Radio Sorry For Ameche Epithet

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The four-year-old Liberty Radio Network, John Dunnigan, vice-president, gave the newness of the business as the reason why it permitted the use of offensive epithets applied to colored persons.

Original complaint was filed by Thomas Young president of the Norfolk Journal and Guide.

He heard a network program "Breakfast With Danny and Jim" over WCAV, Norfolk, June 21.

Hateful and Insulting

Mr. Young said "the hateful and insulting epithet was used a half-dozen times, not in the tradition of Stephen Foster songs, but in the Danny and Jim dialogue."

He demanded an explanation and an apology.

Mr. Dunnigan said that he was sorry and that the use of epithets would not be repeated.

The offensive program originated in Chicago in the home of Jim Ameche (brother of Don. The other actor in the show is Danny O'Neal.

The subject of the show was Stephen Foster, who wrote many southern songs 50 years ago in which he employed n—r and d—y.

Realistic and Representative

Mr. Dunnigan said the use of epithets by Ameche was done to make the show realistic and representative of the South. He added that the Ameche colored butler was in the show and had passed on it.

Mr. Young advised him that neither colored nor white butlers were qualified as censors of radio and pointed out that other networks have banned epithets.

The Liberty Network, Mr. Dunnigan told the AFRO, has its chief office in Dallas, Texas, and includes 400 stations, chiefly in the South.

It has outlets WBMD, Baltimore; WNAV, Annapolis, and WOL Its Washington office is at 1000 Connecticut Ave.

Charles Harper Becomes Area Chesterfield Man

WASHINGTON

Charles S Harper Jr. of 1525 Druid Hill Ave., Baltimore, whose ambition is to become a member of the promotional department of a big national concern and eventually own his own big business, has reached his first objective.

The 32-year-old Morgan State College graduate was recently appointed a sales representative for Chesterfield Cigarettes. The appointment came through in May, marking the first time a colored person has been hired by the cigarette company in this capacity in Washington and Baltimore.

"I've always wanted to get into the promotional department of a national product," he told the AFRO, "and really learn how they operate. My ultimate goal is owning my own business and I feel I can only make it a success by learning with a big company."

Native Of Virginia

The personable young cigarette representative is a native of Leesburg, Va. and a 1950 graduate of Morgan, where he majored in business administration. While at Morgan he gained much popularity as president of Morgan State Acapella Choir.

Mr. Harper, son the Rev. Charles S. Harper Sr., pastor of St. Paul Methodist Church, Saratoga and Schroder Sts., Baltimore, is a veteran of World War II.

He served as a sergeant with the 3950th Trucking Co., the outfit that supplied gas for the tanks under General Patton's command during his swift march through North Africa.

Mr. Harper is married to the former Miss Charlotte Holsey, of Baltimore, a school teacher. They have two daughters, Cheryl, 4, and Angela, 2. His hobbies are music and photography.

'First Run' Films of The Week in Review

By E. B. REA

A picture chapter of Middle Border history is opened in RKO Radio's "Best of the Badmen," in color by Technicolor, now at the Met.

Robert Ryan, Claire Trevor, Jack Buetel and Robert Preston are cast in starring roles.

Laid in the period after the close of the Civil War, the film deals with a group of former Confederate cavalrymen who are driven to outlawry by the activities of the scheming carpetbaggers pouring into the ansas territory.

A Union officer who endeavors to help them regain their citizenship makes a powerful enemy, and to save his life has to throw in his lot with the outlaws, who include the James boys and Younger brothers.

FILM ON COLLEGE

LIFE AT THE REGENT

"Take Care of My little Girl," now at the Regent, propels onto the screen for the first time the snobbishness of college sorority life.

Told against an entertaining college background, the picture reveals the controversial aspects of the sorority issue without assuming eha pattern of a "problem" picture.

Jeanne Crain co-stars with Dale Robertson, Jean Peters and Mitzi Gaynor, a top dancer, who is making her fist bid for dramatic honors.

Miss Crain plays the role of the daughter of a Greek letter society member who enters a midwestern university idealistic about membership but becomes disillusioned by first-hand learning of its inequities and infirmities.

'UNDER THE GUN' PACS HIGH SUSPENSE

"Under the Gun," starring Richard Conte and Audrey Totter, is a tense, fast-moving, semi-documentary of life in the Harlem district of New York City.

The story deals with a primitive prison system whereby a trusty, who kills another convict attempting toescape, is automatically eligible for parole.

Conte plays a New York gangster who becomes involved in a small-town killing and is sentenced to the local prison.

His sinister design for engineering his own release by killing another convict is one of the suspense highlights of the year.

BLONDE BEAUTY KEY IN RAQUET PROBE

Barry Sullivan and Arlene Dahl are two of the principals in MGM's "No Questions Askeo," now at the New Albert along with Estelita Rodriguez in "Cuban Fireball."

"No Questions Asked" is a fast-moving, streamlined drama of a young lawyer who tries to get righ the easy way by becoming the go-between for insurance companies and big-time crooks.

"Cuban Fireball," which also costars Warren Douglas, is a romantic all of her Latin charms as a singer, dancer and comedienne.

'Queen for Day' in Panama City

PANAMA CITY, R.P. — (ANP) As was expected, Marian Anderson, contralto, thrilled a crowded Central Theatre (capacity 1700) with songs of the great masters and spirituals in her recent and first appearance in Panama.

She was sponsored by Westerman Concerts as President Alicibiades Arrenemeu and his cabinet, Panama Canal governor Francis K. Newcomer, the American Embassy staff and the diplomatic corps paid her due honors.

A mixed audience heard the lady who was treated as royalty as the queen from her landing her from Medellin, Colombia. Miss Anderson had been on a Latin American-Caribbean tour, winding up her current itinerary in Panama.

Greeted at Airport

When she arrived here Miss Anderson was met at the airport by representatives of Panama's women's groups who showered her with flowers and presents.

Later she graciously gave a press conference in the Hotel El Panama where she registered.

Miss Anderson noted that colored residents of the U.S. do not know much about Panama. "I do wish that more of them would come here to know more about this wonderful country," she said.

D.C. Youths Score in Benefit Show

FREDERICKSBURG, Va. — A capacity crowd jammed the Walker Grant High School auditorium last Friday night to witness a benefit variety show composed of a group of young entertainers from Washington.

The show was staged by Clarence R. Todd, local civic worker and Mrs. Gladys Todd, head of the colored division of the recreation department.

$48.40 Gets Singer A Court Summons

RICHMOND

Sister Rosetta V. Thorpe of 207 Barton Ave. will appear in Civil Justice court July 12 to answer to a garnishee summons taken out by the Lutto Jewelers Inc. for $48.40.

The case was originally scheduled for last Thursday but was postponed. Also named as defendant in the suit is William J. Bailey of 516 E. Ladies Mile Rd.

ON LOCAL SCREENS

Barry Sullivan lets himself be hoodwinked by beautiful Arlene Dahl in this scene from "No Questions Asked," at the New Albert.

Carol Brannon (center), the so- and Jean Peters in "Take Care ... rority, non - conformist who of My Little Girl," now playing ... speaks her mind to Jeanne Crain on the Regent screen.

Richard Conte and Audrey Totter in "Under the Gun," thrilling packed gangster story, now playing the Harlem.

Morehouse College Honors 2 Leaders

ATLANTA—Honorary degrees of doctor of laws and doctor of divinity, respectively, were conferred at Haverford College June 5 upon Dr. Ira DeA. Reid, and the Rev. Olin B. Tracy during the 84th commencement exercises at Morehouse College.

Dr. Reid, Morehouse '22, is chairman of the department of sociology.
