AME Bishop's Wife Buried

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. — Funeral services for Mrs. W. Sampson Brooks, widow of Bishop Brooks of the AME Church, who died last week at her home Tuesday afternoon at Bethel AME Church.

Born in New Bedford, she was graduated from New Bedford High School, the Swain Free School of Design, Harrington Normal and Training School and received the L.L.D. degrees from Wilberforce University. For a number of years she taught in the Howard Orphan's Home, N.Y.

Later she joined the faculty of the William Taylor School and remained there for 29 years. On the anniversary of her 25th year at the school, the principal and teachers presented her with a painting of "The Dutch Flower Girl. She retired in 1930.

Mrs. Brooks was one of 12 women to form the Northeastern Federation of Colored Women's Clubs and was president for 27 years. She also was president of the National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, president of the New England Conference Branch Woman's Mite Missionary Society and had traveled extensively.

One of Mrs. Brooks' outstanding achievements was the founding of the New Bedford Home for Aged which became incorporated by the State of Massachusetts. The former Miss Elizabeth C. Carter, she was married to Bishop Brooks in 1901 and then lived in San Antonio, Texas, until the death of her husband in 1934.

Last Photos of Mrs. Fernandis

Mrs. Sarah C. Fernandis, first social worker in Baltimore, who died last week at the age of 88 is shown in one of her last public appearances chatting with Mrs. Ethel L. Young, the AFRO Ideal Mother for 1948, of Raliegh, N.C. Mrs. Fernandis and Mrs. Young were graduates of Hampton Institute. Mrs. Fernandis finished the Virginia school in 1881 and Mrs. Young was a 1911 graduate. H. U. Prexy's Son Not Married--Yet

WASHINGTON — Reports that Capt. Mordecai Johnson Jr., son of the president of Howard University and Miss Enid Tucker of 1825 S St., N.W. were married last June were denied by Miss Tucker Thursday.

Miss Tucker confirmed the fact that they had applied for a license in Rockville but said that the wedding would not take place until September 2.

The AFRO received information that Capt. Johnson, who is now an officer in the U.S. Army Dental Corps and stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga., and Miss Tucker were married on June 6, in Rockville by a Rev. William B. Adams, a white Baptist minister.

Minister Confirms Report

The Rev. Mr. Adams told the AFRO on Thursday that he had married a Capt. Mordecai Johnson Jr., son of Dr. Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard University within the last month or six weeks. He did not remember the bride's name.

In checking with the marriage license bureau in Rockville, the clerk said that the couple were actually married on June 6.

Miss Tucker told the AFRO that she and the captain have talked with the Rev. Mr. Adams but "we until after August 19."

Captain Married Before

Capt. Johnson was formerly married to the former Miss Joe Louise Lattimore of Lufkin, Texas but they have been in the process of getting a divorce.

The captain has two children from this union.

Miss Tucker, who is the daughter of Wendell T. Tucker, superintendent of the Industrial Home Training for Colored Boys in Blue Plains and Mrs. Madeline Tucker, said they plan to get married on September 2 in Rankin Chapel at Howard University. She said that the captain is due in the city on Saturday morning.

Miss Tucker is employed at the Bureau of National Affairs, 24th St., between M and N, as a clerk in the office of the circulation manager. She holds a bachelor of arts degree from Barnard College of Columbia University and is a graduate of Dunbar High School.

Dr. and Mrs. Mordecai Johnson could not be reached for comment. Other Howard University sources said they could not reach the president for a statement.

Rev. L. K. Daniels, "Good Servant"

Some 300 persons attended funeral services, last Thursday, at Mount Hebron Baptist Church and heard the Rev. Luke K. Daniels, former assistant pastor there, eulogized as "a good and faithful servant of the Lord."

The eulogy was delivered by the Rev. James H. Matthews, pastor of the church.

A native of North Carolina, the Rev. Mr. Daniels died July 8 in a local hospital after a prolonged illness.

Describing his associate as "a good and faithful servant who has fought a good fight," the Rev. Mr. Matthews declared:

Loved By Congregation

"I will miss him very, very much. He was of great value to me in carrying on the work of the church, and was loved by the congregation."

The late Rev. Daniels formerly served as pastor of Galilee Baptist Church on North Point Road. Speakers at the funeral included the Rev. Nathaniel Mundy, present pastor of Galilee Baptist, the Rev. W. D. Dawson, Rev. A. L. Bailey, Rev. Claude Kitchen, Rev. Mack Johnson, and Rev. Samuel E. Matthews, also of Mount Hebron.

The Rev. Mr. Daniels, who lived at 458 Oxford Ct., is survived by his wife, Mrs. Isabella Daniels. He is also survived by three daughters, one son, two step-daughters, two sisters, three grandchildren and two great-grand children.

Burial was in Western Star Cemetery, Catonsville.

Laurel Cemetery Due Face Lifting

As a result of a $150 fine levied, this week, in Housing Court, clean-up operations are due to start today (Friday) at Laurel Cemetery.

John G. Kaufman, president of the cemetery association, who was fined by Magistrate Helen E. Brown, told the court weeds would be destroyed and trash and debris removed.

Charges against the cemetery association officials were brought on ground that the run-down condition of the burial plot constituted a health menace.

DEADLINE DRAWS NIGH:

Cash Prizes Offered to Attractive Local Girls

Girls who want to cash in on their good looks, who are interested in receiving hundreds of dollars for being beautiful should join the throng filing entries in the Miss Arrow Beer Bathing Beauty Contest.

The deadline for filing application is July 24, 1951. All entries must be in by midnight of that date.

Interest in the novel idea, sponsored jointly by the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers and the Globe Brewing Company, makers of Arrow Beer, is running high. There is considerable speculation as to who will garner the bathing beauty crown of "Miss Arrow Beer."

$200 Bond Prize

First place winner will receive a $200 savings bond, a loving cup, and also be given an opportunity to act as a professional model for Arrow Beer.

The second-place runner-up will be awarded a $100 bond, and a loving cup. A $50 savings bond and a loving cup is prize for the third-place winner.

Must Be Over 21

Contestants, who must be over 21 years of age, may enroll in the contest by filling in the accompanying entry blank and mailing it to "Miss Arrow Beer Contest," AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers, 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore 1, Md.

The preliminary contest will be held at Carr's Beach on Sunday July 29. The finalists will be reviewed by three competent and well-known judges on Sunday, Aug. 5, also at Carr's Beach.

So come on girls, make your beauty pay off in cash. Win the "Miss Arrow Beer" crown and be the most talked-about girl in Baltimore.

Miss Willia Bland of 705 N. Stricker St., curvaceous Carson model, is typical of the Baltimore and Washington beauties entered in the "Miss Arrow Beer Contest" sponsored jointly by the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspaper and the Globe Brewing Company.

Driver Held in Death of 60-Year-Old Man

A 60-year-old man struck by an automobile at East and Orleans Sts. on July 1, died Wednesday, as a result of his injuries.

That same day, the driver, Frank Nemic, 21-year-old white clerk, was released under $1000 bail for a State's attorney's hearing on the charges of manslaughter.

The victim was Leroy Crier who lived at 733 Vine St. Central district police say he was crossing the intersection about 8:30 p.m. when the car struck him.

Hit by Auto, Man Critically Hurt

Irvin Knox, 58, 1107 Orleans St., is still in a critical condition at Mercy Hospital from injuries suffered when hit by an automobile, Tuesday night.

A sedan driven by Richard T. Shields was westbound on Orleans St. near Forrest St., when it struck Knox as he was crossing the street.

Taken to the hospital in a municipal ambulance the man's injuries were diagnosed as a fractured skull, fractured leg, and internal injuries.

Amrein Hearing Off Until Next Tuesday

Hearing for Lt. Ralph H. Amrein on charges of borrowing $5000 from a Baltimore gambler has been postponed until Tuesday at 2 p.m. It was orginally set for July 19.

The postponement was granted at the request of the lieutenant's attorneys who asked more time to prepare their defense.
