. Percy Steele, Plainfield;

Miss Betty Hall, Princeton; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lawrence, Mrs. Dorothy Howard, Dr. and Mrs. David French and Mme. Lillian Evanti, all of Washington; and Mrs. Charlotte Kyle, Newark, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will honeymoon in Massachusetts and Maine, following which they will be at home in New Brunswick.

For the wedding and reception Mrs. Hall wore a gown of pale blue with pink accessories and a corsage of orchids. Mrs. Carpenter, gowned in gray, also wore pink accessories and orchids.

Rehearsal Dinner

Following rehearsal, Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, uncle and aunt of the bride, entertained the bridal party at dinner, at their McCulloh Street home.

It was at this affair that the bride gave gifts of pearl chokers to her honor attendants and single strands of pearls to her maids. Her gift to Mr. Carpenter was a lighter. His gift to her was a double strand of pearls. His ushers received tie pins.

New Jersey and Maryland Families United in Wedding in Baltimore

OPS Fights Inflation By Informing Consumers

Hugo R. Hoffmann, Maryland District director for the Office of Price Stabilization, pointed out Monday that it has become possible for the consumer to ascertain just how much his paycheck will buy weekly since OPS regulations governing virtually all the goods and services he buys are now in force.

Mr. Hoffmann pointed out that up to now, a large part of the price stabilization program has been devoted to informing businessmen of their obligations under the OPS regulations which have been battle against inflation."

He added however, "We can now demonstrate to the consumer the benefits under the stabilization program and can show him that he has a more definite and greater role than ever to play in the battle against inflation.

Citing some examples, Hoffmann points out that when the consumer visits a department store he is confronted with signs denoting the selling price of the items. If he goe at ohhe grocery store, he will find OPS classification signs, and will find selling prices clearly visible on merchandise or on shelves or bins containing meat the butcher, he will find selling chandise. When the consumer visits prices marked on the cuts of beef or on the trays displaying the cuts.

At the service station, he will see the ceiling prices of petroleum products, sold at retail prices, and will also find ceiling prices posted for services, such as car washing and tire repairs.

The same situation holds true for furriers, shoe repair shops, laundries and dry cleaners, sitting establishments, and many many other businesses covered. Thus, it can now be sure that the consumer has an accurate guide to use on shopping tors.

Ham-Apple Casserole

Ham and Apple for Thrift Dish

The juicy, flavorful combination of ham and crisp, spicy red apples baked in a casserole, is a grand idea for family dinners and makes a delicious meal in itself when served with a mixed green or jellied salad Both appetizing and nutritious, it's also thrifty now while local markets are featuring choice quality Winesap apples from Washington State at real economy prices.

These tangy red Winesaps are equally good for eating and for use in salads and cooked dishes. The smaller sizes are just right to take into lunch boxes and, since this apple is a good keeper, you can buy in quantity and have them cold and crisp in your refrigerator.

SAVORY HAM-AND-APPLE CASSEROLE

3 cups cooked ham, ground
3 red Winesap apples
½ tsp. dry mustard
Red apple slices crown this savory casserole which may be made with leftover ham.

1 tbsp. onion, grated
1 egg
½ cup milk
1 cup bread crumbs
¼ cup brown sugar
2 tbsps. butter or margarine

Combine ham, mustard, onion, egg, milk and bread crumbs and place in greased baking dish. Core apples and cut into ½ inch thick slices. Arrange slices to overlap on top of ham mixture. Sprinkle with brown sugar and dot with butter or margarine. Bake uncovered in moderate oven (375 degrees) about 40 minutes or until apples are brown and tender. Serves 6.

Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Mills Feted on 25th Anniversary

More than 300 guests greeted the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Cedric E. Mills, who were honored by a reception held recently in the Guild Hall of St. James Episcopal Church on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary.

Greetings were given by the Rt. Rev. Noble C. Powell, Bishop of the Diocese of Maryland, who was accompanied by Mrs. Powell and by the Rev. Charles W. Fox priest in charge of St. Matthews Episcopal Church, of this city.

Musical selections were rendered by Miss Doris Oswell, Miss Verna Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair Swan, and by the Senior Choir of St. James Church, under the direction of William N. Parrott, choirmaster. Incidental music was played throughout the evening by a string ensemble, led by James Jonge.

Presentations of gifts were made by Dr. Charles R. Campbell, Mr. Samuel Phillips and Mrs. Luvinia M. Dougherty.

Mrs. Mills was attired in a silver lace gown, worn over silver taffeta with rhinestone accessories. Her corsage of butterfly orchids was presented by members of the parish.

Mrs. Grace J. Smith and Mrs. Luvinia M. Dougherty were co-chairmen of the committee arranging the affair. Sub-committee chairmen were Stedman Creig, Samuel Phillips, Mrs. Barbara Holliday and Mrs. Ethel Hocles.

Among the members of the committee were: Howard Murphy, Mrs. Howard Murphy, Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Delphine Myers, Mrs. Evelyn Fax Roller, Mrs. Xaveria McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. William N. Parrott;

Nectar, Peaches for New Pie

Here's a delicious "Nectar and Peach Pie" that has real fall flavor. It's covered with strips of pastry to show off its luscious dried peach and peach whole fruit nectar filling. A little cinnamon gives a touch of spiciness.

Make it this way:

2 cups dried peaches
1½ cups peach whole fruit nectar
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons cornstarch
3/4 cup granulated sugar
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ teaspoon cinnamon

Pastry for single 8-inch crust and strip top

Rinse peaches, cover with water and boil 10 minutes. Drain and slice. Combine all filling ingredients. Heat to boiling and cook and stir 5 minutes. Pour into pastry-lined pie pan and cover with pastry strips. Bake in very hot over (450 degrees F.) 10 minutes. Reduce temperature to 350 degrees F. and continue baking 20 minutes longer. Cool before cutting.

Serves 6.

Tomatoes, Apples, Peaches Best Food Buys This Week

By RUSSELL C. HAWES
Marketing Specialist

Tomatoes, Apples—54 pt orbar.

Among the new "firsts" of the season for Maryland grown fresh produce this week may be found tomatoes, new apples and peaches. These items surely emphasize that native production is really here and that local produce is the highlight in our markets, states Russell C. Hawes, Marketing Specialist, University of Maryland Extension Service.

"Week's Best Buys" include snap-beans, cabbage, squash, beets, lettuce, and white potatoes. Maryland grown snapbeans are abundant and very reasonable in cost. Several snapbean receipes are available upon request. One of the important green vegetables to invite our attention as we glance at the fresh

Raw Cabbage Advised

Cabbage is arriving in generous amount from nearby farms and is attractively priced. Cabbage is a very desirable and nutritive vegetable when used in the raw state. Another uncooked vegetable reasonably priced and now seasonable is lettuce. Lettuce is one of our most popular vegetables and is used as a base for nearly all salads. In arrivals by rail, lettuce is exceeded only by one other vegetable and that is the white potato.

Potatoes continue to be in plentiful supply and Maryland's crop which is below average in volume is nearly ready for harvest. The states of North Carolina, Virginia, and California are supplying us with most of our potatoes. Bunched carrots are low in cost and are of good quality.

Squash Plentiful

Maryland's production of cucumbers and summer squash now is in volume and both are moderately priced. With a few baked acres of land grown tomatoes noted, notice is served that the Maryland tomato crop soon will be upon us. Virginia shipments of tomatoes are rapidly increasing and the price of tomatoes is moderate.

In fruits, both cantaloupes and watermelons are in heavy supply from Georgia, Arizona, and California are available now. Receipts of southern grown peaches are increasing and are quoted much lower.

Red apple slices crown this savory casserole which may be made with leftover ham.

1 tbsp. onion, grated
1 egg
½ cup milk
1 cup bread crumbs
¼ cup brown sugar
2 tbsps. butter or margarine

Combine ham, mustard, onion, egg, milk and bread crumbs and place in greased baking dish. Core apples and cut into ½ inch thick slices. Arrange slices to overlap on top of ham mixture. Sprinkle with brown sugar and dot with butter or margarine. Bake uncovered in moderate oven (375 degrees) about 40 minutes or until apples are brown and tender. Serves 6.

er.

vegetable counter is cabbage.

As for other fruits, blueberries are moderately priced, grapefruit is still available, strawberries and pineapples are fast disappearing and are on the upward swing, bananas continue to be in plentiful supply and some new crop yellow transparent apples may be had.

Egg Prices Increase

In meats, fryers are highly recommended. Fryers are available in volume, very reasonable in cost, and chicken meat has a definite place in all menu planning during the summer week-ends. Eggs have started on their seasonal advance but still are a good value, pound for pound.

Remember the best buys include squash, beets, snapbeans, potatoes, cabbage, lettuce, cantaloupes, watermelons, fryers, and eggs.

2 tablespoons butter
1 onion, finely chopped
2 cups green beans, freshly cooked
Salt and pepper

Melt butter, add onion and cook until transparent. Add beans and toss with butter. Cook until thoroughly heated.

Lovely Teacher Doubles As Cooking Expert

Schoolteacher Mrs. Jacqueline Dennison, 6530 St. Lawrence Avenue, Chicago, is such a good cook — she gives friends lessons in cooking: "The first lesson for being a good cook is to always use Carnation Milk," she says. "It's so rich and creamy, it makes all milk dishes extra special."

If you want Carnation's famous richer flavor, you've got to get Carnation. Not just any brand on your grocer's shelf. But Carnation — the world's largest-selling brand.

When you mean evaporated milk, say "Carnation. Because you can't buy a richer, creamier milk anywhere.

You can make your dull, dry, hard-to-manage hair sparkle like diamonds! Use Pluko Hair Dressing and see how it brings out highlights. With Pluko your hair looks softer, longer, silkier—becomes so easy to arrange.
BE SMART!
To have lovelier looking hair use Pluko everytime you comb your hair. White, 50c. Amber, 25c. Just ask for Pluko.
