Officer Wins Race From Bold Challenger

Albert Foster who challenged a policeman to a foot race and lost, was given a suspended jail sentence this week for being a bad loser.

Officer Jerome Harrison said he was arresting Foster on June 28 for breaking bottles in the street when the man said, "I'm going to see if you can beat me running through this alley," and broke away.

Foster lost the race, but struck the patrolman in the chest with his elbow after he was caught.

'Didn't Hurt Me'

"He didn't hurt me," the officer of Northeastern district, told Judge Herman Moser. The sentence was suspended when Anthony Federico, attorney for Foster, said the man had already paid a $25 fine and served seven days in jail before appealing the magistrate's verdict to the higher court and Judge Moser.

Bill Would Ban Bail for Reds

House Measure Hits Civil Rights Congress

(NNPA)

Rep. Francis E. Walter, democrat, Penna., introduced Monday a bill to prevent organizations listed as subversive by the Attorney General from posting bail in any Federal cases.

"As is obvious, the purpose of this bill is to prevent such notorious Communist fronts as the Civil Rights Congress from serving as a cover up for other individuals and organizations who might want to post bail for persons charged with subversive activities, or convicted of subversive activities and out on appeal," said Mr. Walter, a member of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

"The Civil Rights Congress today is obstructing justice, in my opinion, by refusing to give the court information which might aid in the capture of the four persons convicted of seeking to overthrow our government by force and who are refugees from justice," he charged.

Four Reds Forfeit Bail

"This is an outrageous situation, and I don't believe the founding fathers of our country intended the Constitution and Federal laws to defeat justice in this fashion."

The issue stems from the disappearance of four first-string Communists, who failed to show up in N.Y.C. July 2 to begin three to five-year prison terms. They were convicted of conspiracy to advocate violent overthrow of the government. Their bail, totaling $80,000, was forfeited. It had been posted for them by the Civil Rights Congress.

Judge Sylvester Ryan of the Federal District Court in NYC called in and questioned trustees of the Civil Rights Congress bail fund in an effort to find out the names of individuals who have put up about 1,000,000 with the fund to bail out Reds.
