Morgan Trackmen Lauded as Goodwill Ambassadors

The three ambassadors of goodwill from Morgan State College during the NAAU and the NCAA meets were George Rhoden, Sam LaBeach, and Arthur Bragg as reported by Bob Rubin, director of the Associated Students of the University of California, and Brutus Hamilton, director of athletics.

Coach Edward P. Hurt was recently informed by these two men that his three men were not only outstanding for their athletic performances but were fine, cooperative young men and a credit to the college and to the sports world.

Rubin writes: "All three of your men were extremely cooperative in helping to publicize the meet for the week they were here in advance of the championships.

"They were most willing to do anything that was asked of them in this regard. In addition to being grand athletes, all three are fine young men."

Hamilton stated in his letter to Coach Hurt that: "Your boys did a wonderful job in every way. They made a splendid impression here in Berkeley and were most gracious in cooperating with the press and radio in helping to promote interest in the meet.

"It was a great pleasure to have them with us and I congratulate you upon the fine work you have done in bringing them along."

For several years now Rhoden and Bragg have spread goodwill throughout the world along with many other track men from Morgan by their outstanding athletic performances and impressive personalities.

Jersey Joe and His Proud Family

Jersey Joe Walcott, who won the heavyweight crown from Ezzard Charles last Wednesday, came home to Camden, N.J., where an estimated 105,000 celebrants lined the route from the airport to the city hall to cheer him lustily. Later, the Walcott family got together for a private homecoming. Jersey Joe and his wife, Lydia, are shown with their children, left to right, Elva, 15; Carol, 6, kissing her dad; Arnold, 17,; Doris, 14; Vincent, 11, and Ruth, 12.

3-Team Double Bill Features Md. Nines

Three Maryland teams will compete in a three-team double-header here Sunday at Westport Stadium.

The first game is scheduled to get underway at 2:00 p.m.

Featured in the event will be The Kent County Monarchs, of Chestertown; the Waterbury (Md.) Giants, and the Baltimore Skulls.

Individuals featured stars for the local entry will be the Rochester Brothers and Big Diggs.

2 Congressmen Laud Walcott

Credit Clean Life, Family Influence

WASHINGTON, (NNPA) — Two New Jersey Congressmen — Rep. Charles A. Wolverton, (Rep., Merchantville), and Peter W. Rodino Jr., of Newark — last Thursday paid tribute to Jersey Joe Walcott, the new world heavyweight boxing champion.

Mr. Wolverton said he has known Walcott, whose real name is Arnold Raymond Cream, for many years. Jersey Joe and his family, consisting of a wife and six children, lived in Merchantville until recently, Wolverton's home town. They now make their home in Camden.

The course Jersey Joe traveled to win the title has been "no easy one," Mr. Wolverton said.

Years of Struggle

The Congressman pointed to Joe's "years of struggle" from the time he worked as a WPA laborer to support himself and his growing family, and "the years of ups and downs" in the boxing game, "consistantly with the thought that some day he would be champion."

"The fact that Joe Walcott at 37 years of age could gain the championship is something that has never been accomplished before in the history of boxing," said Mr. Wolverton, adding:

"His ability to do so leaves no doubt that throughout the years he has lived a clean life. Night clubs and bright spots have never had an attraction for him. His home, with a faithful and splendidly educated wife and six bright, children has been his joy and satisfaction.

Family an Influence

"Too much credit cannot be given to his wife and the children as a helpful influence. It is for them that he has worked and striven, and they honor and respect him as a true and faithful father."

Mr. Wolverton added that "no victory in any major sport has brought forth such genuine and wholehearted expressions of good will, satisfaction and congratulations to the victor as has come to Walcott since his victory."

Mr. Rodino noted that in the moment of his greatest triumph, Jersey Joe did not forget to give thanks to Almighty God.

"In simple, moving, but eloquent language, and with a sincere sense of humility, he (Jersey Joe) expressed the thought that, no matter how many times you lose, if you have God on your side, you will come out a winner in the end.

"This lesson in simple faith is one which should be inspiring to the youth of America and all Americans regardless of color, race, or creed," Mr. Rodino declared.

Eagles and Dolphin A.C. Wins in Diamond Playoffs

Crucial Games on Sunday Pits Post Office Against the Eastside

Duten Booze's Westside Eagles and Dick Dowell's Dolphin A.C. got winning starts last Sunday as the Bureau of Recreation's City Unlimited Baseball Championship playoffs got underway.

The play-offs involving the same four teams as were entered last year opened with two different teams winning games. Last year Eastside and the Post Office got their opening day victories.

The Eagles who have lost only to the Arundels this season outlasted the defending city champion Eastside AA, 15-11, in a slugging duel. The Dolphins who have played in and out ball this season jolted the Post Office, 10-4.

Crucial Games Sunday

The crucial second games come up this Sunday on Druid Hill Park diamond No. 2. The Post Office and Eastside A.A. will be trying to keep alive in the series in a game at 1 p.m. The Westside Eagles face Dolphin A.C. at 3:30 p.m. on the same diamond.

The Westside Royals and Barber Institute won their opening games in the Consolation Double Elimination Tournament Sunday at Druid Hill Park No. 1. The Royals triumphed over Maryland Technical Institute, 8 - 5, and the Barbers shaded the Arundels, 8 - 7. Barber Institute is the defending champion in this tournament.

Maryland Technical Institute meets the Arundels this Sunday on the same diamond at 1 p.m. in a battle of losers. The loser in this game will be automatically eliminated from the tournament. The Westside Royals and Cobra A.C. tangle at 3:30 p.m.

Jr. Dolphins Roll On

The Jr. Dolphins continued to roll in the Monumental Intermediate League by whipping Strand A.C., 6-1. The Greenway Hawks tightened second place in the loop by pinning Strand A.C., 9-4.

The Rockets beat the Northwestern Police Boys Club, 13-8, to take the first round crown in the Monumental Club Junior baseball league and Zodiacs A.C. won by forfeit from the Red Sox to finish second.

Bivins Named Louis's Opponent

To Meet in Stadium Here on August 15

Jimmy Bivins, veteran Cleveland beak-buster has been named here as the opponent for ex-heavyweight champion Joe Louis here Wednesday night, August 15, at Memorial Stadium.

This was revealed late this week to the AFRO by Benny Trotta, head of the Squires Athletic Club, who will promote the battle of big men.

The choice had narrowed down between Rex Layne, who decisioned Jersey Joe Walcott, and Bivins, who has fought here a number of times, but Bivins, on the strength of his local appearances and popularity will have the preference, according to the promoter.

The final decision was handed down after Mr. Trotta conferred with officials of the International Boxing Association officials.

Admission prices for the big outdoor event have been scaled from $2.50 to $8 tops.

New York Mayor to Honor Ray Robinson

NEW YORK—Mayor Impellitteri will appoint a committee to receive Ray Robinson when the former middleweight champion returns to New York on the Liberte on August 2. Robinson will be received at City Hall.

"I believe we should honor Ray Robinson," the Mayor said, "because he has been a strong goodwill ambassador to Europe, for his sportsmanship, and for charitable work he has performed for many worthwhile community endeavors."

The Mayor said that Grover Whalen, chairman of the Mayor's Reception Committee, would be in charge of the ceremonies.

Nat'l Softball Week Observed

Six hundred fans enjoyed the Bureau of Recreation's exciting opening day program of the National Softball Week Celebration at Easterwood Park last Sunday.

Six of the city's best softball teams showed their prowess before the enthusiastic crowd.

A highlight of the exhibition was the spleenfull presentation of the Saint Monica Church Drum and Bugle Corps. The neatly attired group marched and played for twenty minutes during an intermission.

On display too, was the massive Coca Cola Bottles Award to be presented the winner of the State Championships to begin next week.

Crown Tops All Stars

Crown Cork and Seal's power house Easterwood Unlimited League entry blanked the Northwestern Stars — Cherry Hill Trotters combination from the Northwest and Independent Club Leagues 7-0, in the opening game. Jesse Simpson's unbeaten Sportsmen Coeds, top girls team, beat the Recreation All - Stars, coached by Lucille Winefield of the Bureau of Recreation, 5-1, in a highly thrilling contest.

Burt's Nohawks A.C. closed the lid on the opening day celebration by trimming Building Trade School 8 - 6, in a bitterly contested game. The Mohawks represented the West Baltimore Club League. The Trade School represented the Industrial and Trade School loop.

Youngsters Participate

The youngsters got their chance to take part in the first Annual Softball Week on Wednesday at Easterwood Park. The Easterwood Junior League All-Stars drove in three runs in the fourth inning to overtake the Taylor Junior League All-Stars and went on to win, 7-4. The south Baltimore and Cherry Hill Junior League All-Stars teams joined in the celebration at Cherry Hill Park on Thursday.

Crown Cork and Seal Company donated six softballs and Building Trade School six bats to the girls teams who participated in Sunday's program.

Bullets Seeking Don Barksdale

Bob Elmer, business manager of the Baltimore Bullets will fly to the West Coast next Tuesday to confer with Don Barksdale, former UCLA cage star, relative to signing a Bullets' contract for the coming season.

"We are not too optimistic," Elmer told the AFRO this week, "but the Bullets are closer to luring Barksdale than any other team."

If successful in enticing Barksdale to ink a Bullets' pact, the local NBA entry will boast two colored players.

Davage (Dave) Minor, a 6-foot, 2-inch guard, former teammate of Barksdale in the Army and at UCLA, was signed early in July, and is scheduled to report here on Sept. 13.

Both players starred in Coast competition where they led the UCLA teams to conference championships in 1946 and 1947, and both were named on several All-American squads.

Coach Hurt Honored by Texas University

BALTIMORE—Coach Eddie P. Hurt of Morgan State College was selected as one of the most outstanding football coaches in the history of the game by the University of Texas.

The Morgan coach was notified this week of the selection by Ben K. Lewis of the university. The university is making a study which will include the coach's outstanding record.

The recognition of Morgan's record-making coach by the University adds to the long list one more follower and believer in the ability of Coach Hurt, who was chosen the Track Coach of the Year in 1950.

Greenway Hawks Top Strand, 9-4

The Jr. Greenway Hawks, defeated the Strand A.C., 9-4, in an Intermediate Softball League game on Tuesday at Druid Hill Park.

Jackson and Robinson led the winners with three hits apiece. McIntyre, Strand's third-sacker, had a perfect day at bat with four hits out of as many trips to the plate.

Little Roots Split With McCulloh Macs

The Little Roots divided a twin-bill with the McCulloh Macs, dropping the first contest, 12-8, and taking the nightcap, 7-6.

Falcons A.C. Outclasses Field in Rec. Track Meet

Sweeps 12 First Places; LaBeach Wins, Loses; Balto. Girls Shine

WASHINGTON

The Falcons A. C., with Henry (Cubby Perry) Johnson showing the way with a double win over Maryland University's Morty Cohen, dominated the D. C. Recreation Department track and field meet Saturday [illegible]

Capturing eight of 13 first places in the men's division, and four of five in the women's section, the Falcons amassed 126 points to outdistance the Intercastal Baltimore Olympic Club by 36 points. Baltimore Recreation Department was third with 22.

Johnson Upsets Cohen

Undefeated in scholastic ranks, Johnson, an ex-Cardozo star who plans to enter LaSalle College this fall as a freshman, turned the tables on Cohen, outstanding track performer in the Southern Conference.

Johnson, who has been tailing Cohen to the tape in the hurdles for the past two years in area meets upset past his taller opponent to take the 120-yard high hurdles in 15 seconds flat. He completed his double upset when he barely cleared the last hurdle in the 220-yard low hurdles, then outraced Cohen to the tape by a half step in 13.2 seconds.

Cohen, nevertheless took high point scoring honors with 12 points after placing second to Merrellyn Boston of Iowa State, representing the Falcons, in the broad jump. Boston leaped 22 feet.

LaBeach Wins, Then Bows

Morgan College's Sam LaBeach, running for the Baltimore Olympic Club, had it easy in winning the 440 yard dash over James Lewis in 53 seconds. However, it was an upset for LaBeach in the 220 when he was shaded by Joe Walker, Jr., LaSalle College sophomore, in 23.1 seconds.

Walker, Ex-Cardozo High School sprint sensation, overhauled LaBeach on the first turn of the 220 and uncorked a withering burst of speed which took him five yards to the front as he hit the tape.

Walker Heads Relays

The slender runner later teamed up with a fast-stepping trio of George Chapman, Richard Price and Louis Mathis to run away from the Baltimore Olympic Club in both the medley and sprint relays. The Falcon's time in the sprint relay was 44.3 seconds, and in the medley, 1:36.3.

Coach J. O. Williams uncovered a surprise runner in Price, sensational Philadelphia scholastic sprint star. The squat bow-legged runner nosed out teammates Ken Chapman and Mathis in a tightly contested race which saw all three bunched at the tape. Price was clocked in 10 second flat.

Price A Comer

Price later thrilled the crowd in two relays when he took the baton in the rear on his leg, and in his short, choppy strides wiped out the deficit.

Elaine Coleman, Falcon A. C. runner, took top scoring honors in the women's division. She scored 13 ½ points with a first place in the 50 and 100-yard dashes in 6.4 and 12.9 seconds, respectively. She placed second in the high jump, and ran on the winning 200-yard relay team.

McAllister to Face Ortiz

Coliseum Bout Looms as Tops

Bowling brightly along on a successful comeback campaign, Jimmy McAllister headlines the Squires A.C. fight card at the Coliseum Monday night, July 30, against Baby Ortiz of Los Angeles, a stranger here.

Baltimore's outstanding fighter at any weight several years ago when he was a top contender for the featherweight title, Jimmy has expectations of scrambling up there again after being forced to lay off a year because of a broken arm.

Making Gradual Return

Sensibly resuming with a not too ambitious program after his long inactivity, McAllister has appeared twice at the Coliseum since he began fighting again earlier this year.

Each time he fought a semi-windup and each time he made good impressively, winning by technical knockout. He stopped Jorge Valentino in the eighth round and polished off hard-fighting Jimmy Nicholson in five.

First Main Event

The July 30 date will be his first attempt at a main event here since his comeback began and Ortiz, brother of ex-bantam champ Manuel Ortiz, stands as his toughest opponent yet of the campaign.

The Baby is a stranger to the East at large. He has put in his entire two years of pro battling on the Pacific Coast and the Coliseum scrap will introduce him to Eastern rings for the first time.

Ortiz's Record Impressive

Baby's ring record is a good one. In 21 battles he has won 14, drawn in three and lost only four.

The Baltimore star has won six of seven since his return to action, counting the TKO's here. And, since his last Coliseum start he has headed shows in Cumberland and Richmond, winning both.

Cage 'Deal' Traps Senior

McDonald Admits Taking $250 Bribe

NEW YORK.—Robert S. McDonald, 25, a Marine Corps veteran, of 108-56 167th St., Jamaica, Queens, is the latest of three college basketball players to become involved in the "fix" scandal.

McDonald has been named along with two white teammates, William Walker, of Toledo, Ohio, and Carlo Muzi, of Akron, as having accepted a bribe of $1,750 to rig points in a game between Niagara and their school, the University of Toledo, last December at Toledo.

The three players told Frank S. Hogan, district attorney, how they kept their winning margin to only three points in winning over Niagara, 73-70.

McDonald is reported to have received $250 of the "fix" money.

McDonald was recently elected captain of next year's Toledo squad, and chosen president of the senior class.

The charges against the Toledo three makes a total of 19 players and former players from six colleges named in a series of fixes. Bradley, CCNY, Manhattan College, LIU and N.Y. University.

Softies to Vie Sunday at Eastwood Park at 1 P.M.

This weekend will be the most crucial one of the summer for many of the Bureau of Recreation's softball teams. Four of the five unlimited league championships will be decided by next Wednesday. Three berths in the State Championship Tournament will also be settled by Aug. 1.

The Cherry Hill Trotters of the Independent Club Unlimited League unbeaten this season, have clinched their league title for the second straight year. The West Baltimore Club League play-offs will start Sunday at Easterwood Park at 1 p.m. with the Royal A.C. and Mohawks A.C. meeting in a best two out of three series.

The second game is scheduled at Easterwood on Monday, July 30. A third game if necessary will be played at Easterwood on Wednesday, Aug. 1. The Mohawks won the first round in the league with four victories and no defeats. Vernon Barbour's Royals came back hard to match this record in the second round.

Industrial League Set

The Industrial and Trade School League will settle its championship quickly with one game play - off scheduled at 11 a.m. at Easterwood Park between Crown Cork and Seal and defending champion Building Trade School. The Builders started slowly but matched Crown's first round unbeaten spree as they won the second round.

The Northwest League wound up is a three-way tie for first place between Domino Sugar, Northwestern Stars and the Hurricanes.

At a draw Monday night the Hurricanes were scheduled to play Domino Sugar at Easterwood Park Friday, July 28 and the Northwestern Stars will play the winner for the second round title at Easterwood Park this Sunday at 3 p.m.

Westport Racing Twice Weekly

Following Saturday night's standing room only crowd of 5,500, Promoter Ed Otto is going to stage two stock car 'racing shows a week starting August 3, at the Westport Stadium, every Wednesday and Saturday nights.

The Wednesday night programs will alternate between stocks and midgets, but the Saturday night shows will remain the same.

The fans were treated to a thrilling show in which only 10 of the 22 drivers in the 50-lap feature championship race finished. Some of the cars ran up the embankment, others stalled and still others became overheated over the long grind and had to pull out of the race.

Bob Whay, Baltimore boy in his second year of competitive driving, emerged the champion as he weeded his way through the debris of stalled cars with a show of skillful driving. Ed Lindsey, finished third to Whay and Charley Dyer of Cranston, R.I.

Pa. Open Net Champs Favored

The Pennsylvania Open Tennis championships will get under way Thursday on the Germantown YWCA courts. The finals are scheduled for Sunday.

Rudy Winston, defending champion in the junior singles, and Al Bishop, in the veterans' singles, are favored to repeat. Bishop will team with Jesse Jones in the men's doubles.

2 Ex-Women's Champs

Raymond Jackson, former national junior champion, is a top favorite to cop the men's singles crown.

Two former women's champions, Ora Washington and Lulu Ballard, will attempt to recapture some lost lustre. Both plan to compete in the mixed and women's doubles.

Other local stars, who may start, are Maurice Anderson and Hayward Willis.

Elites, Clowns to Play

The Baltimore Elites Giants will return to West Port Park on Sunday, August 5th, for a twin bill with the Indianapolis Clowns.

Don Holds Cubs to 1; Brooks Win

CHICAGO

Big Don Newcombe defeated the Chicago Cubs, 9-1, here at Wrigley Field, Thursday afternoon, annexing his eighth straight win of the season and his ninth in a row over the Windy City outfit.

His own double, with two mates aboard, in the seventh, broke up what to then had been a 1-1 pitching duel between Newcombe and the Cubs' youthful Turk Lown.

Campy Gets 17th Homer

Roy Campanella helped the cause along with his 17th homer of the year, an eighth inning blast into the left field seats, with Gil Hodges on the paths. The blow also Campy's 1000th baseball of the campaign.

In fanning six Bruin batters, Newk brought his total for the season to 20, a major league high. The victory gave the Brooks a clean sweep of the three-game set with the Cubs and marked No. 14 for Don against four losses.
