A&T Chemistry Prof

GREENSBORO—Dr. Ferdinand M. Bluford, president of Agricultural and Technical College, revealed Thursday that James Fenderqrast, professor of chemistry, has been awarded a fellowship by the Fund for the Advancement of Education for the academic year 1951-52.

Mr. Pendergrast has been active in educational spheres close to the college for a number of years. Dr. Bluford said. Being graduated from A. and T. in 1939, he holds a master of science degree in physical chemistry and is affiliated with numerous honor and scientific societies.

Funeral Rites Held

CHARLOTTE, N.C.—Funeral services were held recently for Crawley Hall who had been ill for more than three years. He died in the State Hospital in Goldsboro. He was the son of Neil Hall and the late Mrs. Trenlove Hall. The Rev. J. B. Humphrey officiated.

He is survived by his father, his wife, Mrs. Bell M. Hall; two daughters, Mrs. Christine Hall of New Jersey; Mrs. Dorothy Hunter of Kings Mountains; one son, D. F. Hall of Gary, Ind; a sister, Mrs. Ophelia Keaton of Shelby; three brothers, Bozie Hall, the Rev. William Hall and Taylor Mitchum.

What's Known as a 'Saxy Singer'

Toni Harper, the teen - age singing sensation, gets lessons on how to play the saxaphone from Bullmoose Jackson, popular bandleader: they both headlined last week's bill at Harlem's Apollo theatre.

Gateway to Gayway

By GEORGE D. TYLER

Tiny Grimes and his ork. have been inked to open at GAMBY's following the Paul Gayten- Earl Williams engagement. This will be Grimes first local nite club date. The 4 Jockeys, Rufus Nance's combo, are doing weekend stints at the SPOT.

Fannie Newton, a Howardite, singing "Because," ran ahead of the five contestants entered in Tuesday nite's talent show at the OLDE MILL. Music is supplied by the Charles Beckles Trio with your columnist doing the Arthur Godfrey. Sally Blair, petite canary, as special guest, rendered a couple of numbers and the gang went wild over the planning and solo work of Emma Floyd.

Jolly Jax Scoring

The COMEDY made no mistake in booking the Jolly Jaxs because they have proven their ability to draw large crowds all during their engagement with their unique instrumental and vocal chores.

"Fats" Warren, formerly of the Jolly Spot, running a successful store at Franklin and Carrollton, now branching out in the real estate biz. Church Anderson, a top pianist, home for a couple of week's rest.

Shades of the past: The CARLTON PLAZA will be the scene of a Charleston contest this weekend, plus many novelty features. Elvera continues to do her chores at the ORLEANS where entertainment is on a weekend basis.

Biz is returning to the 909 Club, over Calhoun Street way, since this spot:s return to Sunday opening with a fully equipped restaurant. The owner, congenial Max, expects to ink in an ace trio in conjunction with Zerita, princess Elvise is behind the bar and Marie arranges those palatable meals . It's smart to be seen hobnobbing at ROY JONES' off the beaten path, Hide-away.

Frolic Still Jumps

The FROLIC is kept jumping by Wilbur (sax) Phillips and his Links, a hot group of instrumentalists. "Razz" is still subbing for the ailing Rudy. . .The 1017 is still going nicely under Myrtle's watchful eyes and the assistence of her very capable staff. . .For a real evening of music and enjoyment try the KNOTTY PINE.

Dropped in on "Skies" who is dishing out the concoctions at SAM'S a quiet and snazzy six-day spot offering courteous service. At the PRESTON you will find the 38s dishing out splendid service, some fine music and prices just rite.

Comes fall the BLUE ROOM of the York Hotel will to offered to clubs and organizations on profit sharing basis. . . .The HILLTOP has been getting quite a play since snagging the Reuben Wood's combo and lots of good artists.

White 'Anna Lucasta' Scheduled at Olney

"Anna Lucasta," in which Hilda Simms and Karl Hyman rose to Broadway stardom, is the next offering at Olney theatre in Maryland, opening next Tuesday, July 31, for a week's run.

An all-white cast, directed by Stanley Gould, will appear in the piece which was first presented in Harlem by the American Negro Theatre. It was written by Philip Yordan, adapted by Abram Hill and Harry Wagstaff Gribble, and produced, after its Harlem debut, by John Wildberg in the Mansfield theatre in New York.

Ann Corio, known for her appearances in night-clubs and on radio and television as well as on the stage, heads the cast at Olney, with Margaret Hamilton and Donald Foster also featured.

New Director

D. C. Collington is the new director of Public Relations for Bethune Cookman College, Daytona Beach, Fla. He received his training at Clark College, Atlanta, Ga. and the graduate School of Journalism of Syracuse University, Syracuse, N.Y.

Localites 'Perform' on RCA Television

Among the Washingtonians who recently visited the electronic display at the RCA exhibition hall in Radio City, NYC, were Mrs. Inez G. McCormick of 2317 High St., S.E., Melvin James Jr., of 957 25th St., N.W., and James M. Curtis of 4122 Grant St., N.E.

Young Matron Jailed on Assault Charge

WINSTON-SALEM — Being held in jail on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon is Mrs. Mary Cherry, 23-year-old woman, who is alleged to have stabbed Nathaniel Holmes, 28, with an ice pick.

The public records in Reynolds Memorial Hospital, where Holmes was treated, showed that he had a punctured liver. Mrs. Cherry, who had a head laceration, said Holmes had hit her on the head with a piece of stove iron.

Tiny Grimes and His Rocking Highlanders

Tiny Grimes and his Rocking Highlanders are currently sharing the new musical H-bar at Gamby's, following a two-week stand by the Paul Layton combo, a pleasing unit.

On the AVENUE

By E. B. REA

BACK ON THE BEAM to find that much has gone down stream during the past two weeks.

SO, THE 'NATURELY' thing to do is catch up with the loose ends and what-have-you.

FIND THAT THE HEAT hasn't cooled off the topics about Police Commissioner Ober calling Capt. Alexander A. Emerson on the carpet for an Oberating.

AND, THAT Lieut. Ralph Amrein might miss being promoted to Captain because of a King-size loan of 5000 smackers.

THEN, UNDER THREATS of a prison term, the Rev. Moses Ezekel Holmes, not only saw the wheel, but grabbed it and rolled out of the State rather than be thrown into the fiery furnace at Maryland State (not college) Pen.

DETECTIVE LLOYD JOHNSON, who's vacationing with his wife in Asbury Park, N.J., had a cab driver refused to pick him up in front of police headquarters, but drove a block up and picked up two white fares.

JUST TO SHOW how tough some of the cabbies are, after Detective Johnson had identified himself to the Diamondeer, the driver told him: "Go ahead and give me a ticket. So, what?" A Central Police Court judge answered with, "$10 and costs."

WEDDING BELLS will toll for Shirley Wood, 2330 N. Stockton St. and McGinnis Williams on August 18. The date was moved up from August 25. Reception will be held at 2809 Parkwood Ave.

ANN JONES, Teddy's other half, pinch-hitting at the Avenue, cocktail lounge...Officer Charles H. Schort retired after 26 years at Northwestern.

Miss Granger

H-BAR GIRLS at Gamby's; Priscilla Granger, Alegn Martin, Bel Brooks and Ruby Chapman . . . Bert Brown, operator of a tourist home, 1600 block Penna. Avenue, a recent victim of the vice squad, believes she is being unduly persecuted despite the fact she's on the legitimate side.

Miss Granger Licensed, that is. GEORGE WILLIAMS, the lawreader, and George Williams, the waiter, hobnobbing at the Comedy Club over who's who. . . Stanford East, who shelved his band in February, doing muscle-work at the Standard Sash and Weight Co.

OOPS, MY DEAR: John K. Lyles, doorman at the Regent Theatre for the past six and one-half years of uninterrupted service, being kidded by friends on his promotion to sergeant first class while serving as an antitank and mine platoon leader in Korea. (So says AFRO story, Tuesday's edition.

MAUDE THOMAS, blues chirp, writes in from Detroit: "Here with Johnny Hodges and Baby Scruggs. Doing Great. Say hello to the gang." (Baby is now playing on stage at the Howard Theatre in D.C.)

THE FORMER Marie Jackson doing the Atlantic City spots while Woody is at sea. Says, "This place is real gone."

VACATION NOTE from Sara Lou Harris, who made her pro debut at Gamby's: "Am at the Senator Hotel's La Vie En Rose Club (Atlantic City). Came down for a week. Will be here three weeks more." She's one of the best lookers ever to hit a local night spot. Married to Buddy Bowser, she has just returned to the footlites after presenting him with a little Bow-Wow.

CAB CALLOWAY's band will appear on the Ed Sullivan TV show Sunday evening and on the Cavalcade of Bands, Tuesday night, July 31. Cab writes: "I honestly feel that this is my greatest band in years, if the not the greatest ever."

THE AVENUE shuddered with the rest of the town when the Kefauver-O'Conor investigating committee moved in recently, but like the moving finger, having writ and moved on, the investigation petered out—Some say because the game was too big to disturb. Others opined that Senator O'Conor might have had re-election ideas.

THE STARLITE ARENA shuttered for keeps and bearing a "For Rent" sign...Pee Wee Wooden's Three Kings and Queen Rose doing a real weekend rhythm session at John Whirley's Ubangi, the upper Stroll's only music center.

HELEN TAYLOR and Thornton Thomas helping Margaret Scott, Alhambra barmaid, make merry at Club 211 while, on vacation, Joe Bailey, pianist, and Raymond Cooper, saxist, operating a Musicians' Hobby Shop at 412 McMechen St.

OTTO THRWEATT has moved his Rittenhouse Cafe from the 1500 block to the 2700 block, near Fulton ...Lester Young and his combo to do a Sunday jazzfest at Carr's Beach.

ESTELLA YOUNG and Artelia Washington, of Cleveland, Ohio, came in last Sunday to attend the birthday observation of their grandmother, Mrs. Isabell Coleman, 80, of 1036 N. Eutaw St. Stella is Baltimore's gift to the dancing world; Artelia, a waitress at Cleveland's Majestic Hotel.

AND, THAT'S AS FAR as we got On and Off the Avenue this week.

40 Beauties Entered in Arrow Beer Contest

Government girls, housewives; in fact a whole bevy of beautiful women from many walks of life are entered in the "Miss Arrow Beer" bathing beauty contest to be held at Carr's Beach, Sunday, June 29.

Over forty young women have submitted applications and last minute entrants still have not been totaled as yet.

Sponsored jointly by the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers and the Globe Brewing Company, makers of Arrow Beer, the contest will determine Baltimore's loveliest girl.

$200 First Prize

The lucky lady chosen as "Miss Arrow Beer" is to receive a $200 savings bond, a chance to model for the company professionally, "Miss Arrow Beer," contest officials have stated, "is going to be the most talked about and the most envied girl in town.

The second-place winner will receive a $100 savings bond and a winning cup. A $50 savings bond will be awarded the third place contestant.

Judges selected to decide who will be "Miss Arrow Beer" are: John R. Procope Jr., AFRO-AMERICAN advertising salesman and Mrs. Lula J. Patterson, AFRO Women's Editor.

Mr. Procope has stated that charm, shapeliness and personality are the three influencing factors that will guide his choice.

Tape-Tested

The girls will be given the tape measure test. Height, weight, waist, bust and ankles will be considered in judging the entrants' physical qualifications.

After Sunday's preliminary contest, the finalists will meet on August 5th at Carr's for a concluding review and one of them will emerge as "Miss Arrow Beer" for 1952.

The public is invited to the contest. It will be held rain or shine.
