TO THE HONORABLE, THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT:

The defendants, Abou Pollack, and Leona Pollack, his wife, would answer the Bill of Complaint of Louise Fout and William Fout, and Lena Renn and Pascal Renn, complainants in equity, filed 26 May, 1959, in the Circuit Court of Frederick County.

The defendants respectfully represent:

1. That they reside permanently not in Baltimore City, Maryland, as stated by the complainants, but in Frederick County, Maryland, wherein they are tax-paying and voting landholders.
2. That they did indeed receive from the complainants on or about the 27th day of July, 1951, a signed option to purchase a tract of land from the complainants.
3. That the above option was consummated by sale as indicated in a Deed in October, 1951.
4. That the above option contained "the further option of the refusal to purchase the remainder of the Grantors' land....West of the described parcel" purchased by the defendants.
