2,000 Youngsters Join in Holiday Recreation

In spite of the threatening rain, nation celebrating the 175th Anniversary of America's Independence, over 2,000 youngsters flocked to Bureau of Recreation playgrounds throughout the city to join with the Fourth" as the theme.

Leaders planned seasonal programs with "Safe and Sane

Even during the downpour of rain, events continued at Druid Hill Park where the major event was held. Many parents watched the young ones compete, crowding the sidelines and making it difficult to run the events. Many out-of-towners visiting the park joined the activities. Firecrackers were often mistaken for the starters' guns.

As usual there was a large number of lost youngsters but only a few minor incidents occurred.

La Beach Sets Pace for Olympics' Win

WOODBURY, N.J. — The Baltimore Olympic Club, in its first year as an interracial organization, captured the team title in the field championships here Independence Day.

Sam LaBeach, recently graduated Morgan State College cinder star, set the pace for the former Baltimore Monumental City club, taking down a double-for the afternoon and anchoring the championship mile relay quartet.

LaBeach, in addition to winning the 220 and 440-yard dashes, smashed the existing records for those two events, despite intermittent rainfall which dotted the cinder track with puddles of water. The Jamaican ace was caught in 23.5 seconds in the 220, clipping one full second off the mark set last year by Ed Moore of the Penn A. C. Later, LaBeach captured the quarter-mile test in 50.8 seconds, thus lowering the 51.4, made by the 1950 winner, Jim Reardon, of Schanahan Catholic Club, of Pennsylvania.

The 100-yard dash was won by Lou Mathis, of J. O. Williams's Falcon A. C., in 10 seconds flat, one tenth of a second faster than he time made by Joe Gaffney, of Shanahan, last year. Gaffney was second in Wednesday's running, Shanahan, last year. Gaffney was second and a third in the 220, with Preston Jewette and Mathis chasing LaBeach to the wire in that event.

The Olympics accumulated 44½ points with the Falcon A. C. second with 26 points. Third was Shanahan C. C., with 22½.

Summaries follow:

Northwest Stars Humble Dukes

The N.W. Stars, behind the two-hit pitching of C. Thomas, defeated the Royal Dukes, 8-2, in the opening game of P.S. No. 122 softball league.

With G. Brown, the Star's flashy catcher, getting a triple, doubled and single in four trips, and W. Carter getting a triple and double, the Stars were never in danger.

FAMOUS NEGRO MADAMS

An amazing article on famous Negro madams who "ruled the roost" in some of the better known houses in the United States. The girls came and went but the madams went on forever. No other magazine ever had such complete information to work with and no other magazine ever dared to print such a story. Read it in the August issue of Negro Digest.

Thomas Repeats Md. Open Golf Victory

Long hitting Bus Thomas, of Arlington, Va., captured the Maryland State Open golf championship for the second straight year here Independence Day when he completed the 27-hole test with a card of 109.

Thomas emerged the victor in a gruelling battle which saw five other competitors in a blanket finish.

Al Tilghman, of this city, Bob Crawford, Dick Mahan, Reuben Brooks and Ollie Reid, all of Washington, came off the field away that order, with only one stroke separating them. Tilghman was runner-up to Thomas with 110; Crawford was third at 111; and Mahan, Brooks and Reid were tied for fourth with scores of 112.

Crawford and Brooks shared medalist honors with qualifying rounds of 35.

Stewart Pro Winner

The professional title went to Baltimore's Chek Stewart, who toured the Clifton Park course in 108.

Two flights were contested under the championship class, and winners were Reese Redick, of Havre de Grace in the first flight and Jack Hasty, of Annapolis in the second.

In the women's division, Evelyn Wright, of Washington, won the championship bracket, with Adelaide Adams, also of Washington, grabbing first flight honors.

Wins In Playoff

Redick and Ken Brown, another Washingtonian, tied at 117 for the first flight spoils, and he mer won out in the playoff. Dr. Brown was second, R. Hall, Washington, was third, and A. Johnson, Philadelphia, and Dutch Jones, Baltimore, ended up tied for fourth.

Behind Hasty's 118, in the second flight were Dave Stroman, of Washington, with 123; P. Chase, Philadelphia, 124, and Roosevelt McCaskill, Balimore high school boy, 126.

Evelyn Wright also needed a playoff with Amelia Lucas, of Washington, before she won crowned women's champion. Lorraine Sawyer, Pennsylvania State titlist, was third at 135, followed by Hazel Foreman, of Washington, the defending champion in this tournament.

Tan Athletes Cop 5 Swiss Track Titles

BASLE, Switzerland —With colored stars capturing five titles, a burning American track and field team swept the card in an international competition here Thursday.

Jim Golliday, freshman speedster from Northern Illinois University, scored a "double" for the day, winning the 100 meters in 10.3 seconds and the 200 meters in 21.4.

Also scoring impressive victories were George Rhoden, of Morgan State College captain and star; Roscoe Browne, one-time Lincoln University hall-miler, and Arnold Webb, Brooklyn College senior.

Rhoden his specialty, the 400 meters in 46.5 seconds, and finished second to Golliday in the 200. Browne, now of the New York Pioneers, won the 800 meters in 1:53, and Webb cleared the bar at six feet, five and nine-sixty-fourths inches to gain high jump honors.

NBA Lists 5 Champions, 6 'Logical Contenders'

WASHINGTON

Further evidence of how top faces are continuing to dominate the world boxing picture is couched in the quarterly ratings of the National Boxing Association, released on Thursday.

Five of the eight championships are in the hands of colored fighters —the heavyweight, middleweight, welterweight, lightweight and featherweight.

Champions listed, in case there is some question in the mind of the reader, are: Ezzard Charles, heavyweight; Sugar Ray Robinson, middleweight; Kid Gavilan, welterweight; Jimmy Carter, lightweight, and Sandy Saddler, featherweight.

More than that, six tan boxers are named among the "logical contenders," slated by the association to fill in without a heavyweight division; Archie Moore, Bob Satterfield and Harold Johnson in the light-heavyweight class; Johnny Bratton among the welterweights; and Freddy Dawson, lightweight.

Although there is the usual number of challengers classed as "outstanding boxers" in his division, Sugar Ray Robinson is without a "logical contender" as king of the 160-pounders.

Moore In Draw

BEUNOS AIRES—Archie Moore, Veteran St. Louis lightheavyweight contender, fought a 12-round draw with Chrles Sys, of Belgium, here Saturday night.
