Dedication Ceremonies Held for Miami Hotel

AFRO Travel Editor at New Hotel

Typical of the 113 rooms in Miami's new Lord Calvert Hotel is this one which has modern furnishings, compact bathroom and also a small kitchen. Shown here is Mrs. Ida Murphy Smith, AFRO travel editor, who attended the hotel's grand opening last week, chatting with Rudolph Ferguson, hotel manager.

2,500 Miamians Open Lord Calvert

By IDA MURPHY SMITH

MIAMI, Fla. — More than 2,500 Miamians turned out Thursday night to dedicate the new luxury hotel, Lord Calvert, meet representatives of the weekly press and view the latest in New York styles for southern wear as presented by the Brandford models.

Special guests of the hotel management for the occasion were J. Purdy, of the Tampa Bulletin; Mrs. J. Purdy, Chicago Defender; Mrs. Ida Murphy Smith, AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers; Major Robinson, Our World Magazine; Billy Rowe, Pittsburgh Courier; J. Jackson, Tampa Bulletin; E. Clayton, Color Magazine;

John A. Diaz, Miami Pittsburgh Courier and David Hepburn of Our World.

Other guests included Gerald C Cash, barrister of the Bahamas; Wilbur Blanche of N.Y.; Mrs. V. S. Arnold, Charlotte Court House, Va. and Edward Brandford of New York.

Dedication Exercises

The Brandford Models arrived from New York by plane. The Citizens Committee of Dr. Ira P. Davis, Herb Douglass, Rudolph Ferguson, manager of the Lord Calvert, and Mrs. Lloma Green presented the Key to the City of Miami to them, amid the grinding of newsreel cameras and flashlight bulbs.

Th Rev. Edward T. Graham of Dedication ceremonies held last week marked the opening of the new Lord Calvert Hotel in Miami, Fla. This modern accommodation is as lavish as anything on the beach. It has 113 rooms—each unit with a bath, modern refrigerator and kitchen—and the only salt water swimming pool in the city. On top of the second floor there is a roof garden.

Mt. Zion Baptist Church and pastor, Rev. Richard Heights, Miami, gave the invocation, saying it was "greater to build a house than to take a city."

T. A. Johnson of the Miami Chamber of Commerce congratulated the Big Dan Inc., and B. F. Danbaum, owners of the hotel, on meeting the needs of the community with such a fine project.

The benediction was given by the Rev. John Culmer of St. Agnes Episcopal Church.

Brandford Models Take Over

Edward Brandford, owner of the New York modeling agency, opened the show and turned the job of master of ceremonies over

Outstanding in the housecoat section were Sylvia Fitt in a full yellow seersucker negligee, Delores Ribbney in a pink number that blended beautifully with her complexion, and Dorothy McDavid in an ice-blue silk, piped in pink.

Joyce Monroe's singing of "Too Young" delighted the audience and brought her encores. Sarah Lou Harris was striking in white duck sail cloth pajamas with a fireman's red full jacket.

Delores Ribney was outstanding in the bathing suit section in a gold Chantilly lace number with matching jacket.

Sarah Lou Harris drew all eyes as an intermission number. Twirling a tight ice blue satin with a mandarin collar and a full tulle skirt starting below the knees.

Sarah Lou, a delightful model, showed a gown designed for the stylish stout. She started out in a full evening gown with a fitted jacket in satin in black and full skirt with large handpainted flowers.

She then sipped off the full skirt to have a cocktail dress, with the flounce used as a cape. Then she put on a jacket to make a business suit and pulled out the full collar and scarf. The jacket of the gown was lined in black and white polka dots.

Dorothy McDavid's evening gown of white pique with petal top and gathered flower skirt was striking as was a Bunny Berigan dress original with the petal top and side puff.

Formula for Summer

Miss Annie Jackson of 1635 Smallwood St., Baltimore, demonstrates the perfect formula for summer relaxation on a Sunday afternoon at Beechwood Park.

Beauty Contest at Beechwood

Young ladies from Baltimore, Washington and vicinity are filing entries to be included in the contest to be held Aug. 26 at Beechwood Park.

Sponsored by the park management, the contest offers loving cups to the first three winners, an expensive cabin cruiser and a Atlantic City for first place winner.

Competent judges have been selected to pick the winners. Washington Post, manager of the park, said all contestants who enter the finals will be given a trip-pass to the park for the 1952 season.

Our Season Pass

In addition, a season's pass, second prize winner will be given or call Armiger 752.

P.S.—See weekend at Beechwood Park. These place winners will be a loving cup, season's pass and a cash award.

Young ladies interested in entering the competition should drop a card or letter to Mr. Boston at Beechwood Park, Pasadena, Md.

Downingtown NAACP Branch Has Lawn Fete

DOWNINGTOWN, Pa.— The local branch of the NAACP presented its second annual Lawn Fete and Turkey Dinner at the Whiteland Ave. home of Sandell Parker, Saturday. It was an evening of contests, entertainment and plenty to eat. Music was provided by the Keys of Rhythm.

EIGHT DEBONAIRS

Mrs. Louise N. Cannon, president, entertained the members Tuesday at her home, 239 Division Ave., N.E.

15 WORDS One Day 60c

In Memoriam 1

BROWN—In loving memory of my dear husband, ERNEST C. BROWN, who passed away, August 19, 1949:
The road into the sunset, is one we all must tread,
And though it brings us sorrow, When a loved one goes ahead. But still the vacant chair recalls the love, the voice, the smile, Of the one who once sat there.
Devotedly Wife, MARY E. BROWN

CARRINGTON—In sacred memory of my darling, JEAN LILLIAN, who left my home 11 years ago. God has taken back my darling. To place my hat among his flowers.
Taken back the little girl he loaned me. To a better home than ours. Father, who saw'st me, hear this parent's prayer please watch her there.
Mother, Sister, Brother.

CARRINGTON—In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, EDWARD, who passed away, August 17, 1944:
Years have passed, since that sad day;
When the angel came and took away.
God took him home, it was His will, Within our hearts, he liveth still.
Sadly Wife and children.

MRS. RUTH E. LAWRENCE

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN
GONE AWAY, August 17, 1950:
We do not forget her. We loved her too dearly.
For her memory to fade from our lives like a dream;
Our lips need not speak when our hearts mourn sincerely.
Very fond offers dwells where it seldom is seen.

RINGGOLD — In memory of my dear sister, BERTHA M. RINGGOLD, who passed away August 17, 1950:
And while she lies in peaceful sleep, Her memory we shall keep.
BROTHER AND FAMILY.

Cards of Thanks 2

ERBY—The family of the late Ada Erby, Wishes to express its gratitude to the many friends, neighbors, residents of the 1600 Blk. N. Appleton St., the Rev. Frank Brown, the choir of Christian Memorial Church, and all other organizations, for their expressions of sympathy at home and at the church, and for the beautiful floral tributes during their sad bereavement. Also gratitude for the splendid services of the Mortician, Mrs. Katie Williams.
