Former Slum Dwelling Is Now a Model of Beauty

Kitchen and Bathroom in Model House

Mrs. Annie Lewis admires the modernistic bathroom in the model house used to signal the importance of repair and construction in the Baltimore Plan. The house at 1233 Durham St. has modern plumbing and all new fixtures.

Mrs. Virgie Pridie admires the Pilot house. Before its rehabilitation, this kitchen was so filthy and ramshackle it was hardly fit for human occupancy. Other rooms in the house also underwent similar changes.

350 Attend Dedication of Brotherhood Pilot House

Renovated from a run-down slum dwelling to a shining example of what may be accomplished through cooperation, the Brotherhood Pilot House was dedicated, Thursday.

Some 350 persons were on hand when Mayor D'Alesandro pointing out that Baltimore through the Pilot House was adding another "first," turned over the keys to Mrs. Viola Jackson, principal of School No. 124 and one of the key workers in the Baltimore Plan.

New Information Center

The house at 1213 Durham St. will serve as an information center in the pilot area of 27 East Baltimore blocks selected for the first project under the pilot program.

The program will show what can be accomplished by enforcement of housing and sanitation laws, coordination of all city sanitation agencies and cooperation of citizens.

Committee Lauded

Mrs. Jackson is chairman of the Neighborhood Committee of the Pilot Program which has gone into the area to acquaint citizens with the program and to win their confidence and cooperation. Her committee has been lauded for the excellent job it has done along the lines, particularly through the schools of the area.

In accepting the keys to the Pilot House, Mrs. Jackson stressed the three "r's" not "reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic," but "r" for rank, meaning the citizens who will benefit from the Pilot Program; "r" for responsibility to see that the Pilot House is used wisely, and "r" for the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Called "Living Example"

Mayor D'Alesandro referred to the house as an "inspiring and living example of cooperation" and a "demonstration of the faith and work of many people."

The former slum dwelling, once a four-room unheated building, now has six rooms, central heating, indoor toilet and bathing facilities. A bathroom and kitchen were added on.

It was in 1950 that the congregation of the Church of the Brethren formed Brotherhood Service Inc., which raised $1200 to buy what is now the Pilot House.

The Maryland Home Builders Association donated $1500 for repairs, and the Church of the Brethren is making up the difference between the $1500 and the final cost of $2,260.

The walls have been replastered, the house has been rewired, roof, outside walls and rainspouting were repaired, the cellar floor was cemented and the stairs rebuilt, the ground floor was rat-proofed, backyard landscaped, new pine floors were laid and numerous other improvements were made.

Much of the work was done by Brethren volunteers, and two of them are serving at the information desk.

Here, any resident of the Pilot Area, may come with questions, or for guidance, explanations or advice. The house will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Celebrated Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones celebrated their fifth wedding anniversary at their home, 1134 N. Stricker St., Baltimore, on June 30. Mrs. Jones is the former Mrs. Devilla Lattimore. Both are ardent church workers, Mr. Jones being a deacon and clerk at the Enon Baptist Church and she a deaconess at Macedonia Baptist Church.

South Baltimore Notes

The Modernette Pleasure Club of Mount Winans and some 200 guests toured the beauty spots of western Maryland and Pennsylvania recently on a trip to Forest Park, Hanover, Pa. Mrs. Corinne Smith is president of the club.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Parker, and Mesdames Gertrude Parker, Venneta P. Butler and Edna P. Ross are visiting relatives and friends in Ohio and Illinois. They plan to return to Baltimore July 29.

Founder's Day Program

The Ebenezer AME Church choir and congregation will take part in the Founder's Day program at Star of Bethlehem AME Church on July 29.

Other neighboring churches to attend are First Baptist, and Mount Winans Methodist.

Among the early leaders in Star of Bethlehem church were the late R. Ellsworth Hill, the late Rev. P. Shuman, Rev. John W. Norris, Misses Ethel and Florence Johnson and the late Elmer A. Henderson.

Caldwell Requests Release From Jail

(By NNPA)

WASHINGTON — Attorneys for Bennie C. Caldwell, night club operator sentenced to a term of twenty months to five years' in prison, last Thursday, filed a petition in the United States Court of Appeals here for his release on bail pending his appeal.

Caldwell was convicted of tampering with the jury during the trial of William (Snags) Lewis, a white gambler who frequented Club Bali, a high spot operated by Caldwell.

Since his conviction a grand jury has been inquiring into the matter of an alleged attempt to remove from the District Attorney's office the file in the Caldwell case, including reports of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The petition for release contains the sensational matters developed during the hearing on the motion for a new trial, involving the conduct of the District Attorney's office.

The petition also asserts that Caldwell's constitutional rights have been violated and that there are several substantial questions of law involved in the appeal. Caldwell has been in jail ever since his conviction late in May.

Guests Forget Heat at Gay Lawn Party

With Lula Jones Garrett

By ODESSA WILSON

"Dog days" are here . . . and there's nothing like a lawn party to swerve one's mind from the heat the weather man keeps sending us.

Jannie Lyles and Christine Madden must have had this in mind when they entertained members of the Clinging Vine Social Club at the Jesse Lyles' home on Lee Road in Glen Burnie last week.

About were the Janvan Higginses of New York, the Robert Pettigrews of Washington, the Creed DeNeals, Dallas Wickses, James Powells, Jessie Morrises, William Hunters, Jerrold D. Griffins, William Macks, Granville Garners, Charles Browns, Thomas Parkses, William Johnsons, Misses Marian Jones, Rebecca Taylor and Mrs. Pearl Agnew.

PLAN LAWN PARTY

The National Council of Women, Baltimore branch, is sponsoring a lawn party and popularity contest at Morgan State College Aug. 1. Proceeds will help purchase a TV set for Boys' Village. Mrs. Celia Crawford is chairman of the affair.

Christina Carr took her party to Beechwood Park a week ago. Among those there were Cynthia Camper Kennedy, Myrtle Branch, Betty Scott, Ida Westbrook Rogers, Ann Hughes McAllister, Mazie Barbour, Dorothy Sheffley, Ralph Jones, Douglass Camper and Milton Burley.

CALIFORNIAN HERE

Former Baltimorean, Mrs. Ruth B. Campbell, now making her home in California, was honoree at a luncheon hosted by Bertha R. Fleming recently.

Guests included Mesdames Ruth Campbell, Lillian Reid, Josephine Maxwell, Ruth Johnson, Norma Smith, Elizabeth Berry.

Also Eva Creigler, Roberta Clark, Fannie Ewell, Fannie Lawson, Viola Freeman and Edith Spruill.

Misses Annie Mae Batson, Mattie Callis, Anne Calhoun and Ida Chisolm.

ENGAGEMENT TOLD

Mr. and Mrs. James I. Johnson have announced the engagement of their daughter, Edna M. to Ralph Accoo, New York attorney. The wedding will take place on Sunday, Aug. 5 at 2 o'clock at Enon Baptist Church.

The reception will be held at 742 Dolphin St., the home of Miss Johnson's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Rawlings.

The bride-elect, who now lives in New York, studied at Hunter College and the Traynham School of Designing. She is a government employee. Mr. Accoo is formerly of Camden, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. Leverring Williams of Towson have announced the engagement of their daughter, John-
